Transnational Cinema Steven Rawle, 2018-01-24 This core teaching text provides a thorough overview of the recently emerged field of transnational film studies Covering a range of approaches to analysing films about migrant cross cultural and cross border experience Steven Rawle demonstrates how film production has moved beyond clear national boundaries to become a product of border crossing finance and creative personnel This comprehensive introduction brings together the key concepts and theories of transnational cinema including genre remakes diasporic and exilic cinema and the limits of thinking about cinema as a particularly national cultural artefact It is an excellent course companion for undergraduate students of film cinema media and cultural studies studying transnational and global cinema and provides both students and lovers of film alike with a strong grounding in this timely field of film studies

Stars in World Cinema Andrea Bandhauer, Michelle Royer, 2015-05-28 Deflecting the attention from Hollywood Stars in World Cinema fills an important gap in the study of film by bringing together Star Studies and World Cinema A team of international scholars here bring their expertise and in depth knowledge of world cultures and cinema to the study of stars and stardom from six continents exploring their cultures their local history and their global relevance Chapters look at the role of acting music singing painting and martial arts in the making of stars from Australia s indigenous population Austria China Egypt France Germany Greece India Iran Japan North and South Korea Nigeria the Philippines the former Soviet Union Spain North and South America Since the very beginnings of cinema actors and stars have been central to its history and have been one of the medium's defining characteristics. They have also been fundamental to the marketing of cinema and have played a major part in the reception of films in many cultures. Stars in World Cinema examines stardom and the circulation of stars across borders, analysing how local star systems or non-systems construct stardom around the world. Contributors put into practice their local knowledge of history, language and cultural systems to consider issues of hybridity, boundary crossing, the mobility of stardom and embodied spectatorship in order to further the understanding of stars in light of recent interest in reception theory. Rooted in a multidisciplinary and polycentric approach, this book throws light on unexpected connections between stars and stardoms from different parts of the world, cutting across chronology, geographies and film history. Transnational Arab Stardom

Kaya Davies Hayon, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2024-01-25 Building on the work of star studies scholars, this collection provides contextual analyses of off-screen representation as well as close textual analyses of films and star personas, thereby offering an in-depth study of the Arab star as text and context of Arab cinema. Using the tools of audience reception studies, the collection will also look at how stars of film, stage, screen and new media are viewed and received in different cultural contexts, both within and outside of the Arabic-speaking world. Arab cinema is often discussed in terms of political representation and independent art film, but rarely in terms of stardom, glamour, performance or masquerade. Aside from a few individual studies on female stardom or aspects of Arab masculinity, no major English language study on Arab stardom exists, and collections on transnational stars or world cinema also often neglect to include Arab performers. This new book seeks to address this gap by providing the first study dedicated entirely to stardom on the Arab screen. Structured chronologically and thematically, this collection highlights and explores Arab film, screen and music stars through a transnational and interdisciplinary set of contributions that draw on feminist performance and film theories, media studies, sound studies, material culture, queer star and celebrity studies, and social media studies. Stardom in Contemporary Hindi Cinema

Aysha Iqbal Viswamohan, Clare M. Wilkinson, 2020-01-03 In this book, film scholars, anthropologists and critics discuss star-making in the contemporary Hindi language film industry in India, also known as Bollywood. Drawing on theories of stardom, globalization, transnationalism, gender and new media studies, the chapters explore contemporary Hindi film celebrity. With the rise of social media and India's increased engagement in the global economy, Hindi film stars are forging their identities not just through their on-screen images and magazine and advertising appearances, but also through an array of media platforms, product endorsements, setting fashion trends and involvement in social causes. Focusing on some of the best-known Indian stars since the late 1990s, the book discusses the multiplying avenues for forging a star identity, the strategies industry outsiders adopt to become stars and the contradictions and conflicts that such star-making produces. It addresses questions such as: What traits of contemporary stars have contributed most to longevity and success in the industry? How has filmmaking technology and practice altered the nature of stardom? How has the manufacture of celebrity altered with the recent appearance of commodity culture in India and the rise of a hyper connected global economy By doing so it describes a distinct moment in India and in the world in which stars and stardom are drawn more closely than ever into the vital events of global culture Hindi films and their stars are part of the national and global entertainment circuits that are bigger and more competitive than ever As such this is a timely book creates opportunities for examining stardom in other industries and provides fruitful cross cultural perspectives on star identities today Grounded in rigorous scholarship as well as a palpable love of Hindi cinema this collection of 19 essays on a dizzying array of contemporary Hindi film stars makes for an informative thought provoking illuminating and most of all a joyful read Pushing boundaries of not only global Star Studies but also film theory as a whole this de colonised and de colonising volume is a must read for film scholars students and cinephiles Dr Sunny Singh Senior Lecturer Creative Writing and English Literature Sir John Cass School of Art Architecture Design London Metropolitan University A wide ranging overview of Hindi cinema s filmi firmament today focussing on its most intriguing and brightest burning stars The variety of approaches to stardom and celebrity by both established and upcoming scholars reveals a web of interconnecting stories and concerns that provide fascinating new insights into the workings of today s Hindi film industry while shining fresh light on contemporary India and the world we live in Professor Rosie Thomas Centre for Research and Education in Arts and Media CREAM College of Design Creative and Digital Industries University of Westminster
