Writing Shame And Desire Writing Shame And Desire:

Writing Shame and Desire Loraine Day, 2007 This study combines psycho social and literary perspectives to investigate the interdependency of shame and desire in Annie Ernaux's writing arguing that shame implies desire and desire vulnerability to shame and that the interplay between the two generates the energy for personal growth and creative endeavour

Writing Shame Mitchell Kaye Mitchell, 2019-11-01 Examines the intersection of shame gender and writing in contemporary literature Considers the particular intersection of shame gender and writing in literature produced since the 1990s Views shame as a constitutive factor in the social construction and experience of femininity Analyses a diverse range of texts from pulp to literary fiction to life writing and autofiction with a self reflexive focus on the formal disjunctions produced by in the writing of shame and on the shame attending the act of writing itself Offers political readings of neglected genres lesbian pulp fiction highly topical texts like Kraus's I Love Dick and Knausgaard's My Struggle and established authors such as Mary Gaitskill A M Homes Rupert Thomson Through readings of an array of recent texts literary and popular fictional and autofictional realist and experimental this book maps out a contemporary Western shame culture It unpicks the complex triangulation of shame gender and writing and intervenes forcefully in feminist and queer debates of the last three decades Starting from the premise that shame cannot be overcome or abandoned and that femininity and shame are utterly and necessarily imbricated Writing Shame examines writing that explores and inhabits this state of shame considering the dissonant effects of such explorations on and beyond the page

As Time Goes By Joy Charnley, Caroline Verdier, 2014-07-24 Academic work in a range of disciplines has been making an important contribution to the fraught and confusing debate around ageing and through writers' consciousness and experience literature just like economics psychology history and sociology can provide valuable insights into the attitudes and prejudices prevalent in society The present volume adds to this burgeoning field by providing a wide spectrum of literary analyses drawing on a range of approaches Freud Lacan Kristeva and feminist theory amongst others and covering a broad geographical area France Germany Italy Portugal Spain and Switzerland in addition to Francophone Canada and Morocco Major writers such as Balzac Cervantes Goethe Mann and Zola are discussed here as well as a number of important twentieth century writers Ben Jelloun Cixous Doubrovsky Ernaux Roy and Ungaretti and less well known figures Carvalho Chatelet and Fleutiaux Within the broad themes which structure the volume many others also emerge overlapping and often recurring in several sections These constant echoes between essays remind us that whatever the geographical location or the period in history similar issues remain pertinent across time and space whether it be family relations generational solidarity sadness and loneliness memory and dementia class differences gender differences or sexuality Together these essays contribute to the existing body of critical work by providing a series of portraits of what age is has been and might be in the future Collectively they demonstrate once more the power of literature to reflect or even prefigure social trends encouraging us to consider carefully what we think how we live and how we might shape our future societies      Faithful Deliberation T J Geiger, 2022-06-14 Investigates the rhetorical practices used by contemporary evangelical Christian women to confront theological and cultural issues that stymie deliberation within their communities While often perceived as an insular enclave with a high level of in group agreement about political and social issues predominantly white evangelicalism includes prominent voices urging deliberation about appropriate responses to sexual abuse domestic violence and the discourses surrounding these traumas In Faithful Deliberation Rhetorical Invention Evangelicalism and MeToo Reckonings T J Geiger II examines theologically reflective rhetorical invention that reconfigures trauma minimizing commonplaces in order to facilitate community internal deliberation Resting at the intersection of feminist rhetorical studies and religious rhetorics this book contains four related theological rhetorical case studies that consider how figures such as Beth Moore Jen Hatmaker Rachael Denhollander Karen Swallow Prior and others engaged in rhetorical invention Each juxtaposes differing approaches to contending with rape domestic violence sexual abuse and other traumas Each case contrasts an approach based on appeals to highly circumscribed understandings of grace purity and other denomination specific traditions and values with approaches rooted in those same traditions and values but with an eye toward community transformation healing through justice and reinvigorated forms of forgiveness Geiger skillfully argues that this faithful deliberation involves practices of thinking reflecting storytelling and acting within a tightly bounded community that can foster change through a recommitment to core values These rhetorical practices exemplify the kind of inventive listening deliberative discourse requires point to the sort of healing they may promote in response to trauma and trauma discourses and occur within a range of genres including social media posts blog entries published interviews victim impact statements and petitions This study of invention for evangelical to other evangelical deliberative discourse contributes to rhetorical studies by demonstrating the civic and social possibilities of rhetoric within religious enclaves By locating the case studies as recent moments in longer US public and evangelical histories of activism deliberative practice and politics Faithful Deliberation brings into focus how enclaves and the dominant public sphere interact      Contemporary Fiction in French Anna-Louise Milne, Russell Williams, 2021-03-25 Demonstrates how contemporary fiction in French has become a polycentric and transnational field of vibrant and varied experimentation

Convention and the Individual in Medieval English Romance Lucy Brookes, 2025-04 Offers a nuanced reading of character and subjectivity in medieval romance via an exploration of its conventions Medieval romances can be characterised by their formulaic motifs predictable plots and stock figures and character types This book offers a fresh perspective on these conventions arguing that authors used them and the expectations they generate as a form of shorthand to interiority Understanding romance conventions in this way reveals that romance characters complex and often contradictory inner lives are made available precisely through the genre's narrative structures shapes and norms Drawing upon recent work in the History of Emotions and Affect Theory the author explores character and subjectivity in a variety of English romance texts from 1100 to 1500 such as Amis and Amiloun Le Bone Florence of Rome The Squire of Low Degree Sir Orfeo Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and Malory's Le Morte Darthur Through new readings of these texts the book demonstrates the contribution made by romance to the growing significance of the individual in fiction after the twelfth century by paying particular attention to the ways in which convention expectation and genre intersect with character formation and the representation of identity

J. J. Rousseau Eli FRIEDLANDER, Eli Friedlander, 2009-06-30 Friedlander's book provides an afterlife for the Reveries in modern philosophy It constitutes an alternative to the analytic tradition's revival of Rousseau primarily through Rawls's influential vision of the social contract It also counters the fate of Rousseau's writings in the continental tradition determined by and large by Derrida's deconstruction

Leftovers Ruth Cruickshank, 2020-01-31 The intrinsic ambivalence of eating and drinking often goes unrecognised In Leftovers Cruickshank's new theoretical approach reveals how representations of food drink and their consumption proliferate with overlooked figurative psychological ideological and historical interpretative potential Case studies of novels by Robbe Grillet Ernaux Darrieussecq and Houellebecq demonstrate the transferrable potential of re thinking eating and drinking

Virginia Woolf and Heritage Jane De Gay, Tom Breckin, Anne Reus, 2017 This collection situates Woolf in relation to the past exploring her rich and varied heritage from a variety of fields while also assessing her own literary and biographical legacy

The Edinburgh Companion to the Brontes and the Arts Amber K. Regis, Deborah Wynne, 2024-12-31 The Bronte family produced and consumed art across a range of media and genres Haworth Parsonage and the local region proved a crucible of inspiration not only for Charlotte Branwell Emily and Anne but also for their parents Here were fostered the creative ambitions of four of the nineteenth century's most provocative novelists poets and visual artists In turn the Brontes now sustain heritage tourism and creative industries that adapt and disseminate their lives and work their likenesses and words across the globe in books on a plethora of screens film TV computer and phone in discarnate audio radio and podcasts and embodied on stage The essays collected here offer the first panoramic and sustained examination of the Brontes' lives work and legacies in relation to the visual musical plastic and performing arts tracing their influences and transformations across the lives and cultural afterlives of this extraordinary literary family
