We Went Too Far Korean Edition:

We Went as Boys...We Came Back as OLD MEN! Sergeant Dennis Urban, 2024-10-01 The Infantryman His emotions are impenetrable yet his shoulders are soft for someone to lean on His hands are firm yet know exactly where to be If he has his arms wrapped around you you're either in the last moments of your life or the safest place you could ever be He's stubborn but will let you have your way just to see you smile He's deadly with a rifle but gentle with a child He plays poker with the devil but guards the gate of Heaven He curses like no other but is the perfect gentleman He has a thousand yard stare but when you look into his eyes it's the most comforting thing you've ever felt The US government trained him as a weapon but raised him as a lover He knows every part of his rifle and every curve of his woman There is no other man like him Whether you love him or hate him both are a privilege He could be your worst nightmare or your best friend I am a seventy five year old former infantry soldier with eight months of hazardous duty pay under my belt I made my Sergeant E 5 stripes the hard way I earned them while patrolling inside the DMZ for over four months The patrol ambush teams that I worked with took part in a number of small firefights leading to three confirmed enemy kills and numerous wounded enemy forces The North Koreans almost always carried off their wounded and dead soldiers so the U N would have no evidence of them violating the truce agreement signed in 1953 That doesn't mean we didn't kill and wound more of them we just could not recover their bodies Our team suffered one casualty during our five months in the DMZ from August 7 1968 to January 7 1969 Our company had at least three patrol teams available each and every day but there was no communication between the teams so we had no way to know what they were running into on a daily basis While on the barrier fence positions I had one incident where I fatally wounded a North Korean infiltrator who managed to take shelter inside the fifty yard deep minefield after which he died I was involved in a vicious firefight along with a nearby foxhole as we fought against a much superior force of North Korean infiltrators which resulted in three North Korean soldiers bodies being recovered The quick response force the next morning found many pools of frozen blood used combat bandages and bloody drag trails headed back toward North Korea close to two miles away The QRF leader later told us we were up against a force as large as thirty men and we were instrumental in stopping them while other forces were sent for By the time they arrived we were all down to our last bullets for our rifles and had already put our bayonets on the end of our rifles expecting a full assault on our two positions My last firefight was while on a woodcutting detail inside the DMZ very close to the MDL or the dividing line between South and North Korea A medium sized North Korean force totally camouflaged in white managed to get within one hundred yards of our location before they were spotted and a firefight took place as we fled the scene leaving our tools and precious wood behind The next morning we returned with a full platoon of armed soldiers and found many blood pools on the ground and bloody drag marks where dead and injured soldiers were carried away to North Korea about one half mile north of the battle scene With the added guards we completed our mission to gather the much needed firewood for the troops on the line and Buckingham's first published work a memoir which chronicles her childhood adolescence and how she came to meet and join The Unification Church of Rev Sun Myung Moon. She was to be a faithful follower for half of her adult life before becoming disillusioned by it all after making a pilgrimage to Korea intended to further deepen her faith. The story opens with the recollection of a picture perfect day with her and her playmates enjoying a carefree life in a wooded bedroom community in the northwest suburbs of Chicago in the mid 1950s. The tragic death of her older sister from leukemia at age 8 creates a tangible disturbance in the family and as happens all too frequently when such a tragedy strikes a young married couple her parents divorce not long after. Her mother decides to move back to her hometown of Denver with Wendy and her younger sister Georgia just as the girls are reaching adolescence. Mother realizes that she cannot survive for long as a single mom with two daughters without an income and sets her sights on well to do bachelors in the Denver social circles. Drugs and alcohol come to be convenient avenues of escape for the author as she is moved in and out of a variety of schools before finally graduating from high school back in Illinois. She has the opportunity to do some traveling with Georgia before the independent minded Hitchcock sisters seemingly go their separate ways. In 1975 a letter from Georgia from a new age community outside of San Francisco gets Wendy's attention. Sensing that Georgia may have been lured into a cult of some kind the author decides to travel to the west coast to see for herself what sister has gotten herself into. Long story short Georgia's stay with the Creative Community Project aka The Unification Church ends within 3 months. Wendy's is to last considerably longer. Positive changes in mind body and spirit are immediately evidenced for our heroine who begins to experience a most substantial presence of and relationship with God. The first seven years in the movement are spent on MFT Mobile Fundraising Teams raising money to support Rev Moon in his vision of building the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth even though Jesus very plainly said that The Kingdom of Heaven is within you. Having laid the seven year foundation of fundraising to qualify to be matched engaged and blessed married by Sun Myung Moon the scene shifts to New York City and the New Yorker Hotel now the World Mission Center for The Unification Church where Rev Moon is preparing to match 1 500 men and women with unshakeable faith in him as the 2nd Coming of Christ. Wendy emerges from the ceremony with her fiancé Francis Buckingham and her foot soldier days are behind her. As family life begins they find in one another alternative sounding boards for what they really believe and why they are doing what they're doing. With the arrival of their son in 1991 the demands on their time and the little money they have for themselves become more and more unreasonable and unbearable. Where is the messiah when you really need him? As the storm clouds loom in the distance hope arrives in the form of a book they discover sitting on a shelf in the home of another church couple. It's entitled A Course in Miracles. It begins by stating Nothing real can be threatened nothing unreal exists. Herein lies the Peace of God. The story of the next leg of the journey is now in progress. the power of Faith guided by Wisdom.
