Teaching Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's "Americanah" in an English Foreign Language Classroom, 2022-06-30 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 12 Justus Liebig University Giessen course Culture in the EFLC language English abstract Literature has always played an essential role in the EFLC Students have always had to deal with complicated and challenging works of literature And not only in their native language but also in their second language It is considered that in this way they can improve their competences and language skills But it is also believed to raise intercultural awareness by reading for example African literature Most of the literature that is chosen for being read in school consists of known classic literature such as Shakespeare Goethe or other white and male writers All you see in today's world is literature about love about science fiction and so on African literature was not about that of course there are a bunch of writings about that But that's not the main theme of the literature African literature is dealing mostly with situations or themes that occurred or are occurring in their culture The first writings from that time were about slavery and especially about its suffering and the pain that slaves had to go through It is mostly about the experience of living in a segregated society This paper will examine how important African literature is It has to be mentioned that African literature is not the only but one of many possibilities of literature that can be used Since it is not easy to discuss African literature in general this essay will focus mainly on the novel Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie This book is meant to be representative for the African Literature My teacher recommended this novel to us in my school days when we read Mother to Mother by Sindiwe Magona This term paper will investigate the potential of this book

Transnational Africana Women's Fictions
Cheryl Sterling, 2021-09-30 This book explores the works of women writers and filmmakers across the African and African Diaspora world reflecting on how the transnational sphere can serve to highlight voices that were at the margins of gender and race hierarchies The book demonstrates how in discourse and theory Africana women are the centers of their own knowledge production and agency as the artists and their characters point the way forward Their multi-perspectivism leads to avenues of selective mutuality and influence to generate transformative creative work scholarship and practices Writers included are Sylvia Wynter Edwidge Danticat Amanda Smith Werewere Liking Chimamanda Ngozi Adiche Sefi Atta NoViolet Bulawayo Nnedi Okorafor Mariama B Ama Ata Aidoo Igiaba Scego L onara Miano Gis le Hountondji Monique Ilboudo and Maryse Condé as well as filmmaker Kemi Adetiba Over the course of the book the contributors critically explore and update the canon on women in the African and African Diaspora literary sphere highlighting their contributions to theoretical debates and providing substantive nuance to diasporic subjectivity This book will be of interest to scholars of African and Africana Studies comparative literature and women and gender studies

Human Flourishing, Liberal Theory, and the Arts Menachem Mautner, 2018-04-09 This book claims that in addition to autonomy liberal tradition recognizes human flourishing as an ideal of the good life There are two versions of the liberalism of flourishing for one the good life consists in the ability of an individual to develop her intellectual and moral capabilities and for the other the good life is one in which an individual succeeds in materializing her varied human capabilities Both versions expect the state to create the background conditions for flourishing Combining the history of ideas with analytical political philosophy Menachem Mautner finds the roots of the liberalism of flourishing in the works of great philosophers and argues that for individuals to reach flourishing they need to engage with art Art provides us with wisdom insight critical social and political thinking and moral education Thus a state which practices the liberalism of flourishing must play an active role in funding the creation and dissemination of art Consequently the liberalism of flourishing is better equipped than autonomy liberalism to compete with religion in the domains of meaning and over the shape of the regime the political culture and the law in countries in which liberalism is contested Political theorists and lawyers will enjoy engaging with this version of liberalism as will students of social democracy and art policy

West African Women in the Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-09-08 This book examines fictional works by women authors who have left their homes in West Africa and now live as members of the diaspora. In recent years, a compelling array of critically acclaimed fiction by women in the West African diaspora has shifted the direction of the African novel away from postcolonial themes of nationhood, decolonization, and cultural authenticity and towards explorations of the fluid and shifting constructions of identity in transnational spaces. Drawing on works by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Buchi Emecheta, Ama Ata Aidoo, Sefi Atta, Chika Unigwe, and Taiye Selassie, this book interrogates the ways in which African diaspora women's fiction portrays the realities of otherness, hybridity, and marginalized existence of female subjects beyond Africa's borders. Overall, the book demonstrates that life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey of expanded opportunities along with paradoxical realities of otherness. Providing a vivid and composite portrait of African women's experiences in the diasporic landscape, this book will be of interest to researchers of migration and diaspora topics and African women's and world literature.

African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women's lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers. Using a postcolonial analytical framework, the book highlights the commonalities of African women's identities and experiences across national, ethnic, linguistic, and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings. It collates the multi-regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women's lives are shaped by social, economic, and political factors at home and abroad. It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity, class, and gender that flows through all the texts examined. Unlike existing works that explore African women's fiction, this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post-independence writing through the lens of gender. The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion, war, and ethnic conflict, women's status in society, tradition, and modernity, and local and global tensions. A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women's writing, this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature, African Studies, Women's Literature, Postcolonial Literature, Cultural and Ethnic Studies, and Migration and Diaspora Studies.

Transit Lit Cameron Leader-Picone, 2025-12-15 Explores new forms of cosmopolitan identity constructed in contemporary diasporic fictions. The expanding number of migrants to the United States from continental Africa since the 1960s has led to a flourishing twenty first century literary corpus by immigrants and the children of immigrants Transit Lit Fictions of Migration in Twenty First Century African Immigrant Literature analyzes key works by African immigrant authors such as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Teju Cole and Yaa Gyasi to argue that such texts reveal the tensions between the authors own cosmopolitan ideals and a necessary critique of how such ideals become co opted and commodified within contemporary geopolitics Cameron Leader Picone offers a new conceptual framework for reading contemporary diasporic texts that do not fit easily into national or continental traditions or previous literary models Instead he argues for the need to embrace the overlapping instabilities of meaning identity and citizenship that characterize twenty first century diasporic movement in an interconnected world These texts and the constructions of identity that they trace map the terrain of contemporary migration

Coloniality and Migrancy in African Diasporic Literatures Peter Moopi,Rodwell Makombe,2023-10-06 This book explores literary representations of African immigrant experiences in

Western countries against the backdrop of colonial stereotypes and recent expressions of anti immigrant sentiment in Europe and America The book deploys the concept of colonality of migrancy to explore how global colonality continues to shape the identities and lived experiences of African immigrants as represented in African diasporic literatures It considers the persistence of racist and discriminatory attitudes and patterns of thought that developed during slavery and colonialism and asks to what extent it is possible for African immigrants to transcend race in their configuration of their identity Five key twenty first century African diasporic novels are considered in the analysis Imbolo Mbue s Behold the Dreamers Dave Eggers What is the What The Autobiography of Valentino Achak Deng Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie s Americanah NoViolet Bulawayo s We Need New Names and Helon Habila s Travellers Overall the book demonstrates that despite the hostility migrants of colour encounter Africans are shunning the victimhood of colonialism and slavery and finding alternative ways of navigating and inhabiting the modern world Foregrounding the usefulness of decoloniality and postcolonial theory as theoretical tools this book will be an invaluable resource to researchers across the fields of African literature migration sociology politics and decolonial studies
