Transnational Yearnings Transnational Yearnings:

Transnational Yearnings Jenny Burman, 2011-01-01 The global pathways that connect cities and nations are congested with people money and cultural transmissions Transnational Yearnings is about the migrations and uneven exchanges that bind postcolonial Jamaica to the diasporic city It is about the desires intimacies and power relations that at once inform and reflect transnational migration and the diasporization of urban space This innovative and provocative book maps out a new way to look at contemporary contact zones and global interconnections as it traces circuits of migration and leisure travel between the Caribbean and Toronto a city that has become for Jamaican Canadians both a place of promise and cultural vitality and a site of criminalization and exclusion through deportation Transnational Yearnings is an important addition to recent scholarship on Caribbean transnationalism and Canadian Caribbean relations one that paints a fuller portrait of Jamaican immigrants than we often see

Moving Islands Diana Looser, 2021-09-30 Moving Islands reveals the international and intercultural connections within contemporary performance from Oceania focusing on theater performance art art installations dance film and activist performance in sites throughout Oceania and in Australia Asia North America and Europe Diana Looser's study moves beyond a predictable country specific or island specific focus to encompass an entire region defined by diversity and global exchange showing how performance operates to frame social artistic and political relationships across widely dispersed locations The study also demonstrates how Oceanian performance contributes to international debates about diaspora indigeneity urbanization and environmental sustainability The author considers the region's unique cultural and geographic dynamics as she brings forth the paradigm of transpacific to suggest a way of understanding these intercultural exchanges and connections with the aim to rework the cartographic and disciplinary priorities of transpacific studies to privilege the activities of Islander peoples

The Kaleidoscope of Gender Joan Z. Spade, Catherine G. Valentine, 2011 An accessible timely and stimulating introduction to the sociology of gender The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities Third Edition provides a comprehensive analysis of key ideas theories and applications in this field as viewed through the metaphor of a kaleidoscope This collection of creative articles by top scholars explains how the complex evolving pattern of gender is constructed interpersonally institutionally and culturally and challenges students to question how gender shapes their daily lives Like the prior edition the Third Edition maintains a focus on contemporary contributions to the field while incorporating classical and theoretical arguments to provide a broad framework Integrating a cross cultural focus and intersectional inquiry this unique text reader vividly illustrates that gender is a malleable continuum of prisms patterns and possibilities

The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary African American Literature Yogita Goyal, 2023-12-21 African American literature has changed in startling ways since the end of the Black Arts Era The last five decades have generated new paradigms of racial formation and novel patterns of cultural production circulation and reception This volume takes up the challenge of mapping the varied and changing field of contemporary African American writing Balancing the demands of historical and political context with attention to aesthetic innovation it considers the history practice and future directions of the field Examining various historical forces shaping the creation of innovative genres the turn to the afterlife of slavery the pull toward protest and the impact of new and expanded geographies and methods this Companion provides an invaluable point of reference for readers seeking rigorous and cutting edge analyses of contemporary African American literature

Sport in the Black Atlantic Janelle Joseph,2017-01-31 This book outlines the ways sport helps to create transnational social fields that interconnect migrants dispersed across a region known as the Black Atlantic England North America and the Caribbean Many Caribbean men s stories about their experiences migrating to Canada settling in Toronto finding jobs and travelling involved some contact with a cricket and social club It offers a unique contribution to black diaspora studies through showing sport in Canada as a means of contending with ageing in the diaspora creating transnational relationships and marking ethnic boundaries on a local scale The book also brings black diaspora analysis to sport research and through a close look at what goes on before during and after cricket matches provides insights into the dis unities contradictions and complexities of Afro diasporic identity in multicultural Canada It will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology sport studies and black diaspora studies An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC licence

North of El Norte Paloma E. Villegas,2020-09-15 North of El Norte provides an important counterpoint to the attention given to Mexican migration to the United States by examining a lesser known migration route that taken by contemporary Mexican migrants to Canada Paloma Villegas considers changing Canadian immigration policy and practice and the implications of these changes for Mexican migrants without permanent resident status Her analysis addresses the context in Mexico the experience of border crossing policies to restrict migration and migrants options to achieve secure status Villegas also provides an assessment of the barriers migrants encounter once in Canada specifically in the labour market in their creative pursuits and in accessing health care Drawing on interviews policy documents media accounts and literature from local social service organizations North of El Norte concludes that migration and by extension migrant illegalization is assembled produced and negotiated The comprehensive research in this book sheds light on how individuals and institutions work to illegalize migrants and on migrants active resistance to these efforts

Moves - Spaces - Places Lisa Johnson,2021-10-01 In the complex and multi layered process of migration and identity building classical migration theories and approaches of transnationalism seem no longer able to grasp how belonging and home are to be found in movement This ethnography leads the reader into the lives of five Jamaican women in Montreal their daily practices and experiences their spaces of communion their memories and projections for the future Lisa Johnson sheds light on the mobile biographies and migratory agency of her interlocutors by following the intricate mental and physical trajectories of their deep rooted yearning to return home

The Routledge Companion to the American Landscape Chris W. Post,Alyson L. Greiner,Geoffrey L. Buckley,2023-03-31 The

Routledge Companion to the American Landscape provides a comprehensive overview of the American landscape in a way fit for the twenty first century not only in its topical and regional scope but also in its methodological and disciplinary diversity. Critically surveying the contemporary scholarship on the American landscape this companion brings together scholars from the social sciences and humanities who focus their work on understanding the polyphonic evolution of the United States landscape. It simultaneously assesses the development of the US landscape as well as the scholarly thought that has driven innovation and continued research about that landscape. Four broad sections focus on key areas of scholarship: environmental landscapes, social cultural and popular identities in the landscape, political landscapes and urban economic landscapes. A special essay, American Landscapes Under Siege, and accompanying short case studies call attention to the legacies and realities of race in the American landscape, bridging the discussion of social and political landscapes. This companion offers an invaluable and up to date guide for scholars and graduate students to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of place including Geography, Cultural Studies and History as well as the interdisciplinary fields of American Studies, Environmental Studies and Planning.

Winged Faith Tulasi Srinivas, 2010-06-10 The Sathya Sai global civil religious movement incorporates Hindu and Muslim practices, Buddhist, Christian and Zoroastrian influences and New Age style rituals and beliefs. Shri Sathya Sai Baba, its charismatic and controversial leader, attracts several million adherents from various national, ethnic and religious backgrounds. In a dynamic account of the Sathya Sai movement's explosive growth, Winged Faith argues for a rethinking of globalization and the politics of identity in a religiously plural world. This study considers a new kind of cosmopolitanism located in an alternate understanding of difference and contestation. It considers how acts of sacred spectating and illusion, moral stakeholding and the problems of community are debated and experienced. A thrilling study of a transcultural and transurban phenomenon that questions narratives of self and being, circuits of sacred mobility and the politics of affect, Winged Faith suggests new methods for discussing religion in a globalizing world and introduces readers to an easily critiqued yet not fully understood community.

Postcolonial Yearning A. Sen, 2013-02-20 Anglophone postcolonial studies has been characterized by its secular nature. Yet as the first generation of scholars grapples with mortality, a yearning for spiritual meaning is emerging in many texts. This study synthesizes the sacred language used in these texts with critical theory in order to create a holistic frame for interpretive analysis.
