Towards Speculative Realism Towards Speculative Realism:

Towards Speculative Realism: Essays & Graham Harman, 2010-11-26 These writings chart Harman's rise from Chicago sportswriter to co-founder of one of Europe's most promising philosophical movements Speculative Realism Towards Speculative Realism Graham Harman, 2010 These writings chart Harman's rise from Chicago sportswriter to co-founder of one of Europe's most promising philosophical movements Speculative Realism Speculative Realism Peter Gratton, 2014-09-25 The first book-length survey of speculative realism a rapidly emerging field in contemporary Continental philosophy Speculative Realism Graham Harman, 2018-09-19 On April 27 2007 the first Speculative Realism SR workshop was held at Goldsmiths University of London featuring four young philosophers whose ideas were loosely allied Over the ensuing decade the ideas of SR spread from philosophy to the arts architecture and numerous disciplines in the humanities and social sciences SR has been arguably the most influential new current in continental philosophy since the works of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari found their second wind in the 1990s But what is SR This book is the first general overview by one of its original members focusing on the aesthetic ethical ontological and political themes of greatest importance to the movement Graham Harman provides a balanced but critical assessment of his original SR colleagues Ray Brassier Iain Hamilton Grant and Quentin Meillassoux along with a clear summary of his own Object Oriented Ontology OOO A number of central philosophical questions tie the four chapters together What exactly is correlationism the chief enemy of SR What are the stakes of philosophical realism and is such realism better served by mathematics and the natural sciences or by a broader model of cognitive activity that includes aesthetics This book covers both the historical and conceptual development of the movement providing a first-rate introduction for students aided by helpful end-of-chapter study questions chosen by Harman himself SR Harman shows is a vital and fast-developing field in contemporary philosophy Speculative Realism Peter Gratton, 2014-09-25 Speculative realism is one of the most talked-about movements in recent Continental philosophy It has been discussed widely amongst the younger generation of Continental philosophers seeking new philosophical approaches and promises to form the cornerstone of future debates in the field This book introduces the contexts out of which speculative realism has emerged and provides an overview of the major contributors and latest developments It guides the reader through the important questions asked by realism what can I know what is reality examining philosophy's perennial questions in new ways The book begins with the speculative realist's critique of correlationism the view that we can never reach what is real beneath our language systems our means for perception or our finite manner of being in the world It goes on to critically review the work of the movement's most important thinkers including Quentin Meillassoux Ray Brassier and Graham Harman but also other important writers such as Jane Bennett and Catherine Malabou whose writings delineate alternative approaches to the real It interrogates the crucial questions these thinkers have raised and concludes with a look toward the future of speculative realism especially as it relates to the reality of time The Universe of Things Steven

Shaviro,2014-10-01 From the rediscovery of Alfred North Whitehead's work to the rise of new materialist thought including object oriented ontology there has been a rapid turn toward speculation in philosophy as a way of moving beyond solely human perceptions of nature and existence Now Steven Shaviro maps this quickly emerging speculative realism which is already dramatically influencing how we interpret reality and our place in a universe in which humans are not the measure of all things The Universe of Things explores the common insistence of speculative realism on a noncorrelationist thought that things or objects exist apart from how our own human minds relate to and comprehend them Shaviro focuses on how Whitehead both anticipates and offers challenges to prevailing speculative realist thought moving between Whitehead's own panpsychism Harman's object oriented ontology and the reductionist eliminativism of Quentin Meillassoux and Ray Brassier The stakes of this recent speculative realist thought of the effort to develop new ways of grasping the world are enormous as it becomes clear that our inherited assumptions are no longer adequate to describe much less understand the reality we experience around us As Shaviro acknowledges speculative realist thought has its dangers but it also like the best speculative fiction holds the potential to liberate us from confining views of what is outside ourselves and he believes to reclaim aesthetics and beauty as a principle of life itself Bringing together a wide array of contemporary thought and evenhandedly assessing its current debates The Universe of Things is an invaluable guide to the evolution of speculative realism and the provocation of Alfred North Whitehead's pathbreaking work

Speculations IV Michael Austin,Paul Ennis,Fabio Gironi,Thomas Gokey,Robert Jackson,2013 With this special volume of Speculations the editors wanted to challenge the contested term speculative realism offering scholars who have some involvement with it a space to voice their opinions of the network of ideas commonly associated with the name Whilst undoubtedly born under speculative realist auspices Speculations has never tried to be the gospel of a dogmatic speculative realist church but rather instead to cultivate the best theoretical lines sprouting from the resurgence in the last few years of those speculative and realist concerns attempting to break free from some of the most stringent constraints of critique Sociologist Randall Collins observed that unlike other fields of intellectual inquiry philosophy has the peculiarity of periodically shifting its own grounds but always in the direction of claiming or at least seeking the standpoint of greatest generality and importance If this is the case to deny that a shift of grounds has indeed become manifest in these early decades of the twenty first century would be at best a sign of a severe lack of philosophical sensitivity On the other hand whether or not this shift has been towards greater importance and in respect to what is not only a legitimate but a necessary question to ask

Animal Writing Danielle Sands,2019-08-21 Combining recent insights from animal studies critical plant studies and the new materialisms Danielle Sands reads fiction and philosophy alongside each other to propose a method of thinking of and with animals that draws on a bestiary of affects She challenges the claim that empathy should be primary mode of engagement with nonhuman life Instead she looks at the stories that we tell and are told by insects beings at the edges of animal life The indifference even disgust that these creatures evoke in us forms the basis for a new ethics not limited by empathy Along the way she encounters fiction writers Yann Martel Karen Joy Fowler Han Kang and Jim Crace beside the philosophy of Graham Harman Donna Haraway Jacques Derrida and Roger Caillois

The Speculative Turn Levi Bryant, Levi R. Bryant, Nick Srnicek, Graham Harman, 2011

Continental philosophy has entered a new period of ferment The long deconstructionist era was followed with a period dominated by Deleuze which has in turn evolved into a new situation still difficult to define However one common thread running through the new brand of continental positions is a renewed attention to materialist and realist options in philosophy Among the current giants of this generation this new focus takes numerous different and opposed forms It might be hard to find many shared positions in the writings of Badiou DeLanda Laruelle Latour Stengers and Zizek but what is missing from their positions is an obsession with the critique of written texts All of them elaborate a positive ontology despite the incompatibility of their results Meanwhile the new generation of continental thinkers is pushing these trends still further as seen in currents ranging from transcendental materialism to the London based speculative realism movement to new revivals of Derrida As indicated by the title The Speculative Turn the new currents of continental philosophy depart from the text centered hermeneutic models of the past and engage in daring speculations about the nature of reality itself This anthology assembles authors of several generations and numerous nationalities who will be at the center of debate in continental philosophy for decades to come

Prince of Networks: Bruno Latour and Metaphysics Graham Harman, 2009 Prince of Networks is the first treatment of Bruno Latour specifically as a philosopher It has been eagerly awaited by readers of both Latour and Harman since their public discussion at the London School of Economics in February 2008 Part One covers four key works that display Latour's underrated contributions to metaphysics Irreductions Science in Action We Have Never Been Modern and Pandora's Hope Harman contends that Latour is one of the central figures of contemporary philosophy with a highly original ontology centered in four key concepts actants irreduction translation and alliance In Part Two Harman summarizes Latour's most important philosophical insights including his status as the first secular occasionalist The problem of translation between entities is no longer solved by the fiat of God Malebranche or habit Hume but by local mediators Working from his own object oriented perspective Harman also criticizes the Latourian focus on the relational character of actors at the expense of their cryptic autonomous reality This book forms a remarkable interface between Latour's Actor Network Theory and the Speculative Realism of Harman and his confederates It will be of interest to anyone concerned with the emergence of new trends in the humanities following the long postmodernist interval
