Marta L. Marchisan, 2005 Can an image of an angel in a mirror be a sign that God chose me to have cancer for a reason A Mirrored Image is a courageous story about a thirty nine year old woman who was preparing for her seventeenth year of teaching when suddenly she was facing the biggest challenge of her life From diagnosis to recovery and knowledge of finding myself this book is a look at a candid account of a battle with a devastating illness of rectal cancer and a sense of the person I became It celebrates life and the triumph of a determined courageous and spiritual woman As the mental healing was beginning so did the chemotherapy With faith and positive thinking I tell about my struggle and outline the processes I used to deal with surgery and treatments I used many facets other than medical to survive and begin my celebration of life My hope is for all newly diagnosed cancer patients to find the faith strength courage and hope to fight cancer with a positive attitude and win I also hope that people still battling cancer finds the inspiration and guidance to enrich their outlook of this disease and their life Annotation ,1987 Resources in Education ,2000-10 Research in Education ,1974

Computer-based Education ,1987 Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer,2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Bulletin ,1917 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006
