Gemma's Journey Beryl Kingston, 2013-11-21 Gemma Goodeve a young actress with a promising career is involved in a terrible train crash in which many lives are lost and many people are injured Gemma herself has to have her lower leg amputated before she can be freed from the wreckage When she wakes from the anaesthesia she has to face the difficult truth deal with a long and painful recovery and accept that she will not be able to act anymore Her young doctor Nick Quennell becomes more than professionally involved in Gemma's care as he tries to protect her from the media circus that surrounds the rail accident and her own mother who is far from being supportive But is his care and romantic feeling really what Gemma needs and wants in this terrible moment in her life In Gemma's Journey first published in 1997 Beryl Kingston sets the romantic plot against the difficult issues of recovering from a life changing accident and with her characteristic interest in social problems she also explores the breakup of the rail network and gaps in the NHS system Proceedings

Rush, 2016-11-10 Free Jazz Harmolodics and Ornette Coleman discusses Ornette Coleman's musical philosophy of Harmolodics an improvisational system deeply inspired by the Civil Rights Movement Falling under the guise of free jazz Harmolodics can be difficult to understand even for seasoned musicians and musicologists Yet this book offers a clear and thorough approach to these complex methods outlining Coleman's position as the developer of a logical and historically significant system of jazz improvisation Included here are detailed musical analyses of improvisations accompanied by full

Free All Along Stephen Drury Smith,Catherine Ellis,2019-01-15 This is an expression not of people who are suddenly freed of something but people who have been free all along Ralph Ellison speaking with Robert Penn Warren A stunning collection of previously unpublished interviews with key figures of the black freedom struggle by the Pulitzer Prize winning author In 1964 in the height of the civil rights movement of the 1960s Pulitzer Prize winning author and poet Robert Penn Warren set out with a tape recorder to interview leaders of the black freedom struggle He spoke at length with luminaries such as James Baldwin Martin Luther King Jr Stokely Carmichael Ralph Ellison and Roy Wilkins eliciting reflections and frank assessments of race in America and the possibilities for meaningful change In Harlem a fifteen minute appointment with Malcolm X unwound into several hours of vivid conversation A year later Penn Warren would publish Who Speaks for the Negro a probing narrative account of these conversations that blended his own reflections with brief excerpts and quotations from his interviews Astonishingly the full extent of the interviews remained in the background and were never published The audiotapes stayed largely unknown until recent years Free All Along brings to life the vital historic voices of America s civil rights generation including writers political activists religious leaders and intellectuals A major contribution to our understanding of the struggle for justice and equality these remarkable long form interviews are presented here as original documents that have pressing relevance today
