The Worlding Project Doing Cultural Studies In The Era Of Globalization:

The Worlding Project Christopher Leigh Connery, Rob Wilson, 2007-10-30 Globalization discourse now presumes that the world space is entirely at the mercy of market norms and forms promulgated by reactionary U S policies An academic but accessible set of studies this wide range of essays by noted scholars challenges this paradigm with diverse and strong arguments Taking on topics that range from the medieval Mediterranean to contemporary Jamaican music from Hong Kong martial arts cinema to Taiwanese politics writers such as David Palumbo Liu Meaghan Morris James Clifford and others use innovative cultural studies to challenge the globalization narrative with a new and trenchant tactic called worlding The book posits that world literature cultural studies and disciplinary practices must be worlded into expressions from disparate critical angles of vision multiple frameworks and field practices as yet emerging or unidentified This opens up a major rethinking of historical givens from Rob Wilson s reinvention of The White Surfer Dude to Sharon Kinoshita s Deprovincializing the Middle Ages Building on the work of cultural critics like Edward Said Gayatri Spivak and Kenneth Burke The Worlding Project is an important manifesto that aims to redefine the aesthetics and politics of postcolonial globalization with alternative forms and frames of global becoming Worlding the Western Neil Campbell, 2022-09-13 Worlding the Western views the fiction of the Western United States as a focal point for a reexamination of the consequences of the exceptionalism and closed borders of the Trump Era At a time of bounded individualism new nativism climate emergency and migration crises author Neil Campbell argues that fiction offers opportunities to challenge the dark side of globalization He proposes worlding as a different and more open form of politics Diversity disparity and opposition are central to the dynamic frictional fiction considered in this book The American West provides a powerful test case in which these features are present and yet historically have often been masked or denied in the rush toward unanimity and nation building Worlding is therefore a positive critical concept through which to view the notion of a single world under pressure

Worlding Multiculturalisms Daniel P. S. Goh, 2014-11-20 Worlding multiculturalisms are practices that infuse our arbitrary cultural lives with new things from other cultures in poetic ways to enable us to dwell and be at home with the complexity of the world In the context of the crisis of multiculturalism in the West and the growing obsolescence of state based multiculturalism in the postcolonial world this book offers examples of new practices of worlding multiculturalisms that go beyond issues of immigration integration and identity Contrasting Western and Asian notions of multiculturalism this book does not focus on state issues but rather highlights manifestations of cultural exchange The chapters draw on cultural studies approaches to document instances of worlding multiculturalisms that bring Asian cultures into conflict dialogue and settlement with each other Instances include an Asian American return novel set in Penang the cultural productions and street performances of democracy marches in Malaysia the campaigns to reclaim public spaces and citizenship rights by migrant domestic workers in Hong Kong the imaginary vistas opened up by Japanese popular culture consumed throughout

Asia the localisations of casino complexes in Macau and a shopping mall in Seoul and an old municipal cemetery being defended from urban redevelopment in Singapore Rather than merely globalizing forms of political diversity these are instances with the potential to transform social relations and the very terms of cultural exchange Worlding Multiculturalisms offers a truly interdisciplinary examination of multiculturalism in action As such it will appeal to students and scholars of cultural studies Asian studies Asian culture and society cultural anthropology and sociology and political sociology

Postcolonial Past & Present Anne Collett, Leigh Dale, 2018-11-26 In Postcolonial Past Present twelve outstanding scholars of literature history and visual arts look to those spaces Epeli Hau ofa has insisted are full not empty asking what it might mean to Indigenise culture A new cultural politics demands new forms of making and interpretation that rethink and reroute existing cultural categories and geographies These makers include Mukunda Das Janet Frame Xavier Herbert Tomson Highway Claude McKay Marie Munkara Elsje van Keppel Albert Wendt Jane Whiteley and Alexis Wright Case studies from Canada to the Caribbean India to the Pacific and Africa analyse the productive ways that artists and intellectuals have made sense of turbulent local and global forces Contributors Bill Ashcroft Debnarayan Bandyopadhyay Anne Brewster Diana Brydon Meeta Chatterjee Padmanabhan Anne Collett Dorothy Jones Kay Lawrence Russell McDougall Tekura Moeka a Tony Sim es da Silva Teresia Teaiwa Albert Wendt Lydia Wevers Diana Wood Conroy A Companion to World History Douglas Northrop, 2014-12-15 A COMPANION TOWORLD HISTORY This new volume offers insightful reflections by both leading and emerging world historians on approaches methodologies arguments and pedagogies of a sub discipline that has continued to be in flux as well as in need of defining itself as a relevant alternative to the traditional national regional or chronological fields of inquiry Choice The focus on the practicalities of how to do world history probably gives it its edge Its thirty three chapters are grouped into sections that address how to set up research projects in world history how to teach it how to get jobs in it how to frame it and how it is done in various parts of the globe It is an actual handbook in other words as opposed to a sample of exemplary work English Historical Review A Companion to World History offers a comprehensive overview of the variety of approaches and practices utilized in the field of world and global history This state of the art collection of more than 30 insightful essays including contributions from an international cast of leading world historians and emerging scholars in the field identifies continuing areas of contention disagreement and divergence while pointing out fruitful directions for further discussion and research Themes and topics explored include the lineages and trajectories of world history key ideas and methods employed by world historians the teaching of world history and how it draws upon and challenges traditional approaches and global approaches to writing world history By considering these interwoven issues of scholarship and pedagogy from a transnational interregional and world global scale fresh insights are gained and new challenges posed With its rich compendium of diverse viewpoints A Companion to World History is an essential resource for the study of the world s past Cultural Conflict in Hong Kong Jason S. Polley, Vinton W.K. Poon, Lian-Hee Wee, 2018-03-28 This book examines how in navigating Hong Kong's colonial history alongside its ever present Chinese identity the city has come to manifest a conflicting socio cultural plurality Drawing together scholars critics commentators and creators on the vanguard of the emerging field of Hong Kong Studies the essay volume presents a gyroscopic perspective that discerns what is made in from what is made into Hong Kong while weaving a patchwork of the territory's contested local imaginary This collection celebrates as it critiques the current state of Hong Kong society on the 20th anniversary of its handover to China The gyroscopic outlook of the volume makes it a true area studies book length treatment of Hong Kong and a key and interdisciplinary read for students and scholars wishing to explore the territory's complexities The Beatles and Sixties Britain Marcus Collins,2020-03-05 In this rigorous study Marcus Collins reconceives the Beatles social cultural and political impact on sixties Britain Imperialism, Reform and the Making of Englishness in Jane Eyre S. Thomas,2015-12-11 This new study demonstrates the precision of Brontë's historical setting of Jane Eyre Thomas addresses the historical worlding of Brontë and her characters mapping relations of genre and gender across the novel's articulation of questions of imperial history and relations reform racialization and the making of Englishness Conceptualizing the World Helge Jordheim,Erling Sandmo,2018-12-17 What is and what was the world Though often treated as interchangeable with the ongoing and inexorable progress of globalization concepts of world globe or earth instead suggest something limited and absolute This innovative and interdisciplinary volume concerns itself with this central paradox that the complex heterogeneous and purportedly transhistorical dynamics of globalization have given rise to the idea and reality of a finite and thus vulnerable world Through studies of illuminating historical moments that range from antiquity to the era of Google Earth each contribution helps to trace the emergence of the world in multitudinous representations practices and human experiences Pacific Literatures as World Literature Hsinya Huang,Chia-hua Yvonne Lin,2023-05-04 Pacific Literatures as World Literature is a conjuration of trans Pacific poets and writers whose work enacts forces of becoming oceanic and suggests a different mode of understanding viewing and belonging to the world The Pacific past and present remains uneasily amenable to territorial demarcations of national or marine sovereignty At the same time as a planetary element necessary to sustaining life and well being the Pacific could become the means to envisioning ecological solidarity if compellingly framed in terms that elicit consent and inspire an imagination of co belonging and care The Pacific can signify a bioregional site of coalitional promise as much as a danger zone of antagonistic peril With ground breaking writings from authors based in North America Japan Taiwan Korea Hawaii and Guam and new modes of research including multispecies ethnography and practice ecopoetics and indigenous cosmopolitics authors explore the socio political significance of the Pacific and contribute to the development of a collective effort of comparative Pacific studies covering a refreshingly broad ethnographically grounded range of research themes This volume aims to decenter continental land poetics as such via long standing transnational Pacific ties re worlding Pacific literature as world literature Asianisms Marc Frey,Nicola

Spakowski,2015-11-11 At the core of this book is a seemingly simple question What is Asia In search of common historical roots traditions and visions of political cultural integration first Japanese then Chinese Korean and Indian intellectuals politicians and writers understood Asianisms as an umbrella for all conceptions imaginations and processes which emphasized commonalities or common interests among different Asian regions and nations This book investigates the multifarious discursive and material constructions of Asia within the region and in the West It reconstructs regional constellations intersections and relations in their national transnational and global contexts Moving far beyond the more well known Japanese Pan Asianism of the first half of the twentieth century the chapters investigate visions of Asia that have sought to provide common meanings and political projects in efforts to trace and construct Asia as a united and common space of interaction By tracing the imagination of civil society actors throughout Asia the volume leaves behind state centered approaches to regional integration and uncovers the richness and depth of complex identities within a large and culturally heterogeneous space

Age of Disaffection Patrick Noonan,2025-08-19 The 1960s in Japan have long been understood as a period of radical political engagement But as political movements from Old Left Communism to New Left revolts appeared to fail in their efforts to revolutionize Japanese society artists and intellectuals came to reject the ideals of postwar politics Instead they advocated withdrawing from political participation and making self transformation the grounds for social change This provocative book uncovers a paradox at the heart of the 1960s how political disillusionment became the basis for a new form of politics a politics of the self Examining aesthetic criticism popular literature avant garde art cinema and political theory Patrick Noonan argues that cultural producers in 1960s Japan cultivated what he calls an ethos of disaffection toward revolutionary politics and postwar society Departing from approaches that define politics as contestation Age of Disaffection foregrounds cultivation or the production of ways of feeling and relating to the world in efforts to redefine the political It presents an unorthodox account of the 1960s withdrawal from political activity developed not as the decade ended but as it was unfolding Noonan reveals how Japanese artists and intellectuals in this period confronted a crucial question that continues to vex efforts at radical change today transform institutions or alter how people relate to themselves and others

Diaspora's Homeland Shelly Chan,2018-03-15 In Diaspora s Homeland Shelly Chan provides a broad historical study of how the mass migration of more than twenty million Chinese overseas influenced China s politics economics and culture Chan develops the concept of diaspora moments a series of recurring disjunctions in which migrant temporalities come into tension with local national and global ones to map the multiple historical geographies in which the Chinese homeland and diaspora emerge Chan describes several distinct moments including the lifting of the Qing emigration ban in 1893 intellectual debates in the 1920s and 1930s about whether Chinese emigration constituted colonization and whether Confucianism should be the basis for a modern Chinese identity as well as the intersection of gender returns and Communist campaigns in the 1950s and 1960s Adopting a transnational frame Chan narrates Chinese history through a reconceptualization of diaspora to show how mass migration helped establish China as a nation state within a global system
