Context

On July 28th 1914 began the outbreak of the First World War, also World War 1 or The Great War.

Why did it start?

Europe had split into two large families of countries. The Allies – the British Empire, France, Belgium, Russia and later, the USA – were in one family. And the Central Powers – Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy and Turkey were in the other. On 28th July 1914, Germany invaded Belgium, and so, standing by its promise to support Belgium, Britain declared war on Germany. The world was at war.
