Thirty Acres New Canadian Library:

Thirty Acres Ringuet, 1970 New Canadian Library Janet Friskney, 2015-05-07 In the mid 1950s much Canadian literature was out of print making it relatively inaccessible to readers including those studying the subject in schools and universities When English professor Malcolm Ross approached Toronto publisher Jack McClelland in 1952 to propose a Canadian literary reprint series it was still the accepted wisdom among publishers that Canadian literature was of insufficient interest to the educational market to merit any great publishing risks Eventually convinced by Ross that a latent market for Canadian literary reprints did indeed exist McClelland Stewart launched the New Canadian Library NCL series in 1958 with Ross as its general editor In 2008 the NCL will celebrate a half century of publication In New Canadian Library Janet B Friskney takes the reader through the early history of the NCL series focusing on the period up to 1978 when Malcolm Ross retired as general editor A wealth of archival resources published reviews and the NCL volumes themselves are used to survey the working relationship between Ross and McClelland as well as the collaborative participation of those who through the middle decades of the twentieth century were committed to studying and nurturing Canada's literary heritage To place the New Canadian Library in its proper historical context Friskney examines the simultaneous development of Canadian literary studies as a legitimate area of research and teaching in academe and acknowledges the NCL as a milestone in Canadian publishing history From Thirty Acres to Modern Times Jeannette Urbas, 1976 Thirty Acres, 1960 A Social Geography of Canada Guy M. actresses Ellen Burstyn and Ellen Page and introducing Christine Horne opens in theatres May 9 2008 This special fortieth anniversary edition of Margaret Laurence's most celebrated novel will introduce readers again to one of the most memorable characters in Canadian fiction Hagar Shipley is stubborn querulous self-reliant and at ninety with her life nearly behind her she makes a bold last step towards freedom and independence As her story unfolds we are drawn into her past We meet Hagar as a young girl growing up in a black prairie town as the wife of a virile but unsuccessful farmer with whom her marriage was stormy as a mother who dominates her younger son and finally as an old woman isolated by an uncompromising pride and by the stern virtues she has inherited from her pioneer ancestors Vivid evocative moving The Stone Angel celebrates the triumph of the spirit and reveals Margaret Laurence at the height of her powers as a writer of extraordinary craft and profound insight into the workings of the human heart Mémoires de la Société Royale Du Canada Royal Society of Canada, 1969 The library atlas, by J. Bryce, W.F. Collier and L. Schmitz James Bryce, 1875

The University Library John Huston Finley, 1926 The genesis of the University Library lies in a compilation of Little Masterpieces the first of which were published more than twenty-five years ago The material included in these volumes was selected by able editors and writers whose experience was great and whose taste was excellent Out of the Little Masterpieces grew a course in liberal education which was known as the Pocket University and out of the Pocket University grew finally the University Library The publishers most gratefully acknowledge their debt to the editors who compiled the original volumes Bliss Perry Henry van Dyke Hardin Craig Thomas L. Masson Asa Don Dickinson the late Hamilton W. Mabie George Iles the late Dr Lyman Abbott and others Some of the most important material contained in the Pocket University is of course included in the University Library but the sequence has been entirely changed and the scope of the work greatly broadened Fully two-thirds of the material is new and the literature of the world has been ransacked to find appropriate text to fit the basic educational needs of the modern public Publisher's note
