appeal lies in the fact that it is time limited and cheaper than most alternatives The editors of this book argue that in the rush to embrace CBT there has not been sufficient attention paid to the potential drawbacks of such a therapy This book redresses the balance by taking a critical look at CBT through the lens of various standard psychotherapy approaches considering those areas where CBT is appropriate as well as those where it might not be Leading figures associated with particular approaches including Jungian Systemic Lacanian and Rogerian practitioners examine the role of CBT and how it fits within their approach exploring a synthesis of the two Responses from three leading international CBT authorities enable readers to engage with both sides of the emerging global debate about CBT and to consider what CBT therapists and other psychotherapists might learn from one another Critically Engaging CBT is key reading for training and practising counsellors and psychotherapists as well as other health professionals who deal with CBT and or other psychological interventions Contributors Ann Casement Windy Dryden John Heaton Jeremy Holmes Richard House Del Loewenthal Stacey Millichamp Ian Parker Howard A Paul Michael Proeve Anthony Ryle Peter Stratton and Keith Tudor Writing Research Critically John Schostak, Jill Schostak, 2015-12-14 This is not a standard guide to writing a dissertation thesis project report journal article or book Rather this book will help researchers who are dissatisfied with the typical recipe approaches to standardised forms of writing up and want to explore how academic writing can be used to greater effect Writing Research Critically shows that writing up is not just about presenting findings as if the facts would speak for themselves As the authors show there are certain vital skills that any writer needs to develop within their academic writing such as the ability to develop critical understanding and a personal academic voice question assumptions and the status quo frame the background and transgress the frame read between the lines when reviewing the literature strengthen interpretations and construct persuasive arguments challenge and develop theory and explanations develop ideas that create possibilities for realistic action Packed with examples from a range of writing projects papers dissertations theses reports journal articles and books this book provides a practical and refreshing way to approach and present research Through case studies the authors offer a step by step guide from the early stages of planning a writing project whether an undergraduate paper or a professional publication to the polishing processes that make the difference between a merely descriptive account to an argument that intends to be critical and persuasive Written in a clear accessible style this book will inspire a wide range of researchers from undergraduates to postgraduates early career researchers and experienced professionals working across a wide range of fields and demonstrate how research can have more impact in the real world Ebook: A Feminist Companion to Developmental Psychology Charlotte Dann, Lindsay O'Dell, 2025-07-02 The Feminist Companion series includes titles that act as your friends and mentors in book form supporting you in your studies especially when things get tough This companion offers a better informed understanding of developmental psychology covering key topics such as attachment developmental disability neurodiversity and a range of other formative childhood experiences all through a feminist lens The implicit ethical issues that occur when conducting psychological research on children are also explored in depth Ultimately this book aims to develop your critical and analytical skills by encouraging a questioning approach to understanding theories in developmental psychology and considering how they have been applied in the real world including in school healthcare and immigration settings The book maps to the British Psychological Society BPS curriculum on research methods as well as the Quality Assessment Agency's QAA Subject Benchmark Statement for Psychology combines sound practical advice with an exploration of the philosophical and methodological concepts underpinning educational research. Often drawing on the authors' own experiences, it makes a convincing case for the practitioner as researcher and draws clear and appropriate attention to the purposes, uses and dissemination of small scale research. Susan Wallace, Professor of Continuing Education, Nottingham Trent University, UK. EBOOK: Cross Cultural Perspectives on Educational Research Anna Robinson-Pant, 2005-11-16. Winner of the BMW Group LIFE Award for Contribution to Intercultural Learning 2007. The research student population of higher educational institutions continues to expand to include people from an ever widening range of cultural and educational backgrounds. However, many research methods courses are still directed at the traditional student population. This book examines aspects of postgraduate research from a cross cultural perspective, analysing the dilemmas faced by international students when defining a research question, choosing research methods, collecting data, deciding which language to use and writing their theses. Through an exploration of how international students re-examine their beliefs and research practices during their study in the UK, this book challenges the assumptions of all those engaged in educational research, addressing key questions such as: How do our teaching and learning experiences shape our approach to educational research? How do we judge good educational research? What does it mean to be critical? The book uses the real life experiences of international students to illuminate the kinds of challenges they may face. It supports both students and their supervisors, showing students how to approach cultural differences and supervisors how to deal sensitively with the problems encountered by overseas students in their research.

eBook: Business Research Methods 5e Boris Blumberg, Claire MacRae, 2024-06-13. This book is a one stop guide to all your research methods needs. It is tailored specifically towards business and management courses and central to this edition is the balanced coverage of qualitative and quantitative methods to clearly and concisely lead students through the research process whatever their project may be. Now in its much anticipated fifth edition, Business Research Methods has been revised and updated to reflect all the latest trends in research methodology. The integration of statistical issues as well as coverage of web based surveys, qualitative interviews, big data and content analysis of social media aims to support the current student experience. A Running Case Study charts the progression of two student research projects, one qualitative and one quantitative, and shows how the content of each chapter can be used to develop their projects. Thought provoking questions are included to help students consider the issues and decisions involved and how these might be applied to their own project. Deeper Insight into Research Methods boxes delve further into particular research issues, offering a detailed description to increase understanding of these areas whilst Real Life examples put research methods into context by showing how they have been applied in real world situations. New pedagogy features include Research in Practice boxes, which provide an insight into situations and research decisions that students may encounter in real life projects. They contain hints, tips and sometimes questions to help think through a project. Theory Explained highlights key theories and demonstrates how these can be applied in practical research examples Statistics in Action provides practical alternatives to qualitative research methods and gives examples of how statistical data can be presented analyzed and interpreted to improve students data insights skills The Online Learning Centre contains a vast amount of extra resources to support lecturers and student including power points instructor manuals and a question bank New to this edition are short case studies with teaching notes covering current topics and key theories and worked examples and videos with associated questions for further practical exercises and real world examples Boris F Blumberg is Senior Lecturer and Executive Director of UMIO the postgraduate unit at the Maastricht University School of Business and Economics the Netherlands Boris has supervised hundreds of dissertations and teaches courses in strategic management entrepreneurship and innovation His research focuses mainly on entrepreneurship networks and methodology Claire MacRae is Senior Lecturer in Public Policy at the Centre for Public Policy University of Glasgow Claire has taught courses on research methods for undergraduate masters and Professional Doctorate students Her research focuses mainly on policymaking risk and resilience and the impact of policy design and implementation on society
