names sometimes he can't but what's the difference? He's never in any of them long enough to grow roots and that's just the way he likes it. Things start to change for Brock on his latest trip to Abilene when he meets Carly Jessup. Carly has just come east from South Carolina to escape the ravages of the Civil War. She accepts the only job she can find serving drinks in a local saloon but it becomes clear this line of work isn't for her. On her first night when another cowboy makes unwanted advances Brock comes to her rescue. During the ensuing fight he shoots the man in self defense but the local sheriff doesn't see it that way. When Brock escapes and runs to avoid the hangman's noose Carly insists on coming with him. On their journey they each learn something about themselves, each other, and what love really means.
