Handbook of Japan-Russia Relations Kazuhiko Togo, Dmitry Streltsov, 2025-10-01 The history of official relations between Russia and Japan encompasses a period of a little more than one hundred and fifty years but stretch back unofficially for at least double that amount of time But for both Russia and Japan these relations have never been a key element of foreign policy indispensable or intrinsically important for their diplomatic strategy It is also noteworthy that for most of this time Russia and Japan were enemies rivals competitors For both parties the significance of bilateral relations to a large extent was determined by their geographical proximity This geographically predestined relationship can be characterized as distant neighbors At the same time at certain historical stages this neighborhood was not so distant The countries managed to establish relations in the economic sphere while tourism cultural scientific and educational ties were actively developing The complexity of the relations which developed for just over three centuries is worthy of study This book analyzes these three centuries of Japan Russia relations so as not to miss out any essential factors of the relationship

Holding the Hand of Darkness Arthur Hood, 2010-05-25 During the fifties the Cold War grew around us Insidious it rose to a crescendo in October of 1962 when John Kennedy proved the concept of peace by maintaining overwhelming deterrence The men who provided this deterrence were professionals who believed in the righteousness of their country and the honor of its leaders In the decades that followed that honor eroded For whatever misguided reason Lyndon Johnson chose to escalate American presence in Vietnam even though Kennedy chose to pursue a policy of withdrawal prior to his assassination Our professional military was not privy to the political maneuvering that was taking place as Johnson was lying to the American public about the Vietnam buildup We began covert ground and air operations in 1964 These operations were denied by the government but escalated continuously to the end of the war with covert operations continuing for some years after the peace agreements After the ghost attacks by North vietnamese gun boats on August 4 1964 congress passed the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution abdicated its Constitutional duty to make any declaration of war and handed that decision to the President This step incidentally deprived the American fighting man the legal protection of the Geneva Convention This book reflects the attitude of the professionals who were tasked with prosecuting this war I have chosen three incidents that I was personally familiar with and researched them in detail They are the shoot down of Whaler Five Seven Red Marker Four and Owl Seven We have learned nothing from the mistakes of this war The Jewish Veteran ,1940 Department of Defense Authorization for Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2001 and the Future Years Defense Program United States.
