Schulz, 2013-01-30 This unique volume offers an overview of the diversity in research on communication including perspectives from biology sociality economics norms and human development It includes general social science and humanities approaches to communication from systems theory to cultural theory as well as perspectives more specifically related to communication acts such as linguistics and cognition The volume also features chapters on the participants and various elements in communication processes on possible effects and on wider consequences of mediation with technical media The scope of the contributions is global and the volume is relevant to both the empirical and the philosophical traditions in human sciences Designed as a stand alone collection to engage undergraduates as well as postgraduates and academics this is also the first book in and an introduction to the De Gruyter Mouton multi volume Handbooks of Communication Science

The Promise of Dialogue Louise Phillips, 2011 Presents a theoretical framework for analysing the dialogic turn in the production and communication of knowledge that builds bridges across three research traditions dialogic communication theory action research and science and technology studies This title provides an account of the dialogic turn through case studies

Encyclopedia of Communication Theory Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2009-08-18 With more than 300 entries these two volumes provide a one stop source for a comprehensive overview of communication theory offering current descriptions of theories as well as the background issues and concepts that comprise these theories This is the first resource to summarize in one place the diversity of theory in the communication field Key Themes Applications and Contexts Critical Orientations Cultural Orientations Cybernetic and Systems Orientations Feminist Orientations Group and Organizational Concepts Information Media and Communication Technology International and Global Concepts Interpersonal Concepts Non Western Orientations Paradigms Traditions and Schools Philosophical Orientations Psycho Cognitive Orientations Rhetorical Orientations Semiotic Linguistic and Discursive Orientations Social Interactional Orientations Theory Metatheory Methodology and Inquiry

Communication Igor E. Klyukanov, 2022-06-10 Focusing on the scientific study of communication this book is a systematic examination To that end the natural social cultural and rational scientific perspectives on communication are presented and then brought together in one unifying framework of the semiotic square showing how all four views are interconnected The question of whether the study of communication can be considered a unique science is addressed It is argued that communication is never separate from any object of study and thus we always deal with its manifestations captured in the four scientific perspectives discussed in the book

Theories of Human Communication Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2010-11-04 For almost four decades Theories of Human Communication has offered readers an engaging and informative guide to the rich array of theories that influence our understanding of communication The first edition broke new ground with its comprehensive discussion of theorizing by communication scholars Since that time the field has expanded tremendously from a small cluster of explanations and relatively unconnected theories to a huge body of work from numerous traditions or communities of scholarship The tenth edition covers both classic and recent theories created by communication scholars and informed by scholars in other fields Littlejohn and Foss organize communication theory around two intersecting elements contexts and theoretical traditions and emphasize the connections trajectories and relationships among the theories They provide clear accessible explanations that synthesize without oversimplifying Their extensive use of examples presents theorizing as a natural process and invites readers to reflect on their own experiences and to become active participants in continuing the conversation In addition to the authors lucid explanations of theories the text includes From the Source boxes in which the theorists share their perspectives on communication The extensive bibliography almost 1 200 entries and chapter citations are invaluable resources for more in depth study

Mickūnas, 2020-03-02 This book takes the form of a dialogue It presents two authors specialized in the phenomenology posing questions to each other and offering complex answers for critical discussion The book includes both presentation of different communication schools and philosophizing on the issues of communication The authors debate numerous topics by providing the definition and etymology of communication examining the limits of communication and using a philosophical base of communication The issue which pervades all domains is that of mediation how things such as identities styles and bodies are mediated by culture history and tradition and what the limits are of such mediation This question leads to more complex issues of mediated mediations such that an explication of one medium is framed by another medium leading to a question of meta language as a fundamental unmediated medium This involves some fine points of mediation perspectivity discursivity ethics of communication ideology private and public Throughout the mutual interrogative dialogue the authors touch upon but avoid the daunting commitment to a theory of metacommunication as well as the transcendental problematic of accessing the numerous theoretical thematic and historical aspects of communication Black/Africana Communication Theory

Kehbema Langmia, 2018-05-02 Most Western driven theories do not have a place in Black communicative experience especially in Africa Many scholars interested in articulating and interrogating Black communication scholarship are therefore at the crossroads of either having to use Western driven theory to explain a Black communication dynamic or have to use hypothetical rules to achieve their objectives since they cannot find compelling Black communication theories to use as reference Colonization and the African slave trade brought with it assimilationist tendencies that have dealt a serious blow on the cognition of most Blacks on the continent and abroad As a result their interpersonal as well as in group dialogic communication had witnessed dramatic shifts Black Africana Communication Theory assembles skilled communicologists who propose uniquely Black driven theories that stand the test of time Throughout the volume s fifteen chapters theories including but not limited to Afrocentricity Afro Cultural Mulatto Venerative Speech Theory Africana Symbolic Contextualism

Theory HaramBuntu Government Diaspora Communications Theory Consciencist Communication Theory and Racial Democracy Effect Theory are introduced and discussed Communication Silvio Waisbord,2019-04-15 Communication studies is a fragmented field As a result of its roots in various disciplinary traditions it is built on fluid intellectual boundaries with no theoretical or analytical center Should we worry about this state of dispersion or be concerned that the discipline does not meet the basic conditions that define an academic field of inquiry Silvio Waisbord argues that communication studies is a post discipline and that it is impossible to transcend fragmentation and specialization through a single project of intellectual unity What brings communication studies together is an institutional architecture of academic units professional associations and journals rather than a shared commitment to a common body of knowledge questions and debates This should not Waisbord argues be a matter of concern Communication studies is better served by recognizing dispersion embracing pluralism fostering cross cutting lines of inquiry and tackling real world problems rather than hoping to meet conditions which would qualify it as a discipline Communication A Post Discipline is important reading for scholars and advanced students of communication studies as well as anyone interested in the state of this fascinating and vital academic field The Handbook of Communication Engagement Kim A. Johnston, Maureen Taylor,2018-04-27 A comprehensive volume that offers the most current thinking on the practice and theory of engagement With contributions from an international panel of leaders representing diverse academic and professional fields The Handbook of Communication Engagement brings together in one volume writings on both the theory and practice of engagement in today s organizations and societies The expert contributors explore the philosophical theoretical and applied concepts of communication engagement as it pertains to building interaction and connections in a globalized networked society The Handbook of Communication Engagement is comprehensive in scope with case studies of engagement from various disciplines including public relations marketing advertising employee relations education public diplomacy and politics The authors advance the current thinking in engagement theory strategy and practice and provide a review of foundational and emerging research in engagement topics The Handbook of Communication Engagement is an important text that Provides an overview of the foundations and philosophies of engagement Identifies the contexts of engagement relating to specific areas across government and corporations including CSR consumer activism diplomacy digital and social impact Includes examples of contemporary engagement practice Presents applications of engagement and technology Offers insights on the future directions of engagement The Handbook of Communication Engagement offers an essential reference for advanced undergraduate graduate students practitioners and scholars from communication media advertising public relations public policy and public diplomacy areas The volume contains a compendium of the writings on the most recent advances on the theory and practice of engagement Winner of the 2018 PRIDE Award for Innovation Development and Educational Achievement from the Public Relations Division of the National Communication Association Qualitative Communication
