

TRACES OF FREMONT

BY STEVEN R. SIMMS AND FRANÇOIS GOHIER

Initially thought to be a simple socio-political system, recent reassessments of the Fremont culture assume a more complex society. Author Steve Simms sets Fremont rock art studies in this contemporary context, using the principles of analogy and archaeological evidence. Francois Gohier's stunning photographs of rock art and artifacts offer an engaging complement to Simms's text.

"Simms's book is excellent! I really like his take on Fremont, I like the narrative descriptions of various Fremont settlements, and I like his treatment of rock art—balanced and scholarly without losing the interest and excitement of that astonishing Fremont medium."

—Stephen H. Lekson, professor of anthropology and curator, University of Colorado Museum of Natural History
