Elizabeth A. De Wolfe

Twilight Of Innocence The Disappearance Of Beverly Potts:

Twilight of Innocence James Jessen Badal, 2005 Chronicles the events surrounding the 1951 disappearance of ten year old Beverly Potts in Cleveland Ohio discussing how it became the nation's first highly publicized missing child case and why it is still unsolved more than fifty years later Ripperology Robin Odell, 2006 Ripperology a sometimes obsessive interest in studying the crimes of Jack the Ripper is a subject of timeless interest that has suffered from confusion exaggeration and hyperbole for over a century Jack the Ripper was probably the first serial killer to appear in a large metropolis at a time when the general populace was literate and the press was a force for social change The press was also partly responsible for creating many myths surrounding the Ripper Though Murder Has No Tongue James Jessen Badal, 2010 The unfortunate victim of a frightened city desperately in need of a scapegoat Though Murder Has No Tongue tells the story of Frank Dolezal the only man actually arrested and charged with the infamous Torso Murders in Cleveland Ohio during the late 1930s Dolezal a fifty two year old Slav immigrant came to the attention of sheriff's investigators because of his reputation as a strange man who possessed a stockpile of butcher knives According to rumors he threatened imagined transgressors and had a penchant for frequenting bars in the seedy neighborhood where the dismembered bodies of victims had been discovered Dolezal was arrested in July 1939 and never saw freedom again Convinced that they had captured the Mad Butcher of Kingsbury Run sheriff's deputies interrogated Dolezal for two days under harsh conditions Sheriff Martin O Donnell called a press conference and announced that the long hoped for break in the torso killings had finally come Dolezal had admitted to the January 1936 murder and dismemberment of Flo Polillo one of the early victims of the Mad Butcher During the next six days Dolezal was questioned further given a lie detector test beaten and generally mistreated Ultimately he was arraigned on first degree murder charges that were quickly dropped because he was denied legal representation At his second arraignment in July Dolezal was bound over on manslaughter charges Within a month he was dead found hanged in his cell His mysterious death was ruled a suicide But was it In Though Murder Has No Tongue James Jessen Badal tells a gripping tale of justice gone wrong It is also a modern story of forensic analysis as compelling as an episode of CSI Using police and sheriff reports inquest testimony autopsy and archival photographs unpublished notes from the primary investigators and analyses from some of today's top forensic anthropologists and medical examiners Badal establishes the facts dispels rumors and presents a thorough examination of the real reasons behind Frank Dolezal's mysterious death

The Murder of Mary Bean and Other Stories Elizabeth A. De Wolfe, 2007 When the winter ice melted in April 1850 residents of Saco Maine made a gruesome discovery the body of a young girl submerged in a stream Thanks to evidence left at the scene a local physician was arrested and tried for the death of Mary Bean the name given to the unidentified young girl the cause of death was failed abortion Garnering extensive newspaper coverage the trial revealed many secrets a poorly trained doctor connections to an unsolved murder in New Hampshire and the true identity of Mary Bean a young Canadian mill worker named Berengera Caswell missing since the previous winter The Murder of Mary Bean and Other Stories examines the series of events that led Caswell to become Mary Bean and the intense curiosity and anxiety stimulated by this heavily watched trial these events through a wide angle lens exploring such themes as the rapid social changes brought about by urbanization and industrialization in antebellum nineteenth century society factory work and the changing roles for women unregulated sexuality and the specter of abortion and the sentimental novel as a guidebook She posits that the real threat to women in the nineteenth century was not murder but a society that had ambiguous feelings about the role of women in the economic system in education and as independent citizens of Mary Bean and Other Stories features two reprinted accounts of Caswell s death both fictional and originally printed in the 1850s as well as an introduction that places these salacious accounts in a historical context This book serves not simply as true crime but rather presents a seamy side of rapid industrial growth and the public anxiety over the emerging economic roles of women The Good-bye Door Diana Britt Franklin,2006 Nicknamed the Blonde Borgia Anna Marie Hahn was a cold blooded serial killer who preyed on the elderly in Cincinnati s Over the Rhine district in the 1930s When the State of Ohio strapped its first woman into the electric chair Hahn gained a place in the annals of crime as the nation s first female serial killer to be executed in the chair Told here for the first time in riveting detail is Anna Marie s gripping story an almost unbelievable tale of multiple murders deceit and greed Born in Bavaria in 1906 Anna Marie brought shame to her pious family when as a teenager she gave birth to an illegitimate son Oscar She was shipped off to America in 1929 where she initially lived with elderly relatives in Cincinnati A year later she married Philip Hahn a Western Union telegrapher with whom she bought a new house and opened a delicatessen bakery Pressed economically by the Great Depression the ever resourceful Anna Marie found other ways to get the money to support her passionate pasttime betting on horses She tried burning down the house then the deli for the insurance and she tried killing her husband also for the insurance life savings before feeding them arsenic with deadly results For weeks her Cincinnati trial for the greatest mass murder in the history of the country was a front page sensation across the nation A thousand or more curiosity seekers came daily to the court house to try to get just a glimpse of her Nearly 100 witnesses gave damning testimony against her and the jury s guilty verdict put her on the path to the electric chair Finally after a year all appeals were exhausted and Anna Marie age 32 was executed on December 7 1938 at the state penitentiary in Columbus True crime buffs historians legal professionals and others seeking an extraordinary story will find The Goodbye Door a compelling addition to true crime literature Murder on Several Occasions Jonathan Goodman,2007 A new look at some gruesome and riveting murders In this grisly and gripping collection of essays some revised and updated some never before published but all new to American audiences prize winning English crime historian Jonathan Goodman turns his attention to a variety of British and American crimes from the 1820s to the 1980s some high profile and others not With the author as detective each of Goodman s essays examines a particularly notorious murder and subsequent trial He introduces the readers to the 1923 shooting at the Savoy Hotel in London of Prince Ali Kamel Fahmy Bey at the hands of his wife Madame Marie Marguerite Fahmy he revisits the Crime of the Century the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby in March 1932 allegedly by Bruno Richard Hauptmann and his subsequent execution for this crime even though this case against Hauptmann has come under scrutiny and he explores the 1980 serial killings committed by Michele de Marco Lupo a gay man who coaxed other homosexuals to meet with him then strangled and savagely bit them Goodman s careful research and forensic work together with his lively and engaging prose and fascinating subject matter make these tales of murder a valuable addition to the field of true crime history

Murder and Martial Justice Meredith Lentz Adams,2011 This book deals with four murder cases during World War II for which fifteen German war prisoners held in camps on American soil were sentenced to death and fourteen hanged It emphasizes one case that best illustrates how the War Department interpreted observed and violated the Geneva Convention of 1929 It also deals with the War Department s consequent diplomatic and public relations problems and with its attempts to control the prison camps Introduction Great Lakes and Midwest Catalog Partners Book Distributing,2007 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 Tracks to Murder Jonathan Goodman,2005 Prize winning English crime historian Jonathan Goodman visited a number of cities where notorious murders occurred as he embarked on a 6000 mile train trip across the United States As a true crime book Tracks to Murder is witty and informative and enriches the classic American murder cases by placing them within their original settings As a travel book it presents the seasoned reflections of a cultivated English writer on American manners and morals observed during his transcontinental journey American Book Publishing Record ,2003 In the Wake of the Butcher James Jessen Badal,2014-04-16 In 2001 The Kent State University Press published James Jessen Badal s In the Wake of the Butcher Cleveland s Torso Murders the first book to examine the horrific series of unsolved dismemberment murders that terrorized the Kingsbury Run neighborhood from 1934 to 1938 Through his access to a wealth of previously unavailable material Badal was able to present a far more detailed and accurate picture of the battle between Cleveland safety director Eliot Ness and the unidentified killer who avoided both detection and apprehension In his groundbreaking historical study Badal established beyond any doubt the truth of the legend that Ness had a secret suspect whom he had subjected to a series of interrogation sessions complete with lie detector tests in a secluded room in a downtown hotel Badal also disclosed recently unearthed evidence that identified exactly who that mysterious suspect was But was he the infamous Mad Butcher of Kingsbury Run Badal presented all the evidence available at the time and invited readers to draw their own conclusions Now armed with conclusive new information Badal returns to the absorbing tale of those terrible murders in an expanded edition of In the Wake of the Butcher For the very first time in the history of research into the Kingsbury Run murders he presents compelling evidence that establishes exactly where the killer incapacitated his victims as well as the location of the long fabled secret laboratory where he committed murder and performed both dismemberment and decapitation Was Eliot Ness s secret suspect the Mad Butcher Thanks to this new information Badal is finally able to answer that question with certainty Born to Lose James G. Hollock,2011 The story of Stanley Barton Hoss a small time Pittsburgh hoodlum who became one of the FBI s Ten Most Wanted Hell's Wasteland James Jessen Badal,2013 Did the Mad Butcher of Cleveland also strike in Pennsylvania From 1934 to 1938 Cleveland Ohio was racked by a classic battle between good and evil On one side was the city s safety director Eliot Ness On the other was a nameless phantom dubbed the Mad Butcher of Kingsbury Run who littered the inner city with the remains of decapitated and dismembered corpses Never caught or even officially identified the Butcher simply faded into history leaving behind a frightening legend that both haunts and fascinates Cleveland to this day In 2001 the Kent State University Press published James Jessen Badal s In the Wake of the Butcher Cleveland s Torso Murders the first serious book length treatment of this dark chapter in true crime history Though Murder Has No Tongue The Lost Victim of Cleveland s Mad Butcher a detailed study of the arrest and mysterious death of Frank Dolezal the only man ever charged in the killings followed in 2010 Now Badal concludes his examination of the horrific cycle of murder dismemberments with Hell s Wasteland The Pennsylvania Torso Murders During the mid 1920s a vast swampy area just across the Ohio border near New Castle Pennsylvania revealed a series of decapitated and otherwise mutilated bodies In 1940 railroad workers found the rotting remains of three naked and decapitated bodies in a string of derelict boxcars awaiting destruction in Pennsylvania s Stowe Township Were all of these terrible murders the work of Cleveland s Mad Butcher Many in Ohio and Pennsylvania law enforcement thought they were and that assumption led to a massive well coordinated two state investigation In Hell s Wasteland Badal explores that nagging question in depth for the first time Relying on police reports unpublished memoirs and the surviving autopsy protocols as well as contemporary newspaper coverage Badal provides a detailed examination of the murder dismemberments and weighs the evidence that potentially links them to the Cleveland carnage Hell s Wasteland is the last piece in the gigantic torso murder puzzle that spanned three decades covered two states and involved law enforcement from as many as five different cities The Collinwood Tragedy James Jessen Badal,2020 March 4 1908 seemed an ordinary morning at Lakeview Elementary School in Collinwood Ohio when fifth grader Emma Neibert noticed wisps of smoke Her discovery soon led to a panicked stampede inside the school the chaos of nine teachers trying to control and then save pupils in overcrowded classrooms Outside Collinwood s inadequate volunteer fire department joined by members of the Cleveland fire department fought a losing battle with the rapidly spreading blaze While some inside jumped from the building to safety most were trapped Ultimately 172 children two teachers and one rescue worker were killed and the Collinwood community was irrevocably changed The fire s staggering death toll shocked the country and resulted in impassioned official inquiries about the fire s cause the building s structure and overall safety considerations Regionally and eventually nationwide changes were implemented in school structures and construction materials James Jessen Badal s extensive research reveals how the citizens of Collinwood were desperate to find someone to blame Rumor and suspicion splintered the grieving community And yet they also rose to the challenge of healing officials reached out to immigrant families unsure of their rights city charities churches and relief agencies responded with medical help comfort for the bereaved and financial support and fundraising efforts to assist families totaled over 50 000 more than 1 million today
