Life and Loss Linda Goldman,2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child s healthy development Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief educational success and responsible citizenry The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children s grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children Children s grief is now endemic it is global Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century it s the book they need to work with it in constructive ways Funeral, Memorial and Thanksgiving Services Jan Brind,Tessa Wilkinson,2008-01-01 Arising out of many year s experience of helping to lead local church worship and counselling work in a children s hospice this is the first of three new volumes that focuses on the occasions when many non churchgoers visit a church for christenings weddings funerals and memorials These rites of passage present key opportunities for occasional visitors to encounter the Christian faith If they are imaginatively handled a lifelong interest can be aroused If they are insensitively done people can be put off for life This practical resource offers prayers forms of words and many tried and tested ideas for creating rituals that give support at a time of great need following a death It will enable the creation of rites based on the authorized liturgical texts that are beautiful memorable and meaningful Particular help is given for that most difficult of pastoral challenges the death of a child and the care of the bereaved family Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12

Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10-01 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage Dying, Death, and Grief Michael A. Simpson, 1987 Listing of over 1700 books published mostly since 1979 Most entries are annotated Main section is arranged alphabetically by titles separate sections cover murder terrorism and political uses of death and nuclear holocaust and megadeath Entries are rated with one to five asterisks Author subject categories indexes Listen, My Child Has a Lot of Living to Do J. D. Baum, Sister Frances Dominica, Robert N. Woodward, 1990 This book reflects the families tragic experiences and acknowledges their real expertise in the care of their own children Key ideas relevant to families and professional careers alike run through the text the loneliness and isolation the need to listen to the children and their families and the importance of communication and liaison Contributors present models of good practice in the UK in children's respite hospices hospitals and the community There are also chapters on bereavement parent self help groups care for the professional careers education and children with AIDS Death and Bereavement Dewi Rees, 1997-01-17 The central theme of this innovative book is the significance that people ascribe to death both within and beyond their religious beliefs and why this should be so The book provides an in depth account of the psychology of death and bereavement and in doing so places these subjects within the contexts of the major world religions and their associated mourning and funeral customs It also includes certain aspects of death such as death bed visions near death experiences and the commonly experienced sense of the presence of the deceased which are not normally included in books dealing with the psychology of death and bereavement Children, Spirituality, Religion and Social Work Margaret Crompton,1998 The Children Act 1989 for the first time in welfare legislation cited religion as an essential aspect of children s lives to which social workers should give attention Although religious and spiritual aspects of childhood have been studied in the field of education these are new subjects within social work and have stimulated few publications This book written by a pioneering author and creator of CCETSW s training pack in the field will fill the gap Margaret Crompton provides a jargon free practice oriented text for use in social work agencies and training programmes The focus is children involved with the social work service in whatever context care supervision hospital or residential unit for offenders It provides an insight into the importance of spirituality and religious belief in the everyday lives of children Areas covered include spiritual and religious rights abuse and neglect children and death communicating with children and young people Living Fully in the Shadow of Death Susan J.
