A Research Agenda for Tourism and Development Richard Sharpley, David Harrison, 2019 Tourism is integral to local regional and national development policies as a major global economic sector it has the potential to underpin economic growth and wider development Yet transformations in both the nature of tourism and the dynamic environment within which it occurs give rise to new questions with regards to its developmental role This Research Agenda offers a state of the art review of the research into the tourism development nexus Exploring issues including governance policy philanthropy poverty reduction and tourism consumption it identifies significant gaps in the literature and proposes new and sometimes provocative avenues for future research

Event Tourism in Asian Countries Shruti Arora, Anukrati Sharma, 2022-03-23 Events including repeat annual events have the unique ability to drive sustainable tourism to certain areas and regions and to generate economic benefits for local communities. The events industry has grown dramatically over the last several decades and there has been increased participation from governments, local communities and the private sector. This new volume offers a wide variety of research experience and examples of events in Asia including business meetings and conferences, destination weddings, carnivals, food and art festivals, music festivals and concerts, cultural and traditional events, religious and spiritual gatherings, sports events and others. The authors from various parts of Asia give illustrative examples of events tourism from their home countries including India, Sri Lanka, Turkey, Malaysia, Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan. The diverse perspectives are from stakeholders, travelers, researchers, academicians, professionals in the event and tourism industry and the community. The chapters in the volume cover the changing trends in the event tourism industry, the influence and role of social media and other technology, the contribution of women in events and festivals and the impact of event tourism in economic development on local communities. Addressing the issues, challenges and future of event tourism and management, this new volume will be a valuable addition to the library of event professionals, hospitality and tourism researchers, community development managers and others in Asia and elsewhere.
