Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works: Theological education at Finkenwalde : 1935-1937 Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1996 Theological Education at Finkenwalde Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2013-10-01 In the spring of 1935 Dietrich Bonhoeffer returned from England to direct a small illegal seminary for the Confessing Church. The seminary existed for two years before the Gestapo ordered it closed in August 1937. This volume includes bible studies, sermons, and lectures on homiletics, pastoral care, and catechesis, giving a moving and up close portrait of the Confessing Church in these crucial years, the same period during which Bonhoeffer wrote his classics Discipleship and Life Together. Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism in Dialogue George Harinck, Brant M. Himes, 2023-11-28 This book is a collection of scholarly essays that place Dietrich Bonhoeffer in conversation with the Dutch Neo Calvinist tradition of Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck. The essays engage in theological ethics and historical theology in an effort to frame ongoing dialogue in relation to issues of public theology. While Bonhoeffer and Neo Calvinism represent distinct theological traditions, there is value in placing their respective ideas in conversation for the purposes of creative insight, theological understanding, and practical application. Contributors represent perspectives from North America and the Netherlands. Taken together, the essays offer an important contribution to this unique field of theological inquiry. Bonhoeffer's Theology of the Cross J.I. de Kijzer, 2019-10-14 Back cover Engaging Bonhoeffer's dialogues with Barth and Heidegger in Act and Being J. I. de Kijzer shows how Bonhoeffer both in his critical assessment of Barth's dialectic and his appropriation of Heidegger's ontology articulates a contemporary theological crucis that proves to be deeply influenced by Luther. Bonhoeffer and Christology Matthias Grebe, Nadine Hamilton, Christian Schlenker, 2023-05-18 The key question this volume addresses is how does Bonhoeffer's thought help to rediscover the doctrine of Christ's two natures and one person and understand and renew it in its significance for a modern post-metaphysical and secular world. The volume takes a fresh look at Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christology and brings it into a fruitful dialogue with current Christological debates. In a multi-perspectival pluralistic world, Bonhoeffer's thinking offers a productive basis for conceptually incorporating the openness required for this task into academic theology. Bonhoeffer's theology offers a starting point for the recovery of a productive Christology that reflects the plurality of the globalized world as Bonhoeffer's Christology begins precisely with this integration into worldly reality whereby the world is understood in its plurality and polyphony. In this way, he characterizes his enterprise as follows: 'What keeps gnawing at me is the question: what is Christianity or who is Christ actually for us today?' DBWE 8:362. Accordingly, it opens itself up not only to inner-Christian discussion but also to non-Christian worldviews from which a basic ethical demand follows. Human Subjectivity 'in Christ' in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology Jacob Phillips, 2019-09-19 Jacob Phillips presents a critical study of a neglected aspect of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology: his writing on human subjectivity, self-reflection, and individual identity in Christ. In response to the rise of chronic self representation through digital technology Phillips argues that Bonhoeffer presents a radical challenge maintaining that from the perspective of Christian theology there is something deeply negative about beholding representations of oneself Bonhoeffer instead holds that discipleship means adopting a posture of radical agnosticism toward one's own identity Phillips focuses on the interrelation of simplicity and reflection in theological cognition and ethical deliberation showing a wider significance in contemporary theological anthropology soteriology and ethics By following the tradition of reading Bonhoeffer in relation to the philosophical sources such as W stenberg Janz Whitson Floyd Marsh Zimmermann Gregor Phillips highlights the ways in which Bonhoeffer's work relates to modern debates in epistemology and ethics generally and that of Wilhelm Dilthey and hermeneutical phenomenology in particular This volume offers a detailed theological analysis of the themes of self identity human subjectivity and self understanding which are highly pertinent for contemporary society

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day

Church in Ordinary Time Amy Plantinga Pauw, 2017-09-21 The liturgical season called ordinary time consists mostly of the weeks between Easter and the beginning of Advent This season generally ignored by theologians aptly symbolizes the church's existence as God's creature in the gap between the resurrection of Christ and the consummation of all things In this book Amy Plantinga Pauw draws on the seasons of the church year and the creation theology elaborated in the Wisdom books of Scripture to explore the contours of a Trinitarian ecclesiology that is properly attuned to the church's life amid the realities of today's world

Baptists and the Catholic Tradition Barry Harvey, 2020-02-18 Barry Harvey provides a doctrine of the church that combines Baptist distinctives and origins with an unbending commitment to the visible church as the social body of Christ Speaking to the broader Christian community Harvey updates streamlines and recontextualizes the arguments he made in an earlier edition of this book Can These Bones Live This new edition offers a style of ecclesial witness that can help Christian churches engage culture The author suggests new ways Baptists can engage ecumenically with Catholics and other Protestants offers insights for Christian worship and practice and shows how the fragmented body of Christ can be re membered after Christendom Bonhoeffer the Assassin? Mark Thiessen Nation, Anthony G. Siegrist, Daniel P. Umbel, 2013-10-01 Most of us think we know the moving story of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life: a pacifist pastor turns anti Hitler conspirator due to horrors encountered during World War II but does the evidence really support this prevailing view? This pioneering work carefully examines the biographical and textual evidence and finds no support for the theory that Bonhoeffer abandoned his ethic of discipleship and was involved in plots to assassinate Hitler. In fact Bonhoeffer consistently affirmed a strong stance of peacemaking from 1932 to the end of his life and his commitment to peace was integrated with his theology as a whole. The book includes a foreword by Stanley Hauerwas The Freedom of a Christian Ethicist Brian Brock, Michael Mawson, 2016-01-14 What is the significance of the Protestant Reformation for Christian ethical thinking and action? Can core Protestant commitments and claims still provide for compelling and viable accounts of Christian living? This collection of essays by leading international scholars explores the relevance of the Protestant Reformation and its legacy for contemporary Christian ethics Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology. He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer's own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism. He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer's theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer's Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching. The volume also considers Bonhoeffer's mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self. It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer's theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism. In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing. Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer's ethics as Christformation. Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer's life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God's word is also consistent with his Christian humanism Worldview Theory, Whiteness, and the Future of Evangelical Faith Jacob Alan Cook, 2021-09-28 The twenty first century has seen energy passing between religious and political worldviews kicking up dust around the identity and conviction based fault lines in American society. While many evangelical Christians have developed and deployed a worldview theory to describe and locate themselves within the world's ideological strife Jacob Cook argues this approach has in effect compelled those listening to adopt the world's divisive modes of dealing with difference rather than living out a compelling alternative. As a popular framework for theology in recent history world viewing has driven its white evangelical adherents to narrate human lives in this world including their own in ways that warp Christian identity as a personal social and theological reality. Through close studies of key white evangelical leaders who utilized the worldview concept for political engagement and cultural transformation over the last century Cook reveals why worldview theory is inept for grasping real human complexity and moreover how it forms a barrier to genuine life together as creatures in a world only the living God can really view In between these studies he draws from current conversations in psychology sociology critical race studies and other fields to deliver a vigorous critique of the worldview concept and its use as well as its underlying impulse and to unmask what world viewing shares with the history and spirit of whiteness This book is for those wrestling with the relationship between Christianity and whiteness in America how the dynamics of whiteness have become transparent and thus contentions and where to go from here if one is to follow Jesus Bonhoeffer's Seminary Vision Paul R.

House,2015-04-16 Dietrich Bonhoeffer is best known for his role in a plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler and his subsequent execution at the hands of the Nazis However readers are less familiar with his tireless work educating seminary students for a life of pastoral ministry Anchored in a variety of influential lectures personal letters and major works such as The Cost of Discipleship this book attempts to recover a largely unexamined part of Bonhoeffer's life exploring his philosophy and practice of theological education in his original context It then builds on this foundation to address the drift toward increasingly impersonal educational models in our own day affirming the value of personal face to face seminary education for the health of pastors and churches Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Theology, and Political Resistance W. David Hall,, Lori

Brandt Hale,2020-06-15 In 1945 Dietrich Bonhoeffer a theologian and pastor was executed by the Nazis for his resistance to their unspeakable crimes against humanity He was only 39 years old when he died but Bonhoeffer left behind volumes of work exploring theological and ethical themes that have now inspired multiple generations of scholars students pastors and activists This book highlights the ways Dietrich Bonhoeffer's work informs political theology and examines Bonhoeffer's contributions in three ways historical critical interpretation critical constructive engagement and constructive practical application With contributions from a broad array of scholars from around the world chapters range from historical analysis of Bonhoeffer's early political resistance language to accounts of Bonhoeffer inspired front line resistance to white supremacists in Charlottesville VA This volume speaks to the ongoing relevance of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's work and life in and out of the academy Seasoned Speech James E. Beitler III,2019-05-07 Being a faithful disciple of Christ means having seasoned speech practicing a rhetoric that beneficially and persuasively imparts the surprising truth of the gospel James Beitler seeks to renew interest in and hunger for an effective Christian rhetoric by closely considering the work of five beloved Christian communicators C S Lewis Dorothy L Sayers Dietrich Bonhoeffer Desmond Tutu and Marilynne Robinson

Bonhoeffer and the Responsibility for a Coming Generation Robert Vosloo,Teddy Sakupapa,Karola Radler,Ashwin Thyssen,2024-07-25 This volume draws together a selection of high quality presentations at the 13th International Bonhoeffer Congress held in January 2020 in Stellenbosch South Africa The theme of the conference was How a coming generation is to go on living Bonhoeffer and the response to our present crisis and hope The selected essays engage thoroughly and creatively with this concern to take responsibility not only for our own personal and communal life in all of its complexity and richness but also for the ethos and society that future generations will inherit from us The pertinence of Bonhoeffer's question is addressed in these contributions anew as we experience threats on a global level to socio political economic and inter religious stability and solidarity Attention is also given to some important challenges experienced in the so called global South and the reality of climate change and ecological devastation implies that the question of how future generations are going to go on living is linked to the fact that we live on a planet that is in jeopardy Also included as an appendix is the powerful sermon preached by the South African Anglican archbishop of Cape Town Thabo Makgoba at the opening worship service of the congress

Luther on Leadership David D. Cook, 2017-12-05 As a leader Martin Luther shook the world Yet oddly enough while a great deal has been written about his life theology and legacy few authors have taken the time to examine his leadership characteristics Luther on Leadership fills this gap by examining his life in light of modern leadership theories This book looks at Luther's life from a variety of angles to show why he was such an effective leader With chapters focusing on Luther as a change agent transformational leader adaptive leader and more this work will help the reader understand why Luther transformed the landscape of Europe Examining not only his theological contributions but also his contributions in fields such as law politics economics and education Luther on Leadership aims to give a holistic picture of Luther as a leader in many areas of society

Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-1945 Ferdinand Schlingensiepen, 2010-06-01 A new comprehensive biography of this hugely important Christian martyr 60 years after his execution at the hands of the Nazis Bonhoeffer has gained a position as one of the most prominent Christian martyrs of the last century His influence is so widespread that even 60 years after his execution by the Nazis Bonhoeffer's life and work are still the subject of fresh and lively discussion As a pastor and theologian Bonhoeffer decided to resist the Nazis in Germany but his resistance was not solely theological He played a key leadership role in the Confessing Church a major source of Christian opposition to Hitler and his anti-Semitism and was principal of the secret seminary at Finkenwalde in Pomerania It was here that he developed his theological visions of radical discipleship and communal life In 1938 he joined the Wehrmacht's Abwehr the German Military Intelligence Office in order to seek international support for the plot against Hitler Following his inner calling and conscience meant that Bonhoeffer was continually forced to make decisions that separated him from his family friends and colleagues and which ultimately led to his martyrdom in Flossenbürg concentration camp less than a month before the Second World War came to an end His letters and papers from prison movingly express the development of some of the most provocative and fascinating ideas of 20th century theology Sixty years after Bonhoeffer's death and forty years after the publication of Eberhard Bethge's ground breaking biography Ferdinand Schlingensiepen offers a definitive new book on Bonhoeffer for a new generation of readers Schlingensiepen takes into account documents that have only been made accessible during the last few years such as the letters between Bonhoeffer and his fiancée Maria von Wedemeyer

Schlingensiepen's careful narrative brings to life the historical events as well as displaying the theological development of one of the most creative thinkers of the 20th century who was to become one of its most tragic martyrs
