The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context's diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology

Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel, 2025-11-04 Discover the story of salvation in Christ through Levitical rituals Atonement lies at the heart of the Christian faith In Christ's work of atonement we are reconciled to God enabled to draw near to him and can see his glory Through studying the Levitical burnt offering Roy McDaniel takes readers on a deep exploration of Leviticus 1:1-9 in this thought provoking volume part of the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture series from IVP Academic Using elements of narrative analysis like setting plot and hero McDaniel shows how the Levitical burnt offering is a ritual recapitulation of the narrative of Israel's election and deliverance as depicted in Genesis and Exodus and how in doing so it proclaims the atoning work of Christ At the heart of this work lies the logic of atonement present in the Levitical burnt offering an idea that contributes to the doctrine of atonement by demonstrating how Christ's incarnate sacrifice is rooted in his eternal identity as God the Son In Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel Provides a coherent account of atonement centered on the eternal identity of the Son Shows how Levitical sacrifice can inform the church's doctrine of atonement by modeling a careful theological exegesis of Leviticus and Explores questions about the meaning of sacrifice and its relationship to the being and attributes of God Whether you're a scholar student pastor theologian or a layperson seeking deeper understanding Enacting Atonement invites you to uncover the rich tapestry of God's redemptive narrative in the Levitical ritual

Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible Zoltan Dornyei,2018-03-22 Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God s creation include imperfection let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God s creative work In seeking a response to these questions this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity s struggles centered on three key themes corporeal temptation deficient social structures and the much debated notion of spiritual warfare The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics from Job s temptation to the Atonement The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God s creative purpose and discusses three assignments from Jesus to believers to celebrate the Eucharist to pray the Lord s Prayer and to fulfill the Great Commission Scripture and Theology Tomas Bokedal,Ludger Jansen,Michael Borowski,2023-08-21 The academic disciplines of Biblical Studies and Systematic Theology were long closely linked to one another However in the modern period they became gradually separated which led to increasing subject specialization but also to a lamentable lacuna within the various branches of Divinity As the lack of dialogue between Biblical Studies and the various theological disciplines increased a minority group of scholars in the past few decades reacted and sought to re establish the time honoured bonds between the disciplines The present volume is part of this intellectual response with contributions from scholars of various professional and denominational backgrounds Together the book s 25 chapters seek to reinvigorate the crucial cross disciplinary dialogue involving biblical narrative historical systematic theological and philosophic theological perspectives The book opens the horizon to contemporary research and fills a lamentable research gap with a number of fresh contributions from scholars in the respective sub disciplines Bearing Witness Daniel Lee Hill,2025-04-22 In an era when the label evangelical is hotly contested and often entangled with political agendas Daniel Lee Hill s Bearing Witness offers a timely reexamination of what it means to live out the gospel in public life Drawing on the rich legacy of nineteenth century abolitionists David Ruggles Maria W Stewart and William Still Hill constructs a compelling evangelical framework for public witness anchored in Scripture and the practice of lament and burden bearing Hill challenges evangelicals to rediscover their roots in a tradition that speaks powerfully to contemporary debates over church culture and the call to social justice Bearing Witness will be an indispensable guide for professors students pastors and laypeople committed to a faith that speaks to the public square

Evangelicals Engaging in Practical Theology Helen Morris, Helen Cameron, 2022-03-30 This book aims to introduce a distinctively evangelical voice to the discipline of practical theology Evangelicals have sometimes seen practical theology as primarily a liberal project This collection however actively engages with practical theology from an evangelical perspective both through discussion of the substantive issues and by providing examples of practical theology done by evangelicals in the classroom the church and beyond This volume brings together established and emerging voices to debate the growing role which practical theology is playing in evangelical and Pentecostal circles Chapters begin by addressing methodological concerns before moving into areas of practice Additionally there are four short papers from students who make use of practical theology to reflect upon their own practice Issues of authority and normativity are tackled head on in a way that will inform the debate both within and beyond evangelicalism This book will therefore be of keen interest to scholars of practical evangelical and Pentecostal theology

Defending Sin Hans Madueme, 2024-05-28 The conflict between the natural sciences and Christian theology has been going on for centuries Recent advances in the fields of evolutionary biology behavioral genetics and neuroscience have intensified this conflict particularly in relation to origins the fall and sin These debates are crucial to our understanding of human sinfulness and necessarily involve the doctrine of salvation Theistic evolutionists have labored hard to resolve these tensions between science and faith but Hans Madueme argues that the majority of their proposals do injustice both to biblical teaching and to long standing doctrines held by the mainstream Christian tradition In this major contribution to the field of science and religion Madueme demonstrates that the classical notion of sin reflected in Scripture the creeds and tradition offers the most compelling and theologically coherent account of the human condition He answers pressing challenges from the physical sciences on both methodological and substantive levels Scholars pastors students and interested lay readers will profit from interacting with the arguments presented here

Taylor, 2020-09-22 The Bible is meant to be read in the church by the church as the church Following the example of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Derek Taylor argues that we should regard the reading of Scripture as an inherently communal exercise of discipleship In conversation with other theologians Taylor shares how this approach to Scripture can engender a faithful hermeneutical community
