Janus at the Millennium Thomas F. Shannon, Johan P. Snapper, 2004-05-26 This volume contains a selection of articles originally presented at the Tenth Interdisciplinary Conference on Netherlandic Studies These revised contributions relating to the common theme of Janus and the perspective of time examine Dutch language and culture from the U S Belgium and the Netherlands

Syntax of Dutch Hans Broekhuis, Norbert Corver, 2025-10-01 The Syntax of Dutch aims at presenting a synthesis of the currently available syntactic knowledge of Dutch It is primarily concerned with language description and not with linguistic theory and provides support to all researchers interested in matters relating to the syntax of Dutch including advanced students of language and linguistics Syntax of Dutch Verbs and Verb Phrases consists of three volumes Volume 1 opens with a general introduction to verbs including a review of various verb classifications and discussions on inflection tense mood modality and aspect This is followed by a comprehensive discussion of complementation argument structure and verb frame alternations Volume 2 continues the discussion of complementation but is more specifically focused on clausal complements the reader will find detailed discussions of finite and infinitival argument clauses complex verb constructions and verb clustering Volume 3 concludes with a description of adverbial modification and the overall structure of clauses in relation to e g word order verb placement wh movement extraposition phenomena scrambling etc

Genetic Narratology Dirk Van Hulle, 2024-12-17 Genetic Narratology is the first full length volume to merge genetic criticism with narratology offering an innovative approach to understanding literature By examining the creative process behind literary works through drafts manuscripts and revisions this book reveals how narratives are shaped in real time Through diverse case studies from Charlotte Bront to Stephen King this collection demonstrates how the material processes of writing influence narrative structure pacing and even the untold By integrating genetic criticism with narratological methods contributors explore how stories evolve providing fresh insights into time space character and suspense Bridging the gap between the production and reception of texts this volume makes a compelling case for incorporating genetic methods into broader narratological frameworks enhancing not only our understanding of the genesis of literary works ultimately enriching the reading experience but also our awareness of the ways we narrativise this genesis The book will be of interest to students and researchers alike offering a new set of tools for analysing narrative across different versions

World Literature, World Culture Karen-Margrethe Simonsen, Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen, 2008-12-31 In a global age where people goods and cultural products transcend the boundaries of geography and temporality as never before it is only natural that literary and cultural studies turn their attention to Goethe s nineteenth century notion of a Weltliteratur Offering their own Twenty First Century perspectives across generations nationalities and disciplines the contributors to this anthology explore the idea of world literatue for what it may add of new connections and itineraries to the study of literature and culture today Covering a vast historical material from witness accounts of the fall of Constantinople to Hari Kunzru s contemporary representations of multicultural London these essays by a diverse group of scholars examine the pioneers of world literature Juan Andres Morell Goethe and Hugo Meltzl and the roles played by translation migration and literature institutions in the circulation and reception of both national and cosmopolitan literatures They illustrate how literary analysis can be enriched by attention to the border crossing itineraries followed by migrants writers publishers translators and texts thereby yielding new discoveries about writers and artists such as Catullus Manuel Vicent Jean Luc Godard Dubravka Ugresic Derek Walcott Cabral do Nascimento Thomas Pynchon Asger Jorn and Louis Paul Boon Chess Results, 1975-1977 Gino Di Felice, 2014-09-24

This continuation of a series of comprehensive chronological reference works lists the results of men s chess competitions all over the world individual and team matches The present volume covers 1975 through 1977 Entries record location and when available the group that sponsored the event First and last names of players are included whenever possible and are standardized for easy reference Compiled from contemporary sources such as newspapers periodicals tournament records and match books this work contains 872 tournament cross tables and 147 match scores and is indexed by events and by players Batavia Hendrik Conscience, 1885 The Reception of James Joyce in Europe Geert Lernout, Wim Van Mierlo, 2009-07-22 A major scholarly collection of international research on the reception of James Joyce in Europe

Routledge Intensive Dutch Course Gerdi Quist, Christine Sas, Dennis Strik, 2015-06-03 This intensive foundation course in Dutch is designed for those with no previous knowledge of the language It is lively and fast paced providing students with a wide range of activities and drawing on an impressive selection of source material from many different media Audio materials are presented on accompanying CDs to be purchased separately Taking students from beginner to intermediate level in one year the Routledge Intensive Dutch Course develops a thorough working knowledge of the structures of Dutch and practises the four key skills of language learning reading writing speaking and listening Guidance for tutors as well as links to related sites is available on the Routledge website The Low Countries Jozef Deleu, 1997 Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer Petra Broomans, Mathijs Sanders, Jeanette den Toonder, Elise Bijl, 2022-02-05 Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer addresses the multilevel nature of literary and translation prizes with the aim of expanding our knowledge about them as an international and transnational phenomenon The contributions to this book analyse the social institutional and ideological functions of such prizes This volume not only looks at famous prizes and celebrities but also lesser known prizes in more peripheral language areas and regions with a special focus on cultural transmitters and their networks which play a decisive role in the award industry Cultural transfer and translations are at the heart of this book and this approach adds a new dimension to the study of literary and translation prizes The contributions reveal the diverse ways in which a cultural transfer approach enhances the study of literary prizes presenting the state of the art regarding recent developments in the field Articles with a broader scope discuss definitions concepts and methods while other contributions deal with specific case studies A variety of theoretical and methodological approaches are explored applying field theory network analysis comparative literature and cultural transfer studies By providing multiple perspectives on the literary prize this volume aims to contribute to our knowledge and understanding of this intriguing phenomenon The Practice of Theory Keith Moxey, 2018-07-05 Many art historians regard poststructuralist theory with suspicion some even see its focus on the political dimension of language as hostile to an authentic study of the past Keith Moxey bridges the gap between historical and theoretical approaches with the provocative argument that we cannot have one without the other If art history is to take part in the processes of cultural transformation that characterize our society he writes then its historical narratives must come to terms with the most powerful and influential theories that currently determine the way in which we conceive of ourselves After exploring how the insights offered by deconstruction and semiotics change our understanding of representation ideology and authorship Moxey himself puts theory into practice In a series of engaging essays accompanied by twenty eight illustrations he first examines the impact of cultural values on Erwin Panofsky's writings Taking a fresh look at work by artists from Albrecht Dürer and Erhard Schön to Barbara Kruger and Julian Schnabel he then examines the process by which the generic boundaries between high and low art have helped to sustain class and gender differences Making particular reference to the literature on Martin Schongauer Moxey also considers the value of art history when it is reduced to artist's biography Moxey's interpretation of the work of Hieronymus Bosch not only reassesses its intelligence and imagination but also brings to light its pragmatic conformity to elite definitions of artistic genius With his compelling analysis of the politics of interpretation Moxey draws attention to a vital aspect of the cultural importance of history World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Peter Nagy, Phillippe Rouyer, Don Rubin, 2013-09-13 This new paperback edition of the The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Europe covers theatre since World War II in forty seven European nations including the nations which re-emerged following the break up of the former USSR Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia Each national article is divided into twelve sections History Structure of the National Theatre Community Artistic profile Music Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Puppet Theatre Design Theatre Space and Architecture Training Criticism Scholarship and Publishing and Further Reading allowing the reader to use the book as a source for both area and subject studies A new preface and further reading sections by the Series Editor brings the Encyclopedia bang up to date making it invaluable to anyone interested in European theatre as well as students and scholars of performance studies history anthropology and cultural studies McLiteratuur Bas Groes, 2004 Politici gaan in discussies over globaliseren vaak uit van bestaande denkpatronen en een overzichtelijke wereld die niet meer bestaat Dat geldt niet voor de schrijvers die in dit boek aan het woord komen Zij werpen met hun verbeeldingskracht een andere blik op de ingewikkelde problematiek Bas Groes zet de argumenten voor en tegen globalisering tegenover elkaar en probeert de tegenstrijdigheden te duiden National Union Catalog, 1981 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Low Countries Stichting Ons Erfdeel, 2001 Gedichten Hugues C. Pernath, 2005 Verzameld werk van de Vlaamse dichter 1931-1975 met biografisch nawoord International

Postmodernism Hans Bertens, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

A Literary History of the Low Countries Theo Hermans, 2009 What was the written culture behind visual artists like Vermeer Rembrandt and Rubens What made the historical novel in nineteenth century Flanders so different from its counterpart in Holland What was the literary impact of the huge colonial empires run by the Netherlands and Belgium What role did Latin French and Frisian play in the literary culture of the Low Countries through the ages Why is experimental writing so prevalent in modern Dutch literature What has made Cees Nooteboom an internationally acclaimed author And how does Flemish relate to Dutch anyway This first literary history of the Netherlands and Flanders in English since the 1970s answers these and many other questions Written by a team of Dutch and Flemish subject specialists it offers a comprehensive and authoritative account of the literature of the Dutch speaking area from the medieval period up to the present day While it focuses on literature written in Dutch it also assesses the significance of writings in French Latin and Frisian

Visual Culture Norman Bryson, Michael Ann Holly, Keith Moxey, 1994-05 Explores new critical approaches to a history of representation seen as something different from a history of art
