Crescent and the Pen Hanifa Deen, 2006-10-30 This is a book about a writer Islamic fundamentalism mythmaking and international literary politics It is the story of Taslima Nasreen a former medical doctor and protest writer who shot to international fame in 1993 at the age of thirty four after she was accused of blasphemy by religious fanatics in Bangladesh and her book Shame was banned In order to escape a warrant for her arrest the controversial writer went underground and as the official story has it fled to the West where she became a human rights celebrity a female version of Salman Rushdie Taslima Nasreen's name almost became a household word in 1994 when she was awarded the Sakharov Prize by the European Parliament and she was feted by presidents chancellors mayors and famous writers and intellectuals around Europe for two years She is still remembered and widely admired as a modern day feminist icon who fought the bearded fundamentalists in her own country and whose life was in danger This is the official story that most people are familiar with and the one that is widely believed by Taslima supporters around the world However as The Crescent and the Pen reveals in the style of a literary detective tale the true story behind the international campaign to save Taslima has never been told until now Following on the trail of Taslima Deen questions the reasoning behind the international crusade to save her in the process debunking much of the current thinking that has shaped Islam into the new global enemy She discovers that the story of what really happened to Taslima is a fascinating labyrinth where memory and myth have merged the tale having acquired a life of its own with a hundred different authors

Atheism and the Goddess Anway Mukhopadhyay, 2023-03-21 This book seeks to explore the complex modes of interface between religion atheism and the Goddess in multicultural contexts While atheism has often been seen as an interrogation of and a battle against God the gender dimension of this discourse has not been sufficiently negotiated Is the fight against God also a fight against the Goddess Or is there something common between the ideological thrust of the battle against God the Father in atheism and the interrogation of the Divine Father in theology Can the Goddess be seen as an entity radically different from the imperious transcendental that the atheists find embodied in God the Father Or can the Goddess be seen as transcendental as well as immanent and hence subjected to the same atheist denial of transcendence to which God is subjected in non theistic or anti theistic arguments With this volume Anway Mukhopadhyay embarks on a difficult project of epistemologically ideologically and even politically renegotiating and reorienting some of the fundamental issues involved in the discussions of and debates over atheism
