Theo Logic Vol 3 Theo Logic Vol 3:

Theo-Logic, Vol. 3 Hans Urs von Balthasar, 2000 Theo Logic is the third and crowning part of the great trilogy of the masterwork of theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar following his first two parts The Glory of the Lord and Theo Drama This is the third volume of Theo Logic Theo Logic is a variation of theology it being about not so much what man says about God but what God speaks about himself Balthasar does not address the truth about God until he first reflects on the beauty of God The Glory of the Lord Then he follows with his reflections on the great drama of our salvation and the goodness and mercy of the God who saves us Theo Drama Now in this work he is ready to reflect on the truth that God reveals about himself which is not something abstract or theoretical but rather the concrete and mysterious richness of God's being as a personal and loving God

Volume 10, Tome III: Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 Kierkegaard has always enjoyed a rich reception in the fields of theology and religious studies This reception might seem obvious given that he is one of the most important Christian writers of the nineteenth century but Kierkegaard was by no means a straightforward theologian in any traditional sense He had no enduring interest in some of the main fields of theology such as church history or biblical studies and he was strikingly silent on many key Christian dogmas Moreover he harbored a degree of animosity towards the university theologians and churchmen of his own day Despite this he has been a source of inspiration for numerous religious writers from different denominations and traditions Tome III explores the reception of Kierkegaard's thought in the Catholic and Jewish theological traditions In the 1920s Kierkegaard's intellectual and spiritual legacy became widely discussed in the Catholic Hochland Circle whose members included Theodor Haecker Romano Guardini Alois Dempf and Peter Wust Another key figure of the mid war years was the prolific Jesuit author Erich Przywara During and especially after World War II Kierkegaard's ideas found an echo in the works of several trend setting Catholic theologians of the day such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Henri de Lubac and the popular spiritual author Thomas Merton The second part of Tome III focuses on the reception of Kierkegaard's thought in the Jewish theological tradition introducing the reader to authors who significantly shaped Jewish religious thought both in the United States and in Israel These theologians represent a variety of religious and political backgrounds the spiritual world of Hasidism Modern Orthodox Judaism of Mithnaggadic origin and Modern Religious Zionism

Theological Aesthetics after von Balthasar James Fodor, 2016-02-17 This collection of essays by distinguished authors explores the present day field of theological aesthetics from von Balthasar's contribution and parallel developments to correctives and alternatives to his approach A tribute to von Balthasar's own project expands into a dialogue with ancient and medieval traditions in search of revelatory aesthetics The contributors outline challenges to his approach including Protestant perspectives and introduce new ways of viewing the field of theological aesthetics which ultimately opens up to the idea of concrete cultural contexts and practical human needs determining the use of the arts and aesthetic sensibilities in theology

Time, Eternity, and the Trinity Eunsoo Kim, 2010-03-01 One of the vital issues in contemporary Christian theology is the problem of a renewed understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time. This is not merely a peripheral doctrinal issue but lies at the heart of our understanding of God and humanity and contributes to our entire worldview. This study focuses on a long standing debate between two competing views on God's eternity: one focused on God's absolute timelessness in classical theism and the other on God's temporal everlastingness in contemporary panentheism. In contrast to both of these well worn options, this book presents an alternative Trinitarian analogical understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time, especially through a critical reflection on Karl Barth's and Hans Urs von Balthasar's engagement of the issue. This analogical approach based on the dynamic and dramatic concepts of God's being in relation and of the Triune God's communicative action in eternity and time has the potential to resolve the debate between absolute timeless eternity and temporal everlasting duration.

The Physics and Metaphysics of Transubstantiation
Mark P. Fusco, 2023-08-18
In this book Mark P. Fusco offers a historical philosophical and theological review and appraisal of current research into quantum post modern atheistic mathematical and philosophical theories that engage our interpretation of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Ferdinand Ulrich's accounts of the Eucharist. This cross disciplinary approach inspires a new speculative metaphysical theory based on the representation of being as a holo somatic ontology. Holocryptic metaphysics gives us a novel interpretation of transubstantiation as it is founded on the findings of quantum mechanical theory. The quantum object and black hole's properties present a new way to explain physical matter based on its holographic identity. This scientific theory for representing physical matter's identity is recognized for example in the symmetry existing between a subatomic particle and its orbital shell, a single particle's identity in relationship to its thermodynamic system, Hawking radiation and black hole entropy. Further, the properties of quantum non locality and teleportation signpost a new way to understand the Eternal Logos relationship to Jesus Christ and the Eucharist.

Missa Est! Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2016-12-15
The twenty first century church cannot afford to neglect mission. When church and culture no longer share a common outlook, the only way forward is mission. Pope Francis recognizes this in his call for a missionary conversion of the church. Responding to this invitation is a constructive work in ecclesiology addressing the relationship between liturgy and mission in the church's life. It advances a notion of the church grounded in both liturgy and mission, where neither is subordinated to nor collapsed into the other. The church's liturgical rites disclose and enact the church's identity as a missionary community. Close examination of the sources at the heart of traditional communion ecclesiology, Trinitarian theology, the sacraments of initiation and eucharistic theology, yields an ecclesiology in which the church is constituted by both liturgy and mission. These are two distinct ways of participating in the triune life of God, which is revealed in the paschal mystery. The church's pilgrimage to God's kingdom takes it through the world in mission. The church as the body of Christ is given away to God and to the world for the world's salvation. The result is a contemporary restatement of traditional ecclesiology transposed into a missional key.

The Authority of the Saints Pauline Dimech, 2017-05-18

explores whether and to what extent we may attribute authority to the saints but also how we may ensure that it is the saints and not the scoundrels whose influence persists and whose memory endures The thing that drives her research is the thought that history is full of examples of individuals who held positions of official authority that they did not deserve Dimech is convinced that Hans Urs von Balthasar can help us clarify the issues surrounding the authority of the saints Besides establishing Balthasar's involvement with the enterprise this book tries to establish the theological foundations upon which the authority of the saints would have to be based in theory and possibly already however implicitly based in practice

Nothing Gained Is Eternal Anne M. Carpenter, 2022 In Nothing Gained Is Eternal Anne Carpenter argues for a theory of tradition firmly moored to the ambiguities contradictions and varied fruits of the past She challenges readers to wrestle with whether tradition can persist despite its colonialist practices In asking this question she offers hope for transforming tradition in its wake Pope Francis and Mercy Gill K. Goulding, CJ, 2023-09-15 This theological study examines how Pope Francis lives out mercy in his own Petrine ministry and calls for it to be lived out by the people of God The centerpiece of Pope Francis's pontificate from the very first days has been his proclamation of the importance of the mercy of God While facing global problems of climate change terror political destabilization refugees and dire poverty the Holy Father has articulated the mission of the Church through mercy love and forgiveness to reveal the compassion of God for all and particularly for those most vulnerable existing on the margins of society In this compelling study Gill Goulding CJ examines for the first time the critical and determinative role of mercy in Francis's papacy using his homilies allocutions encyclicals and addresses as primary sources Goulding traces the theme of mercy in Francis's thought attending to its Ignatian foundations and its Christological Trinitarian and ecclesiological significance for the Church today particularly the impact of his reappropriation and elevation of the discourse of mercy on the work of the Curia in Rome Goulding enters into dialogue with other theologians including Romano Guardini Walter Kasper and Hans Urs von Balthasar to demonstrate a continuity between Francis and his predecessors especially Benedict XVI in this area of mercy In addition Goulding argues that the influence of St Ignatius Loyola in particular his Spiritual Exercises needs to be taken into account paying special attention to Francis's call for the practice of discernment Throughout Pope Francis and Mercy Goulding lays the groundwork for future research and suggests a wider appreciation of the necessary tools to enable an engagement with mercy in our contemporary world Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19 A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views A companion piece to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son given to the people of God as a gift Love Itself Is Understanding Matthew A. Rothaus Moser

,2016-11-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 sets out to reunite Truth and holiness by returning the saints to their proper place at the heart of philosophy theology and metaphysics Love Itself is Understanding is one of the first systematic treatments of Balthasar's theology of the saints Matthew Rothaus Moser presents Balthasar as an alternative to Idealist philosophy a thinker who develops a religious metaphysics in which the saints practices of prayer and contemplation are the chief mode of knowing that the Truth of Being is divine love Love Itself is Understanding casts new light on dominant themes in Balthasar's thought and invites a renewed vision of the theological and metaphysical significance of the spiritual practices of prayer obedience and charity The Oxford Handbook of Deification Paul L. Gavriluk,2024 This handbook offers a comprehensive and varied study of deification within Christian theology Forty six leading experts in the field examine points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification across different writers thinkers and traditions

The Holy Trinity Katy Leamy,2015-04-09 This book explores the ways in which Balthasar employs and adapts the thought of Sergei Bulgakov with the Trinitarian theology of Thomas Aquinas to form a kenotic Trinitarian theology that is based on the notion of Personhood as a relation of self donating love When we look at Balthasar's Trinitarian theology in light of Bulgakov and particularly as a rereading of Bulgakov in light of a Thomistic Trinitarian theology we are not only able to more clearly understand the implications of Balthasar's own Trinitarian theology but also to highlight the beauty and relevance of Bulgakov's Trinitarian contribution This reading of Balthasar's Trinitarian theology read in light of a Thomistic adjustment of Bulgakov provides an excellent point of integration for an ethics that takes into account not only individual virtues and perfection but also the social relational context of human personhood This ethics is based in a concept of human nature bearing the imago Trinitatis and fulfilling that nature through sacramental participation and ethical extension of Christ's self offering love Gathered on the Road to Zion Daniel Lee Hill,2021-04-26 Churches are filled with human beings It is as a community of human creatures that the church gathers together on Sunday mornings to worship the triune God and it is as a community of creatures that its members participate in the church's liturgical life However merely noting that the church and human beings are related to one another leaves the nature of this relationship unresolved and undefined And this raises an important question How should the doctrine of the church inform our understanding of what it means to be human This project is an exercise in ecclesio anthropology albeit from a Free Church perspective In it Daniel Lee Hill seeks to discover how the nature practices mission and telos of the church robustly inform our understanding of the human creature

Sacrificing the Church Eugene R. Schlesinger,2019-10-01 In a context of scandal and decline the Christian church cannot afford to do business as usual It must regain its bearings and clarify its nature and purpose Sacrificing the Church provides this clarity by returning to the church's foundation Jesus Christ and him crucified It presents an ecclesiological vision in which every aspect of the church's life flows from and expresses the one sacrifice of Christ This sacrifice is the basis of every ecclesial experience the form and content of the church's life a life which shares in the eternal Trinitarian life of God

By and as Christ's sacrifice we are introduced into the divine life. This participation plays out in three key areas which set the church's agenda in the contemporary world: its worship of God, Mass, mission to the world, mission and efforts toward the unity of all people beginning with divided Christians, ecumenism.

God and Difference Linn Marie Tonstad, 2015-10-05

God and Difference interlaces Christian theology with queer and feminist theory for both critical and constructive ends. Linn Marie Tonstad uses queer theory to show certain failures of Christian thinking about God, gender and sexuality. She employs queer theory to dissect trinitarian discourse and the resonances found in contemporary Christian thought between sexual difference and difference within the trinity. Tonstad critiques a broad swath of prominent Christian theologians who either use queer theory in their work or affirm the validity of same sex relationships, arguing that their work inadvertently promotes gendered hierarchy. This volume contributes to central debates in Christianity over divine and human personhood, gendered relationality and the trinity, and provides original accounts of God, sexual difference and Christian community that are both theologically rich and thoroughly queer.

The Dramatizing of Theology Matthew S. Farlow, 2017-07-14

Matthew Farlow traces the thoughts of Balthasar and Barth so as to enter into theological truth of God's Being in Act. This exploration embarks on a journey into the reality of our Triune God who has engaged his creation so as to elicit fellow actors. God seeking out humanity is God with us, a truth that not only informs our theological endeavors but invites us into the dramatic performance of reconciliation. As Farlow illumines, God is an acting God who seeks fellow participants in his ongoing drama of salvation. Through the dramatizing of theology, the church and her theologians come to realize God's threefold movement: revelation, invitation and reconciliation. It is a unified act that startles humanity and thus theology out of its spectator's seat so as to drag it onto the world's stage. As Farlow discusses it, is through the dramatizing of theology that we find ourselves best equipped to participate faithfully in the role of a lifetime.

Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation Matthew Levering, 2014-11-11

How do human beings today receive divine revelation? Where and in what ways is it mediated so that all generations can hear the fullness of the gospel? In this volume, distinguished theologian Matthew Levering shows that divine revelation has been truthfully mediated through the church, the gospel and Scripture so that we can receive it in its fullness today. Levering engages past and present approaches to revelation across a variety of traditions, offering a comprehensive historical study of all the key figures and perspectives. His thorough analysis results in an alternative approach to prevailing views of the doctrine and points to its significance for the entire church.

The Theological Anthropology of David Kelsey Gene Outka, 2016

David Kelsey's two-volume masterwork Eccentric Existence: A Theological Anthropology has been recognized as a major achievement, the culmination of decades of probing theological thought about what it means to be a human being in relationship with God. Ten distinguished scholars respond to and interact with Eccentric Existence in this book, celebrating both Kelsey and his landmark study with essays on theological anthropology as it relates to the Bible, Catholic tradition, theological education and other subjects.

McDougall Cyril O Regan Gene Outka Amy Plantinga Pauw John E Thiel Edwin Chr van Driel Barbara G Wheeler Charles M Wood Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin, 2015-09-15 In Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin offers the first systematic treatment and evaluation of the Swiss Catholic theologian's complex relation to modern speculative Russian religious philosophy. Her constructive analysis proceeds through Balthasar's critical reception of Vladimir Soloviev, Nikolai Berdyaev, and Sergei Bulgakov with respect to theological aesthetics, myth, eschatology, and Trinitarian discourse, and examines how Balthasar adjudicates both the possibilities and the limits of theological appropriation, especially considering the degree to which these Russian thinkers have been influenced by German Idealism and Romanticism. Martin argues that Balthasar's creative reception and modulation of the thought of these Russian philosophers is indicative of a broad speculative tendency in his work that deserves further attention. In this respect, Martin consciously challenges the prevailing view of Balthasar as a fundamentally conservative or nostalgic thinker. In her discussion of the relation between tradition and theological speculation, Martin also draws upon the understudied relation between Balthasar and F. W. J. Schelling, especially as Schelling's form of Idealism was passed down through the Russian thinkers. In doing so, she persuasively recasts Balthasar as an ecumenical, creatively anti-nostalgic theologian, hospitable to the richness of contributions from extra-magisterial and non-Catholic sources.
