Tradition And Crisis Jewish Society At The End Of The Middle Ages:

Tradition and Crisis Jacob Katz, 2000-02-01 A new edition of Katz's study of European Jewish society at end of the Middle Ages. It taps into a rich source: the responsa literature of the Rabbinic establishment of the time, a time when self-governing communities of Jews dealt with their own civil and religious issues. Tradition and crisis Jacob Katz, 1961 Tradition and Crisis Ya'akov Katz, 1961 Traditions and Crisis: Jewish Society at the End of the Middle Ages Jacob Katz, 1971

Jewish Thought and Scientific Discovery in Early Modern Europe David B. Ruderman, 2001 A study on the scientific dimension of Jewish intellectual history in the early modern world. Jewish Culture in Early Modern Europe Richard I. Cohen, Natalie B. Dohrmann, Elchanan Reiner, Adam Shear, 2014-12-31 David B. Ruderman's groundbreaking studies of Jewish intellectuals as they engaged with Renaissance humanism, the Scientific Revolution, and the Enlightenment have set the agenda for a distinctive historiographical approach to Jewish culture in early modern Europe from 1500 to 1800. From his initial studies of Italy to his later work on eighteenth-century English, German, and Polish Jews, Ruderman has emphasized the individual as a representative or exemplary figure through whose life and career the problems of a period and cultural context are revealed. Thirty-one leading scholars celebrate Ruderman's stellar career in essays that bring new insight into Jewish culture as it is intertwined in Jewish, European, Ottoman, and American history. The volume presents probing historical snapshots that advance, refine, and challenge how we understand the early modern period and spark further inquiry. Key elements explored include those inspired by Ruderman's own work: the role of print, the significance of networks and mobility among Jewish intellectuals, the value of extraordinary individuals who absorbed and translated so-called external traditions into a Jewish idiom, and the interaction between cultures through texts and personal encounters of Jewish and Christian intellectuals. While these elements can be found in earlier periods of Jewish history, Ruderman and his colleagues point to an intensification of mobility, the dissemination of knowledge, and the blurring of boundaries in the early modern period. These studies present a rich and nuanced portrait of a Jewish culture that is both a contributing member and a product of early modern Europe and the Ottoman Empire. As director of the Herbert D. Katz Center for Advanced Judaic Studies at the University of Pennsylvania, Ruderman has fostered a community of scholars from Europe, North America, and Israel who work in the widest range of areas that touch on Jewish culture. He has worked to make Jewish studies an essential element of mainstream humanities. The essays in this volume are a testament to the haven he has fostered for scholars, which has and continues to generate important works of scholarship across the entire spectrum of Jewish history. Jewish Studies on Premodern Periods Carl S. Ehrlich, Sara R. Horowitz, 2023-05-22 This volume examines new developments in the fields of premodern Jewish studies over the last thirty years. The essays in this volume, written by leading experts, are grouped into four overarching temporal areas: the First Temple, Second Temple, Rabbinic, and Medieval periods. These time periods are analyzed through four thematic methodological lenses: the social, scientific, history, and society; the textual, texts, and literature.

the material art architecture and archaeology and the philosophical religion and thought Some essays offer a comprehensive look at the state of the field while others look at specific examples illustrative of their temporal and thematic areas of inquiry The volume presents a snapshot of the state of the field encompassing new perspectives directions and methodologies as well as the questions that will animate the field as it develops further It will be of interest to scholars and students in the field as well as to educated readers looking to understand the changing face of Jewish studies as a discipline advancing human knowledge

Sovereignty and Religious Freedom Ann Schmiesing, 2024-11-26 A comparative legal history of Jewish sovereignty and religious freedom illuminating the surprising ways that collective and individual rights have evolved over the past two centuries It is a common assumption that in Israel Jews have sovereignty and in most other places where Jews live today they have religious freedom instead As Simon Rabinovitch shows in this original work the situation is much more complicated Jews today possess different kinds of legal rights in states around the world some stem from religious freedom protections and others evolved from a longer history of Jewish autonomy By comparing conflicts between Jewish collective and individual rights in courts and laws across the globe from the French Revolution to today this book provides a nuanced legal history of Jewish sovereignty and religious freedom Rabinovitch weaves key themes in Jewish legal history with the individual stories of litigants exploring ideas about citizenship and belonging who is a Jew what makes a Jewish family and how to define Jewish space He uses recent court cases to explore problems of conflicting rights and then situates each case in a wider historical context This unique comparative history creates a global picture of modern legal development in which Jews continue to use the law to carve out surprising forms of sovereignty

The Jewish State Alan Dowty, 2001-06 The one intelligent overview of Israeli politics that addresses the paradox at the heart of Israeli statehood How can Israel be both a Jewish state and a democratic state

20th Century Jewish Religious Thought Arthur A. Cohen, Paul Mendes-Flohr, 2010-01-01 JPS is proud to reissue Cohen and Mendes Flohr s classic work perhaps the most important comprehensive anthology available on 20th century Jewish thought This outstanding volume presents 140 concise yet authoritative essays by renowned Jewish figures Eugene Borowitz Emil Fackenheim Blu Greenberg Susannah Heschel Jacob Neusner Gershom Scholem Adin Steinsaltz and many others They define and reflect upon such central ideas as charity chosen people death family love myth suffering Torah tradition and more With entries from Aesthetics to Zionism this book provides striking insights into both the Jewish experience and the Judeo Christian tradition
