Two Cities Adam Zagajewski, 2002 First published in the United States in 1995 by Farrar Strauss and Giroux Through the Poet's Eye Bozena Shallcross, 2009-02-20 Though best known as poets Adam Zagajewski born 1945 Zbigniew Herbert 1924 98 and Joseph Brodsky 1940 96 wrote some of the most original prose of this century It is this prose remarkable for its cross cultural complexity and interdisciplinary richness that concerns Bozena Shallcross in Through the Poet's Eye The travels undertaken by these Eastern European poets who each journeyed to the West under different circumstances give Shallcross her point of departure as she explores the connections between the sensory experience of travel and the revelatory perception of the visual arts manifest in their writings Book Jacket Politics for Everybody Ned O'Gorman, 2022-12-22 Rediscover what politics actually is and what miracles it can achieve once it's separated from partisanship polarization and pointless yelling In this age of nearly unprecedented partisan rancor you'd be forgiven for thinking we could all do with a smaller daily dose of politics In his provocative and sharp book however Ned O'Gorman argues just the opposite Politics for Everybody contends that what we really need to do is engage more deeply with politics rather than chuck the whole thing out the window In calling for a purer more humanistic relationship with politics one that does justice to the virtues of open honest exchange O'Gorman draws on the work of Hannah Arendt As a German born Jewish thinker who fled the Nazis for the United States Arendt set out to defend politics from its many detractors along several key lines the challenge of separating genuine politics from distorted forms the difficulty of appreciating politics for what it is the problems of truth and judgment in politics and the role of persuasion in politics O'Gorman's book offers an insightful introduction to Arendt's ideas for anyone who wants to think more clearly and speak more carefully in a time when constructive political functioning is desperately needed Animated not just by a theoretical and academic interest in Arendt's work but also by a practical intent to change the current manner of seeing politics and improve the quality of citizenship and freedom as well as the daily art of living together The Review of Politics Occupiers, Humanitarian Workers, and Polish Displaced Persons in British-Occupied Germany Samantha K. Knapton, 2023-01-12 Concepts of migration and displacement are all too often separated from ideas of international humanitarianism and occupations and yet between 1945 and 1951 victims of war became the joint responsibility of humanitarian workers and military officials in occupied Germany In this innovative study Samantha K Knapton focuses on the lives of Polish displaced persons DPs one of the largest groups in occupied Germany to shine a spotlight on this interaction for the first time From the everyday experience of clothing feeding and sheltering to governmental policies and military actions Occupiers Humanitarian Workers and the Polish Displaced Persons in British Occupied Germany investigates the impact of occupation on post war refugees and explores how the birth of state driven international humanitarianism played a vital role in both the identity of the Polish people and the reconstruction of Germany To do so Knapton fuses together archival material and personal collections such as memoirs

letters and diaries to present an account which considers both the macro and micro issues of displacement occupation and humanitarianism The result is a sophisticated analysis of Anglo Polish German relations in post war Europe which will be of immense value to all scholars of modern Europe Polish history and displacement studies more generally

European Literary Immigration into the French Language Tijana Miletic, 2008-01-01 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption
