In Pursuit of the Great Peace Zhao Lu, 2019-06-01 Examines the Great Peace taiping one of the first utopian visions in Chinese history and its impact on literati lives in Han China Through an examination of the Great Peace taiping one of the first utopian visions in Chinese history Zhao Lu describes the transformation of literati culture that occurred during the Han Dynasty Driven by anxiety over losing the mandate of Heaven the imperial court encouraged classicism in order to establish the Great Peace and follow Heaven's will But instead of treating the literati as puppets of competing and imagined lineages Zhao uses sociological methods to reconstruct their daily lives and to show how they created their own thought by adopting modifying and opposing the work of their contemporaries and predecessors The literati who served as bureaucrats in the first century BCE gradually became classicists who depended on social networking as they traveled to study the classics By the second century CE classicism had dissolved in this traveling culture and the literati began to expand the corpus of knowledge beyond the accepted canon Thus far from being static classicism in Han China was full of innovation and ultimately gave birth to both literary writing and religious Daoism Zhao's study presents a model of intellectual history Smartly written it excels in connecting the analysis of specific texts and concepts with broader trends in the social political realm His work helps demythologize Chinese thought and makes it legible to scholars around the world Miranda Brown University of Michigan Ancient and Early Medieval Chinese Literature (vol. 2), 2013-10-10 At last here is the long awaited first Western language reference guide focusing exclusively on Chinese literature from ca 700 B C E to the early seventh century C E Alphabetically organized it contains no less than 1095 entries on major and minor writers literary forms and schools and important Chinese literary terms In addition to providing authoritative information about each subject the compilers have taken meticulous care to include detailed up to date bibliographies and source information The reader will find it a treasure trove of historical accounts especially when browsing through the biographies of authors Indispensable for scholars and students of pre modern Chinese literature history and thought Part Two contains S to Xi Huai-nan Tzu Charles Le Blanc, 1985-12-01 Huai nan Tzu 139BC was viewed for its great diversity of subject matter ideas and style by traditional Chinese scholars as a composite work of the Eclectic School It is the author s contention however that one overriding concern pervades the work the attempt to define the essential conditions for a Taoist political utopianism The present study emphasizes Chapter Six of Huai nan Tzu in expounding the theory of kan ying STIMULUS RESPONSE RESONANCE which postulates that all things in the universe are interrelated and influence each other according to pre set patterns Only in the True Man who is one with Tao and attuned to the cosmos does kan ying attain its ultimate realization the Great Peace and the Great Merging After all concludes the author it is in Huai nan Tzu that we find the statement Court Culture and Literature in Early China David R. Knechtges, 2024-12-11 The studies brought together here focus upon the literary and cultural activity of the Chinese court during the Han and early medieval period The first section concerns court literature in the Former Han and deals with the role of literature especially poetry at both the imperial and princely courts including one study of the writings attributed to an imperial concubine who used poetry to express her resentment at falling from the emperor s favour The next section looks at a leading court writer of the Late Western Han dynasty Yang Xiong while the third part deals with the leading poetic genre of this period the fu or rhapsody These papers examine major themes such as praise travel dating and authenticity and problems of translation The volume concludes with two articles on food culture in early and medieval China Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1959 Thinking Through Sun Tzu's Art of War Scott Boorman, Jianyuan Sun, 2024-02-15 Thoroughly explains and analyzes Sun Tzu s thinking drawing on Chinese language history archaeology strategic analysis and computational perspectives The Ancient World Frank N. Magill, 2003-12-16 Containing 250 entries each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains examines the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history Much more than a Who s Who each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements and conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. Any student in the field will want to have one of these as a handy reference companion. Cosmos & Hearth Yi-fu Tuan, 1996. In a volume that represents the culmination of his life's work in considering the relationship between culture and landscape, Tuan argues that cosmos and hearth are two scales that anchor what it means to be fully and happily human. Hearth is our house and neighborhood, family and kinfolk, habit and custom. Cosmos, by contrast, is the larger reality, world, civilization, and humankind. Tuan addresses the extraordinary revival of interest in the hearth in recent decades, examining both the positive and negative effects of this renewed concern. Among the beneficial outcomes has been a revival of ethnic culture and sense of place. Negative repercussions abound, however, manifested as an upsurge in superstition, excessive pride in ancestry and custom, and a constricted worldview that when taken together can inflame local passions, leading at times to violent conflict, from riots in U.S. cities to wars in the Balkans. In Cosmos and Hearth, Tuan takes the position that we need to embrace both the sublime and the humble, drawing what is valuable from each. Illustrating the importance of both cosmos and hearth with examples from his country of birth, China, and from his home of the past forty years, the United States, Tuan proposes a revised conception of culture: the cosmopolitan hearth that has the coziness but not the narrowness and bigotry of the traditional hearth. Tuan encourages not only being thoroughly grounded in one's own culture but also the embracing of curiosity about the world. Optimistic and deeply human, Cosmos and Hearth lays out a path to being at home in the cosmos.
