Chinua Achebe's "Things Fall Apart". Read in Modernistic Terms, 2021-11-17 Essay from the year 2021 in the subject Literature Modern Literature grade 20 University of Tübingen language English abstract Chinua Achebe's novel Things Fall Apart is a work that in a certain way depicts contemporary developments. Published in 1958, Achebe describes events in the period of the early transition phase of British colonization of Nigeria, roughly around 1900, referring to Okonkwo, the protagonist, and the Igbo, a native ethnic group. Both are subject to fundamental changes, but to what extent can these changes be expressed in literary terms? Are there certain markers that can be used to identify tendencies, for example modernism? This investigation will be the subject of the following essay. The Postcolonial Novel Richard Lane, 2006-07-21 Richard Lane explores the themes surrounding the postcolonial novel written in English. Notes on Achebe's Things Fall Apart Joseph Mbele, 2005 This is a study guide on Chinua Achebe's famous novel Things Fall Apart. I decided to publish it after noting that an earlier and shorter online version was popular among students and teachers across the world. Tradition vs. Change in Chinua Achebe's "Things Fall Apart", 2004-04-06 Seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade A USA 1 Southern Connecticut State University English Department course The Contemporary African Novel language English abstract Things Fall Apart is a story about personal beliefs and customs and also a story about conflict. There is a struggle between family, culture, and religion of the Igbo people, which is all brought on by a difference in personal beliefs and customs. Finally, we see how things fall apart when these beliefs and customs are confronted by those of the white missionaries. According to Ernest N. Emenyonu, Things Fall Apart is a classic study of cross-cultural misunderstanding and the consequences to the rest of humanity when a belligerent culture or civilization, out of sheer arrogance and ethnocentrism, takes it upon itself to invade another culture, another civilization. p. 84 Chinua Achebe is a product of both native African and European culture. Achebe's education in English and exposure to European customs have allowed him to capture at the same time the European and the African perspectives on colonial expansion, religion, race, and culture. This has a great effect on the composition of the novel because he is able to tell the story with an understanding and personal experiences in both cultures. He does not portray the African culture and their beliefs as barbaric. He simply tells it as it is and how things happened. Chinua Achebe states that neither of the cultures were bad, but they simply had a difference in beliefs. In the first section of this paper, I would like to outline some important aspects of the traditional Igbo culture as presented in Things Fall Apart Achebe argues that the white man has destroyed Igbo culture out of ignorance of the people's way of life and the white man's inability to speak the people's language The second section deals with Christianity and the colonizers I will compare the Igbo systems to a certain extent to the new system the white man brought to Nigeria Later on I will examine the effects of the colonizers arrival and their religion on the indigenous culture giving special attention to Okonkwo the main character of the novel Things Fall Apart, by Chinua Achebe M. Keith Booker, 2011 Edited and with an introduction by M Keith Booker this volume in the Critical Insights series brings together a wide variety of criticism on Achebe's seminal novel In the opening section of the volume Booker's introduction reflects on Achebe's pioneering achievement and Petrina Crockford evaluates the enduring international popularity of Things Fall Apart
