Series Japanese Society Key Texts for Japanese Sociology Hideo Nakazawa, 2024-12-18 Though rich diverse unique and engaging Japan's sociological outputs have been internationally underrepresented In its thoughtful translation and curation of key Japanese sociological texts this book

redresses this imbalance and treads exciting new ground. Comprising 17 chapters spanning 7 decades, this text introduces you to fundamental themes from classical studies in post-war Japan to contemporary sociological issues like migration, politics, social mobility, and gender-based violence. Key Texts for Japanese Sociology is an original, much-needed resource empowering a foundational, confident understanding of the national, regional, and local traditions of Japanese sociology from the latter half of the last century to today. In Pursuit of the Seikatsusha せいかつしや, 2011. This is a study of Japan's home-grown concept of seikatsusha that resembles citizen, people, consumer, common man, and the public, though not exactly identical with any of them. The idea has occupied an important place in Japanese everyday life, academia, and progressive movements. This book presents an extensive genealogy of the concept of seikatsusha from the beginning of the 20th century to the present day. While examining the philosophy of such thinkers as Kiyoshi Miki, Nobuyuki Onuma, and Shunsuke Tsurumi, the book scrutinizes the debate over seikatsusha which has been undertaken by a variety of political and intellectual movements, including Shiso no Kagaku (Science of Thought), Beheiren (Citizens for Peace in Vietnam), and the Seikatsu Club. The book points to the viability of the idea of seikatsusha in a sustainable welfare society in the 21st century and is the first in English to fully investigate the concept within Japan's historical and structural context. Japan's Ultra-right Naoto Higuchi, 2016. First published in Japanese in 2014 by the University of Nagoya Press as Nihon Gata Haigai Shugi by Naoto Higuchi. Widows of Japan Debora Aoki, 2010. The author examines widowhood in Japanese society through an anthropological lens. It discusses the history of the Japanese widow as compared to her Chinese and Korean counterparts. Gender roles, the government's role, particularly in respect to war widows, religion, and the changing face of widowhood today are also considered.

Aftermath Yutaka Tsujinaka, Hiroaki Inatsugu, 2018. Aftermath: Fukushima and the 3.11 Earthquake is a comprehensive analysis of recovery and reconstruction following the triple disaster in Japan on March 11, 2011. This collection addresses the question of why, despite the relative success of network governance in brokering a response to the disaster, and to reconstruction, politics failed either to prepare for the disaster or to respond adequately to it. In examining Japan's political system leading up to 3.11, Aftermath looks at the system of network governance that operated between various organizations and levels of government. The book scrutinizes the political influence network that united politicians and the bureaucracy with the major corporations and created a system to promote nuclear power. Through political, policy, economic, and social analysis, Aftermath aims to contribute to the development of mechanisms and structures to minimize the impact of disasters. Series: Japanese Society Series, Subject: Politics, Governance, Japanese Studies, Nuclear Studies. Creating Subaltern Counterpublics A-gwi Sŏ, 2017. This is a study of a political and social movement instigated by older Korean women in Japan, beginning in the 1990s. Koreans in Japan have occupied a unique position among ethnic minority groups. Until recently, they constituted the largest group of foreign nationals, yet they have been marginalized politically, socially, economically, and culturally. Korean women are doubly disadvantaged, treated as inferior to men by both Korean and Japanese society.

Furthermore the first generation of Korean women migrants were not educated as children rendering them functionally illiterate and thus triply marginalized Late in life when family and work responsibilities became less onerous local authorities created educational opportunities which the women took up in unexpected numbers overloading the facilities The authorities responses effectively re marginalized them The elderly Korean women took a stance and in the process reconstituted themselves as social and political actors This book examines that self transformation process Series Japanese Society Series Subject Gender Studies Japanese Studies Korean Studies Migrant Studies
