Planning David L. Edgell, Maria DelMastro Allen, Ginger Smith, Jason Swanson, 2008 For many communities and countries throughout the world tourism is the most valuable industry This work addresses key ingredients for positive tourism policies and planning It examines the future of tourism policy development and presents conceptual tools to equip students and professionals to make their own contribution to it Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa Emmanuel Akwasi Adu-Ampong, Albert Nsom Kimbu, 2020-12-17 Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa offers an accessible and understandable overview of the challenges of integrating sustainability into tourism policy and planning in Sub Saharan Africa and provides some interesting recommendations on how these could be overcome Tourism is currently growing faster in Sub Saharan Africa SSA and in many other developing regions compared to the rest of the world Using case examples from different segments of the tourism sector in different country contexts this volume therefore reassesses context specific tourism policies and planning mechanisms in SSA over the years It considers how the increasing focus on sustainability is reflected in different areas of the tourism sector including food security the human capacity management service delivery local communities and heritage management climate change and the influence of colonial legacies on tourism policy planning For many SSA countries it has only been in the last two decades that the development of sustainable and achievable context specific policies and planning mechanisms has become the norm The chapters provide examples of how different dimensions of sustainability are integrated into tourism policy and practice and examine the extent to which these are shaping the present and their implications for the future sustainability of the tourism sector Sustainable Tourism Policy and Planning in Africa will be of great value to academics private and third sector employees to better understand tourism in Sub Saharan Africa Eight of the chapters were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Planning and Development These are now complimented with a new introductory chapter and a concluding chapter that sets out a future research agenda for sustainable tourism policy and planning
