Military Leadership and Counterinsurgency Victoria Nolan,2011-12-18 Offering a unique and original perspective on Britain's Small Wars leadership culture this title is an essential reading for serving soldiers and scholars of military studies It is based on original archival research It offers fascinating survey of counterinsurgency operations with relevance for today's military and security Between 1948 and 1960 the British army conducted three important counterinsurgency operations in Malaya Kenya and Cyprus During that time military leaders inspired the evolution of a distinct organisational culture known as small wars culture which affected learning discipline and attitudes towards leadership and fellow soldiers Using a synthesis of organisational theory and archival research this book explores how military leaders embedded and transmitted this particular military organisational culture within the British army and provides an analysis of leaders characteristics their support networks and past experiences This book will be of interest to counterinsurgency specialists the British Army and military historians and sociologists as well as to serving military forces

Choral Singing Ursula Geisler,Karin Johansson,2014-10-16 What role does contemporary choral activity play in the construction of social and musical meaning How can historical knowledge and analysis shed light on contemporary choral problems and possibilities And how can choral research promote the development and expansion of new music today Questions like these are addressed in this anthology from a wide range of disciplines and perspectives The book comprises a selection of papers presented at the International Conference on the Concepts and Practices of Choral Singing in Lund Sweden in October 2012 The aim of the conference was to highlight the contemporary dynamic developments in choral research and to explore interdisciplinary investigations and interaction between practice based and historical approaches The conference was also the fourth meeting of the network Choir in Focus which was initiated in 2009 at Southern Choral Centre K rcentrum Syd a joint venture between Malm Academy of Music the Department of Musicology Odeum all at Lund University Malm Symphony Orchestra and Music South

Musik i Syd Sweden The continuous ambition of the network has been to provide a forum for co operation across national and disciplinary borders and to encourage debates around the musical and social function of choirs in modern society as mirroring collective and individual needs for meaning music making and well being In the introductory chapter the editors describe choral practice as a field of simultaneous re presentation re production and re creation and suggest that these three aspects may be seen as umbrella themes for the fifteen chapters of the anthology The authors come from Sweden Norway Finland Estonia Germany United Kingdom Portugal and Belgium and explore choral practice from differing theoretical and methodological starting points Together they contribute to a transdisciplinary discussion about the origins functions and meanings of choral singing

The Moral Leader Sandra J. Sucher, 2007-07-16 Successful leaders at any level and in any arena are inevitably presented with moral and ethical choices This unique and innovative textbook is designed to encourage students and managers to confront those fundamental moral challenges to develop skills in moral analysis and judgment and to come to terms with their own definition of moral leadership

Political Leadership Matthew Laing, 2020-11-27 Drawing upon a diverse range of traditions and contexts this authoritative new textbook presents a systematic introduction to political leadership Making extensive use of examples of real leaders from a variety of cultural backgrounds the book links theoretical ideas and concepts to real world political leadership and in doing so helps students to make sense of why different leaders lead as they do and why people choose to follow them This is ideal reading for students taking courses on political leadership and related topics

Leaders of the Light in the Age of Great Awakening Don P. Valeri, 2025-09-15 Many seers mystics astrologers philosophers even theologians have foreseen a new age that is birthing on planet Earth Some call it the Age of Great Awakening which is the term used in this book It will be an age in which spirituality will prevail and not religion politics finance and material gain that now predominate human thinking It will encompass and affect every facet of our lives especially those who currently rule over humanity Why do we have so many Evil corrupt psychopath people ruling over us In this age a new breed or species of Leaders will emerge This book is about those emerging leaders what they will look like how they will behave ethically and what they will have to face and confront in the decades to come A good portion of the book deals with our flawed understanding of leadership and what can be called leadership from the shadows Here the words of Carl Jung are worth remembering In order to know the light we must first experience the darkness And it is this darkness that so many are now living through But as this wise person also said As far as we can discern the sole purpose of human existence is to kindle a light in the darkness of mere being
