Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love's compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned The World and the Word Nongenile M. Zenani, 1992-10-01 A master storyteller of the Xhosa people of South Africa Nongenile Masithathu Zenani gives us an unprecedented view of an oral society from within Twenty four of her complex and beautiful tales about birth puberty marriage and work as told to the renowned collector of African oral tradition Harold Scheub are gathered here Accompanying the stories are Zenani's detailed commentaries and analyses and Scheub's striking photographs of her in performance The combination of these historical and cultural observations with a richly symbolic collection of tales from a single traditional storyteller make The World and the Word a remarkable document The storyteller's materials are simple Zenani told Scheub the world and the word She presents to us the entire world of the Xhosa people how they first came to be the origins of their customs how they order their world and deal with transgressors how they manage all of life's transitions from birth to death She depicts both the world as it exists and as it is shaped in the words of the storyteller Inheriting tales from the Xhosa tradition Zenani has transformed them into imaginative new stories marked by her own artistry Scheub's introduction to The World and the Word discusses Xhosa oral tradition and Zenani's particular characteristics as an artist within that tradition Zenani's personal history and her work as both a storyteller and a healer and Scheub's friendship with her and his role in recording her legacy

The Barren Epistemology of Jacques Derrida Peter Bornedal, 2024-01-15 This book presents a critique of Derrida from a Nietzschean perspective Questioning the often advertised association between Nietzsche and Derrida it focuses instead on important differences and incompatibilities between Nietzsche's naturalistic paradigm and Derrida's textual paradigm Peter Bornedal argues that Nietzsche's position points us toward a pragmatic and constructionist epistemology based on a naturalist world view which was cutting edge in his days while Derrida's epistemology reduces theories of knowledge to a general textualism In short Nietzsche is not the predecessor of deconstruction or generally postmodernism that he is often portrayed to be His thinking does not advocate postmodernism's suspension of truth reason logic and understanding but rather replicates the paradigms of emerging disciplines of his day such as biology psychology cognitive science and linguistics His thinking is not playfulness for its own sake and does not defend formal transcendentalist principles such as difference The Barren Epistemology of Jacques Derrida A Critique of Deconstruction from a Nietzschean Perspective argues instead that Derrida's introduction of the supposedly novel difference logic may be analyzed as a transcendentalist validation of logical errors often addressed in earlier Western thinking in order to be avoided such as the contradiction in Aristotle or the paralogism in Kant With this critical view the work re-examines difference thinking and questions whether inconsistencies are manufactured rather than discovered in deconstructionist interpretation
