Trauma Recalled Liturgy Disruption And Theology:

Trauma Recalled Dirk G. Lange, 2010 Christian commitment and Christian theology both are tempted by complacency Yet Dirk Lange asserts both are brought up short by keen awareness of the traumatic events that liturgy recalls and that theology seeks to explicate Recalling Martin Luther's great demurrals about a theology of glory Lange reminds us that Christianity begins with exposure to the primal trauma the cross at the core of the Christian story

Ruptured Voices: Trauma and Recovery Karen O'Donnell, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016

Trauma is no longer and perhaps has never been an uncommon occurrence it is now commonplace in human experience Notoriously difficult to define when one tries to offer a definition of trauma that works across disciplines and beyond the boundaries of subjects one enters a new territory This collection participates in a reconstructive movement in which the boundaries of trauma theory and trauma recovery are flung wide The vastly differing experiences contexts and critical reflections of the contributors serve to ensure this monograph offers a fresh voice in the field of Trauma Studies This collection of essays on trauma seeks to open dialogue and expand discussion Blurring the boundaries of traditional disciplinary lines this monograph strives to interrupt and rupture the debate on trauma It is in the fissures created by such rupture that new and compelling voices can be heard

Feminist Trauma Theologies Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2025-01-30 Throughout the study of trauma theology runs a lineage that is deeply feminist As traumatic experience is being more frequently acknowledged in public this book seeks to articulate an explicit understanding of feminist trauma theology for the first time Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between trauma and feminist theologies highlighting methodological theological and practical similarities between the two The MeToo and ChurchToo movements sexual abuse scandals gender based violence pregnancy loss and the oppression of women in church spaces are all featured as important topics With contributions from a diverse team of scholars this book is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism

Liturgy & Power Flanagan, Brian P., Vento Johann M., 2017-05-18 Post-Traumatic Public Theology Stephanie N. Arel, Shelly Rambo, 2016-11-02 This book imagines new modes of religious response to trauma moving beyond simple answers to the why of human suffering toward discussions of profound expressions of faith in the aftermath of trauma Engaging current realities such as war race and climate change chapters feature specific locations from which theology is done and draw on the resources of Christian faith in order to respond This volume recognizes religious leaders as first responders to trauma and offers theological reflections that can stand up in the current realities of violence and its aftermath The writings provide models for how to integrate the language of faith with the literature of trauma

Taking It to the Streets Jennifer Baldwin, 2018-12-18 Taking It to the Streets Public Theologies of Activism and Resistance is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of public theology political theology and communal practices of activism and political resistance This volume functions as a sister companion to the text Religion and Science as Political Theology Navigating Post Truth and Alternative Facts and focuses on public civic performative action as a response to experiences of injustice and diminishments of humanity There are periods in a nation s civil history when the tides of social unrest rise into waves upon waves of public activism and resistance of the dominant uses of power In American history activism and public action including and extending beyond the Women s Suffrage the Million Man March protests against the Vietnam War the Civil Rights Movement Boston Tea Party Black Lives Matter the Stonewall Rebellion are hallmarks of transitional or liminal moments in our development as a society Critical periods marked by increases in public activism and political resistance are opportunities for a society to once again decide who we will be as a people Will we move towards a more perfect union in which all persons gain freedom in fulfilling their potential or will we choose the perceived safety of the status quo and established norms of power Whose voices will be heard Whose will be silenced through intimidation or harm Ultimately these are theological questions Like other forms of non textual research subjects movement dance performance art public activism requires a set of research lenses that are often neglected in theological and religious studies Attention to bodies as a category performance or epistemological vehicle is sorely lacking so it is no wonder that attention to the mass of moving bodies in activism is largely absent Activism and public political resistance are a hallmark of our current social webbing and deserve scholarly attention

Broken Bodies Karen O'Donnell,2019-01-01 The Body of Christ is a traumatised body because it is constituted of traumatised bodies This monograph explores the nature of that trauma and examines the implications of identifying the trauma of this body Constructing new ways of thinking about the narratives at the heart of the Christian faith Broken Bodies offers a fresh perspective on Christian theology in particular the Eucharist and presents a call to love the body in all its guises It offers new pathways for considering what it means to be Christian and explores the impact that the experience of trauma has on Christian doctrine

The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell,2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery

Between Pain and Grace Gerald Peterman,Andrew Schmutzer,2016-05-23 Why is there suffering When will it end Where is God in it Despite how common suffering is we still struggle to understand it and even more to bear through it Between Pain and Grace gets to the heart of this struggle Its honest and detailed portrait of life challenges our assumptions about pain emotion and God himself Born from a popular college course on suffering this book answers critical questions like Is God personally involved in our pain and suffering How should Christians handle emotions like grief and anger What does the Bible say about issues like mental illness sexual abuse and family betrayal Striking an elegant balance between being scholarly and pastoral Between Pain and Grace is useful in the classroom churches and for personal reading The authors draw from Scripture personal experience and even psychological research to offer a well rounded and trustworthy take on suffering Between Pain and Grace will give you confidence in God s sovereignty comfort in His presence and wisdom for life this side of paradise It will also make you more tender and better prepared to respond to the suffering of others Read it today for a richer more realistic relationship with God     Affect Theory, Shame, and Christian Formation Stephanie N. Arel, 2016-11-08 This book addresses the eclipse of shame in Christian theology by showing how shame emerges in Christian texts and practice in ways that can be neither assimilated into a discourses of guilt nor dissociated from embodiment Stephanie N Arel argues that the traditional focus on guilt obscures shame by perpetuating the image of the lonely sinner in guilt Drawing on recent studies in affect and attachment theories to frame the theological analysis the text examines the theological anthropological writings of Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr the interpretation of empathy by Edith Stein and moments of touch in Christian praxis Bringing the affective dynamics of shame to the forefront enables theologians and religious leaders to identify where shame emerges in language and human behavior The text expands work in trauma theory providing a multi layered theological lens for engaging shame and accompanying suffering
