Showing Character Emotions Luca Panzarella,2020-08-31 How do you convey an emotion The answer to this question is a very complicated challenge for us writers perhaps the most difficult one of all of them that s why we can t take it lightly Of course we could write And then the main character in our story died Was that clear No doubt But did we stir anguish in the reader Fear Awe Concern Well no not really And the truth is it s not easy to convey an emotion to the reader in the same way that it s not easy to talk about it in real life Many of us prefer to show our emotions through actions or by buying a gift for example a bouquet of flowers but how do we make our reader feel the love that two characters are feeling for each other without falling into clich s How do we make the reader sad when our character has lost someone they care about How do we make them frightened when our character is investigating a murder The simple answer is through the show don t tell principle and we ve talked about it at length in our course Creative writing the full course We need to become excellent sociologists or psychologists or scholars of social and romantic relationships or as an alternative you can enroll this course How do you show and make people feel anxiety depression anger desire boredom and many other emotions that we will describe in this course How do you make the scene in which the character is feeling such an emotion a realistic one and how do you make your reader feel it almost like they re living in that moment themselves We will compare sentences that tell or describe an emotion with those that show it and that trigger the same feelings in us who are reading We will make a detailed list of the bodily reactions that each emotion provokes in us Because that s the only way you can learn how to really get your reader excited Are you ready to begin this journey I can t wait The Writer's Guide to Character Emotion S.
