Emerging Leader Carter Van Vleck,2012-02-03 On October 19 1862 Lieutenant Colonel Carter Van Vleck wrote to his wife and daughter It takes an immense amt of study to learn well the art of killing people without getting killed yourself And that is the great secret of war to kill cripple the enemy to the greatest degree with the least possible damage to those under your command It is a fearful yet a very pleasant study I like it much better than I expected to much better than any thing else I ever studied or practiced How I should like the sad realities of war or how I should demean myself in an actual fight of course I have as little idea as anyone else that knows me I might disgrace myself family forever or might win honors worthy to be won During the next two years the young officer would detail his Civil War experiences in intimate letters to his whole hearts love Patty and their daughter Nellie The letters reveal both the external challenges Van Vleck faced and his personal conflicts the urge to eliminate slavery by serving his country well and the longing to return to his loved ones English
