Tourism And Sustainability Development Globalisation And New Tourism In The Third World:

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2003-12-08 Tourism and Sustainability explores and challenges the notions of development sustainability globalisation and power and their relationship to contemporary tourism in the third world

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2015-12-22 By January 2015 the world's richest 80 people had as much wealth as the poorest 50 per cent of the world's population. It is a global unevenness through which the barriers to migration of Third World migrants to wealthy First World nations go ever higher while the barriers to travel in the reverse direction are all but extinct. So how exactly does tourism contribute to narrowing this glaring inequality between the rich and poor? Are ever expanding tourism markets a smoke-free socioculturally sensitive form of human industrialisation? Is alternative tourism really a credible lever for reducing global inequality and eliminating poverty? Tourism and Sustainability critically explores the most significant universal geopolitical norms of the last half century: development, globalisation and sustainability, and through the lens of new forms of tourism demonstrates how we can better get to grips with the rapidly changing new global order. The fourth edition has been extensively revised and updated and benefits from the addition of new material on climate change and tourism. Drawing on a range of examples from across the Third World, Mowforth and Munt expertly illustrate the social, economic and environmental conditions that continue to affect the tourism industry. With the first edition hailed by Geoffrey Wall as one of the most significant books produced on tourism since the turn of the millennium, Tourism and Sustainability remains the essential resource for students of human geography, environmental sciences and studies, politics, development studies, anthropology and business studies, as well as tourism itself.

Tourism, Poverty and Development Andrew Holden, 2013-07-18 Poverty alleviation is high on the global policy agenda, its importance being emphasised by its place as the first of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals. As a potentially significant source of economic growth in developing countries, tourism may also play a major role in poverty reduction and alleviation under the right circumstances. The incorporation of tourism into development policy and Poverty Reduction Strategies has special poignancy for those Least Developed Countries where natural resources exist to support a tourism industry and there are limited development alternatives. This book offers a holistic, explicit and detailed introduction to the relationship of poverty and tourism within the context of developing countries. The book is divided into distinct sections progressing from an evaluation of the key concepts of poverty, tourism and development to the causal factors of poverty to the mechanisms of how tourism is being implemented in policy and practice to reduce poverty and finally to an analysis of the relationship between tourism to poverty alleviation in the future. The adopted analytical approach of the key themes is multi-disciplinary, incorporating tourism studies, human geography, political economy, economics, development and environmental studies. It integrates examples and original case studies from varying geographical developing regions including Africa, South Asian and East Asia and the Pacific to lend practical insights into tourism's role in poverty alleviation. The text will be of particular interest to higher education students from tourism studies geography political economy environmental and development studies and sociology backgrounds It will also be of relevance to government and policy makers alongside those who have a more general interest in poverty alleviation Tourism, Philanthropy and School Tours in Zimbabwe Kathleen Smithers,2024-08-05 This book explores the phenomena of school tours and tourism It explores tensions of authenticity and artificiality in the school site being both a place of community learning and a spectacle for tourism consumption Through the example of a school in Matabeleland North Zimbabwe the book examines the act of a school tour whose main aim is to providing fund for the school It offers a unique interdisciplinary lens that examines both the school as a tourism destination and as a site of learning By drawing on these two fields the book provides insights into the tensions inherent in a school that is also a tourism destination This book will demonstrate to readers the tensions present in tourism partnerships with schools that include some source of philanthropic funding and unpack the complexities of tourism that draws on stereotypical cultural images It explores these tensions through the lens of school leaders students teachers and tourism personnel The book provides a major and unique contribution to the field of tourism studies and education It will be of interest to students and researchers interested in tourism studies sociology education philanthropy development studies and the Global South
