Tourism Discourse Language And Global Mobility:

Tourism Discourse Crispin Thurlow, Adam Jaworski, 2010-02-24 Tourism Discourse offers new insights into the role of spoken written and visual discourse in representing and producing tourism as a global cultural industry With a view to the interplay between the symbolic and economic orders of global mobility the book is grounded in empirically based studies of key tourism genres Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse Bielenia-Grajewska, Magdalena, Cortes de los Rios, Enriqueta, 2017-08-10 The application of linguistic optimization methods in the tourism travel and hospitality industry has improved customer service and business strategies within the field It provides an opportunity for tourists to explore another culture building tolerance and overall exposure to different ways of life Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse is a pivotal reference source for the latest research findings on the role of language and linguistics in the travel industry Featuring extensive coverage on relevant areas such as intercultural communication adventure travel and tourism marketing this publication is an ideal resource for linguists managers researchers economists and professionals interested in emerging developments in tourism and travel Discourses of Global Queer Mobility and the Mediatization of Equality Joseph Comer, 2021-09-20 This book critically unpacks the why and how around everyday rhetorics and slogans promoting global LGBTQ equality Examining the means by which particular discourses of progress and hope are circulated globally it offers unique insights into how LGBTQ livelihoods relationships and social movements are legitimated and valued in contemporary society Adopting an innovative critical discourse ethnographic approach Comer draws on scholarship from the sociolinguistics of global mobility queer linguistics and digital media studies offering in depth analyses of representations of LGBTQ identity across a range of domains The volume examines semiotic linkages between LGBTQ tourism marketing Cape Town South Africa as a locus for contemporary ideologies of global mobility and equality diversity management practices framing LGBTQ equality as a business imperative and humanitarian discourses within transnational LGBTQ advocacy Autoethnographic vignettes and principles from within queer theory are incorporated by Comer s critical discourse ethnographic approach giving voice to personal experience in order to sharpen scholarly understanding of the relationships between everyday social voices globalized neoliberal political economy and the media Taken together the volume expansively if queerly maps what Comer refers to as the mediatization of equality and will be of interest to graduate students and scholars in critical discourse studies sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology as well as those working across such fields as media studies queer studies and sociology Multilingualism and the Periphery Sari Pietikainen, Helen Kelly-Holmes, 2013-03-07 This edited volume explores the ways in which core periphery dynamics shape multilingualism Language and Tourism in Postcolonial Settings Angelika Mietzner, Anne Storch, 2019-05-13 This book focuses on perspectives from and on the global south providing fresh data and analyses on languages in African Caribbean Middle Eastern and Asian tourism contexts It provides a critical perspective on tourism in postcolonial and neocolonial settings explored through in depth case studies The volume offers a multifaceted view on how language commodifies and is commodified in tourism settings and considers language practices and discourse as a way of constructing identities boundaries and places It also reflects on academic practice and economic dynamics in a field that is characterised by social inequalities and injustice and tourism as the world s largest industry enacting dynamic communicative social and cultural transformations The book will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students of tourism studies linguistics literature cultural history and anthropology as well as researchers and professionals in these fields

Language and Intercultural Communication in Tourism Bal Krishna Sharma, Shuang Gao, 2021-11-25 This collection critically examines tourism as a site of intercultural communication drawing on the analytical tools afforded by the discipline toward better understanding contemporary tourism discourses and the broader societal structures of power and ideologies in which they are situated The volume interrogates culture and interculturality in tourism in detailed analyses of discursive details in tourism interactions and focuses on the notion of culture as a process or phenomenon engaged in or enacted on by individuals Drawing on discourse analytic and ethnographic approaches the book brings together perspectives from the lived experiences of residents hosts and ethnographers to explore the extent to which linguistic and cultural differences are constructed identities negotiated and power relations maintained and perpetuated in tourism encounters The volume draws on insights from those working across a range of geographic contexts and explores the interplay of these issues in English as well as other languages and language varieties used in tourism interactions With its focus on critical approaches to understanding language and culture this book will appeal to students and scholars in intercultural communication applied linguistics sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology discourse analysis and tourism studies

The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage Claudia Elena Stoian, 2015-11-25 The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage A Contrastive Study from a Cultural Perspective presents an in depth research study in the field of online tourism promotion It focuses on the national online promotion of UNESCO World Heritage Sites on two different types of websites institutional and commercial from three countries Romania Spain and Great Britain The book analyses the way in which each country combines various modes to create a virtual brochure with a promotional message from both institutional and commercial positions In doing this it studies the organization of the websites and their webpages as well as the lexico grammatical and visual features of their promotional messages The theoretical framework used is Systemic Functional Linguistics Halliday 1985 1994 Kress and van Leeuwen 1996 2006 Halliday and Matthiessen 2004 The results are compared in relation to the types of websites and to the countries in which they were produced These are further interpreted from a cultural perspective showing that the findings can be accounted for by cultural variability in particular the dimension of context Hall 1976 1990 2000

Research Companion to Language and Country Branding Irene Theodoropoulou, Johanna Tovar, 2020-11-16 Research Companion to Language and Country Branding brings together entirely new interdisciplinary research conducted by scholars working on various sociolinguistic semiotic anthropological and discursive analytical aspects of country branding all over the world Branding is a process of identity construction whereby countries gain visibility and put themselves on the world map as distinctive entities by drawing on their history culture economy society geography and their people Through branding countries aim not only at establishing their uniqueness but also and perhaps most importantly at attracting tourism investments high quality human capital as well as at forging financial military political and social alliances Against this backdrop this volume explores how countries and regions imagine and portray others and themselves in terms of gender ethnicity and diversity today as well as the past In this respect the book examines how branding differs from other related policies and practices such as nation building banal nationalism and populism This volume is an essential reference for students researchers and practitioners with an interest in country nation and place branding processes

Global Russian Cultures Kevin M. F. Platt, 2019-01-15 Is there an essential Russian identity What happens when Russian literature is written in English by such authors as Gary Shteyngart or Lara Vapnyar What is the geographic home of Russian culture created and shared via the internet Global Russian Cultures innovatively considers these and many related questions about the literary and cultural life of Russians who in successive waves of migration have dispersed to the United States Europe and Israel or who remained after the collapse of the USSR in Ukraine the Baltic states and the Central Asian states The volume's internationally renowned contributors treat the many different global Russian cultures not as displaced elements of Russian cultural life but rather as independent entities in their own right They describe diverse forms of literature music film and everyday life that transcend and defy political geographic and even linguistic borders Arguing that Russian cultures today are many this volume contends that no state or society can lay claim to be the single or authentic representative of Russianness In so doing it contests the conceptions of culture and identity at the root of nation building projects in and around Russia

Political Economy and Sociolinguistics David Block, 2018-02-08 Shortlisted for the BAAL Book Prize 2019 This book explores how political economy intersects with sociolinguistics specifically how neoliberalism inequality and social class mediate language in society issues After the preface in which the author sets the scene for the content of the book Chapter 1 is an extensive though selective review of sociolinguistics research which has been framed as political economic in orientation The chapter concludes that such research generally contains little in the way of thorough and in depth coverage of the key ideas and conceptual frameworks said to undergird it With this consideration in mind Chapters 2 3 and 4 are organised around in depth discussions of respectively political economy as a general disciplinary frame neoliberalism as the variegated variety of capitalism dominant in the world today and stratification inequality and social class as phenomena intrinsic to capitalism which in the neoliberal era have come to the fore as key issues Drawing directly on the background provide in Chapters 2 4 Chapters 5 and 6 explore two distinct political economy informed lines of research on the one hand the neoliberal citizen and on the other hand discursive class warfare The book ends with an epilogue addressing issues arising around political economy in sociolinguistics
