consumer behaviour and marketing in tourism A Practical Guide to Managing Tourist Experiences Isabelle Frochot, 2021-12-30 This book provides students with a concise and practical guide that presents key understandings of the tourist experience and provides strategic guidance on how to develop an impactful and memorable experience Chapters follow the path of the tourist journey firstly exploring consumer behaviour the decision making process and the tourist's need for escape and providing insights into the strategic implications of consumer behaviour and the concept of immersion in tourism Subsequent chapters look at the impact of experiences consider trends in tourism experience such as wellness sustainability authenticity and fantasy and provide experience design models The final chapter offers a unique ten step approach to designing impactful and memorable tourist experiences Highly practical and engaging this book is packed full of case studies and examples from forest bathing in Finland to truffle hunting in Italy as well as tools and exercises to guide the design process This book offers students a full understanding of how the experience is lived from the tourist perspective how tourism providers can manage that process and how to develop successful experimental marketing interventions This is essential reading for all tourism students and future tourism managers Sex in Tourism Neil Carr, Liza Berdychevsky, 2021-11-04 This book encompasses the diversity and complexity of sex in tourism incorporating the light dark and shades of grey in between It brings together work and ideas from a diverse array of researchers from around the world and examines the affects and effects of diverse sexual encounters in tourism romance tourism sex tourism and sexual exploitation in tourism including the sexual exploitation of children in travel and tourism and sexual harassment Sex in tourism has arguably been an understudied area of research relative to the central roles that sex plays within tourism experiences This volume explores the complexity and nuanced nature of sex in tourism in more detail It will be of interest to students and researchers of tourism impacts tourist behaviour hospitality management destination management and development Tourism, 2nd Edition Peter Robinson, Michael Lück, Stephen Smith, 2020-05-22 Fully revised Tourism 2nd edition covers aspects of tourism from a modern perspective providing students with a range of theoretical and research based explanations supported by examples case studies and unique insights from industry representatives Covering topics such as policy and planning heritage management leisure management event management and hospitality management the book tackles the practical elements of academic tourism such as infrastructure management and economic development together with other important contemporary issues such as sustainable development and post tourists Gender, Disability, and Tourism in Africa Erisher Woyo, Hellen Venganai, 2022-11-10 This book explores the intersection of gender and disability in the context of tourism In part the book foregrounds feminist theorising of intersectionality by examining how gender can overlap with other social identities to contribute to more systemic oppression domination discrimination and marginalisation of certain categories of people Our point of departure is that disability does not operate in isolation as it is constituted and experienced within an already gendered social and tourism environment With substantial research on the intersection of gender and tourism on the one hand and the intersection of disability and tourism on the other hand the interconnectedness of gender and disability and the implications this has on tourism policy and practice remains understudied Thus the book provides a critical lens that helps unpack underlying assumptions about gender and disability while questioning the dominant ideas about gender and disability reproduced through tourism policies and institutional practices in an African context This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Gender Studies Disability Studies and Tourism Studies particularly those with a research interest in Africa
