Tourism Imaginaries Anthropological Approaches By Berghahn Books 2014 06 01:

Tourism Imaginaries Noel B. Salazar, Nelson H. H. Graburn, 2014-06-01 It is hard to imagine tourism without the creative use of seductive as well as restrictive imaginaries about peoples and places These socially shared assemblages are collaboratively produced and consumed by a diverse range of actors around the globe As a nexus of social practices through which individuals and groups establish places and peoples as credible objects of tourism tourism imaginaries have yet to be fully explored Presenting innovative conceptual approaches this volume advances ethnographic research methods and critical scholarship regarding tourism and the imaginaries that drive it The various authors contribute methodologically as well as conceptually to anthropology's grasp of the images forces and encounters of the contemporary world Religious Tourism in Northern Thailand Brooke Schedneck, 2021-06-18 Cross cultural dialogues in sacred space cultivate awareness of self and others Temples are everywhere in Chiang Mai filled with tourists as well as saffron robed monks of all ages The monks participate in daily urban life here as elsewhere in Thailand where Buddhism is promoted protected and valued as a tourist attraction Yet this mountain city offers more than a fleeting commodified tourist experience as the encounters between foreign visitors and Buddhist monks can have long lasting effects on both parties These religious contacts take place where economic motives missionary zeal and opportunities for cultural exchange coincide Brooke Schedneck incorporates fieldwork and interviews with student monks and tourists to examine the innovative ways that Thai Buddhist temples offer foreign visitors spaces for religious instruction and popular in person Monk Chat sessions in which tourists ask questions about Buddhism Religious Tourism in Northern Thailand also considers how Thai monks perceive other religions and cultures and how they represent their own religion when interacting with tourists resulting in a revealing study of how religious traditions adapt to an era of globalization Buddhist Tourism in Asia Courtney Bruntz, Brooke Schedneck, 2020-03-31 This innovative collaborative work the first to focus on Buddhist tourism explores how Buddhists government organizations business corporations and individuals in Asia participate in re imaginings of Buddhism through tourism Contributors from religious studies anthropology and art history examine sacred places and religious monuments as they have been shaped and reshaped by socioeconomic and cultural trends in the region Following an introduction that offers the first theoretical understanding of tourism from a Buddhist studies perspective early chapters discuss the ways Buddhists and non Buddhists imagine concepts and places related to the religion Case studies highlight Buddhist peace in India Buddhist heavens and hells in Singapore Thai temple space and the future Buddha Maitreya in China Buddhist tourism's connections to the state market and new technologies are explored in chapters on Indian package tours for pilgrims thematic Buddhist tourism in Cambodia the technological innovations of Buddhist temples in China and the promotion of pilgrimage sites in Japan Contributors then situate the financial concerns of Chinese temples speed dating in temples in Japan and the diffuse and pervasive nature of Buddhism for tourism promotion in Ladakh India How have tourist routes groups sites and practices associated with Buddhism come to be possible and what are the effects In what ways do travelers derive meaning from Buddhist places How do Buddhist sites fortify national cultural or religious identities The comparative research in South Southeast and East Asia presented here draws attention to the intertwining of the sacred and the financial and how local and national sites are situated within global networks Together these findings generate a compelling comparative investigation of Buddhist spaces identities and practices Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse Bielenia-Grajewska, Magdalena, Cortes de los Rios, Enriqueta, 2017-08-10 The application of linguistic optimization methods in the tourism travel and hospitality industry has improved customer service and business strategies within the field It provides an opportunity for tourists to explore another culture building tolerance and overall exposure to different ways of life Innovative Perspectives on Tourism Discourse is a pivotal reference source for the latest research findings on the role of language and linguistics in the travel industry Featuring extensive coverage on relevant areas such as intercultural communication adventure travel and tourism marketing this publication is an ideal resource for linguists managers researchers economists and professionals interested in emerging developments in tourism and travel The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017-02-01 Intellectual struggles with the animal question how humans can rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals first began to take hold in the 1970s Over the next forty years scholars from a wide range of fields would make sweeping reevaluations of the relationship between humans and other animals The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies brings these diverse evaluations together for the first time paying special attention to the commodification of animals the degradation of the natural world and a staggering loss of animal habitat and species extinction and the increasing need for humans to coexist with other animals in urban rural and natural contexts Linda Kalof maps these themes into the five major categories that structure this volume Animals in the Landscape of Law Politics and Public Policy Animal Intentionality Agency and Reflexive Thinking Animals as Objects in Science Food Spectacle and Sport Animals in Cultural Representations and Animals in Ecosystems Written by international scholars with backgrounds in philosophy law history English art sociology geography archaeology environmental studies cultural studies and animal advocacy the thirty chapters in this handbook investigate key issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings Methods, Moments, and Ethnographic Spaces in Asia Nayantara S. Appleton, Caroline Bennett, 2021-04-15 Asia is changing Socio political shifts in the world economy technological advances of monumental scales movements of people and ideas alongside ongoing post colonization projects across the region have created an emerging Asia one confident and assertive of its place in the contemporary geopolitical sphere As political and economic powers reassert Asian sovereignty in opposition to perceived Northern dominance and dramatic and rapid development in the region shift the relationship between the centre and the periphery new renderings and imaginations of hierarchies of identity and power come to the fore This changing environment leads to emerging challenges for anthropologists working in the region both those who have been working there for years and new scholars entering the field This volume considers these changes and the implications of this on our practice By focusing on Asia as a site of enquiry the contributors to this book discuss tensions and opportunities arising in their ethnographic fieldwork in light of a changing Asia Drawing on personal reflections on Asia s global positioning in this contemporary moment the contributors consider how fieldwork is being negotiated within the changing dynamics of anthropology in the region This book then is a discussion on the shifting landscape of field sites and the resultant emerging research methodologies and is aimed at those who are already deeply immersed in fieldwork as well as those who are seeking ways to undertake it

Liminal Moves Flavia Cangià, 2021-04-02 Moving slowing down or watching others moving allows people to cross physical symbolic and temporal boundaries Exploring the imaginative power of liminality that makes this possible Liminal Moves looks at the im mobilities of three groups of people street monkey performers in Japan adolescents writing about migrants in Italy and men accompanying their partners in Switzerland for work The book explores how for these travelers the interplay of mobility and immobility creates a liminal hotspot a condition of suspension and ambivalence as they find themselves caught between places meanings and times

Tourism and Language in Vieques Luis Galanes Valldejuli, 2017-12-06 After more than sixty years of occupation by the U S Navy and intensive community struggles the Puerto Rican island of Vieques was finally returned to civilian control in 2003 But as this book documents the Viequenses struggles were far from over after the departure of the Navy The Viequenses were left to contend with the devastating effects of sixty two years of bombing the environment and health of the population had been severely harmed Yet this was a minor issue in comparison to the effects of the newly instated tourism industry on the island Drawing from ethnographic research conducted between 2004 to 2016 Luis Galanes Valldejuli captures the larger social conflict derived from the arrival of tourists who brought change to the island in the form of land speculation work conflicts racism language barriers and neoliberalism A close observer of the Viequenses Valldejuli details the deleterious effects of tourism on the voice of the Viequenses they were no longer heard This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology tourism studies linguistics cultural geography political science and history

Transnational Frontiers of Asia and Latin America since 1800 Jaime Moreno Tejada, Bradley Tatar, 2016-08-19 Frontiers are wild The frontier is a zone of interaction between distinct polities peoples languages ecosystems and economies but how do these frontier spaces develop If the frontier is shaped by the policing of borders by the modern nation state then what kind of zones regions or cultural areas are created around borders This book provides 16 different case studies of frontiers in Asia and Latin America by interdisciplinary scholars charting the first steps toward a transnational and transcontinental history of social development in the borderlands of two continents Transnationalism provides a shared focus for the contributions drawing upon diverse theoretical perspectives to examine the place making projects of nation states Through the lenses of different scales and time frames the contributors examine the social processes of frontier life and how the frontiers have been created through the exertions of nation states to control marginal or borderland peoples The most significant cases of industrialization resource extraction and colonization projects in Asia and Latin America are examined in this book reveal the incompleteness of frontiers as modernist spatial projects but also their creativity as sources of new social patterns new human adaptations and new cultural outlooks and ways of confronting power and privilege The incompleteness of frontiers does not detract from their power to move ideas peoples and practices across borders both territorial and conceptual In bringing together Asian and Latin American cases of frontier making this book points toward a comparativist and cosmopolitan approach in the study of statecraft and modernity For scholars of Latin America and or Asia it brings together historical themes and geographic foci providing studies accessible to researchers in anthropology geography history politics cultural studies and other fields of the human sciences Nothing Without Tourism Danaé Leitenberg, 2025-10-01

For centuries locals in many Swiss Alpine villages have depended on visitors wanderlust to sustain their livelihoods Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted in a German speaking village and tourist resort between 2017 and 2023 this book explores people s everyday experience of tourism as a volatile yet vital industry where successes and failures in the past present and future intersect in puzzling ways Following native locals migrant hospitality workers from mostly Southern and Eastern Europe as well as tourism lobbyists in this globalized mountain village it examines how power imbalance among those dependent on tourism elicit different responses to the dilemmas of tourism
