Wandering In The Wilderness Changes And Challenges To Emerging Adults Christian Faith:

Wandering in the Wilderness Brian Simmons, 2011-06-14 One of today's hot topics is the faith of emerging adults the 18-30 age group. This book surveys the current research on emerging adulthood, describes the common changes emerging adults experience in their Christian faith as they move through their twenties, and discusses how emerging adults and their parents can successfully navigate those changes. In 2000, psychologist Jeffrey Arnett posited a new life stage, emerging adulthood, to describe the 18-30 age group. This age group was marked by a growing chasm between adolescence and the completion of traditional adult milestones. A number of scholarly studies of this age group have been done in the last decade. This book surveys that research and offers an overview of how emerging adults view Christian faith. It explains how emerging adults reject or modify several of the Christian faith's most common tenets and assumptions. And it offers guidance to parents, grandparents, ministers, and anyone who seeks to better understand the perplexing changes often seen in emerging adults' religious faith and practice. In addition to presenting in reader-friendly form the conclusions of recent research on this age group, Wandering in the Wilderness weaves in the reflections of real-life emerging adults who responded to the author's request to share their own experiences of Christian faith. These provide powerful, poignant glimpses into the topic.

Defiant Hope, Active Love Jeffrey F. Keuss, 2024-07-30 Cutting-edge social science research into what young adults want out of a faith community. Purpose and meaning, healing and growth, community and fellowship—these values have traditionally been found in church. Though young adults are leaving the pews in droves, they are still seeking these spiritual benefits. How can churches entice them to return? Jeffrey F. Keuss thinks that's the wrong question to ask. Instead, his multigenerational team of scholars investigated how faith communities can make themselves more hospitable to the next generation of Christians. Backed by five years of qualitative and quantitative research, the Pivot NW research team offers practical recommendations for involving young adults in the community, including loosening demands for church membership, involving young adults in leadership, and addressing the economic difficulties of millennials. Understanding religious trauma, Defiant Hope, Active Love encourages church leaders to let go of nostalgia for old ecclesiological norms and embrace something new, inclusive, and authentic. With thorough research and incisive analysis, this groundbreaking book contains a wealth of resources to promote the health of faith communities.

Home Together Thomas Bergen, 2020-08-13 Emerging adults today feel homeless and alone. How can the church share the good news of a God who offers home and togetherness? Home Together gives a compelling account of a Christian student residence that has shared this good news by engaging emerging adults in a community of discipleship and belonging. For over thirty years, the Menno Simons Centre in Vancouver, British Columbia, has supported university students and helped them to grow together in their faith. Using the metaphor of home to describe this community, Thomas Bergen outlines a practical theology of ministry among emerging adults as a shared home construction project. He explores six aspects of the Menno Simons Centre as home, spiritual, supportive.

sabbatical safe spurring and sending combining theological reflection cultural analysis personal testimonies and practical wisdom Set against the backdrop of postmodern challenges Home Together offers an inspiring model of ministry among university students that might well be adapted for other contexts

Spiritual Formation in Emerging Adulthood David P. Setran, Chris A. Kiesling, 2013-08-15 The shift from adolescence to adulthood a recently identified stage of life called emerging adulthood covers an increasing span of years in today's culture roughly ages 18-30 due to later marriages and extended education During this prolonged stage of exploration and self definition many young adults drift away from the church Here two authors both veteran teachers who are experienced in young adult and campus ministry address this new and urgent field of study offering a Christian perspective on what it means to be spiritually formed into adulthood They provide a practical theology for emerging adult ministry and offer insight into the key developmental issues of this stage of life including identity intimacy and sexuality morality church involvement spiritual formation vocation and mentoring The book bridges the gap between academic and popular literature on emerging adulthood and offers concrete ways to facilitate spiritual formation among emerging adults

InterGenerate Holly Catterton Allen, 2018-07-10 Leaders in Christian communities are all asking the same question How can we bring the generations back together InterGenerate addresses important questions of why we should bring the generations back together but even more significantly how we can bring generations back together In this edited collection ministers church leaders and Christian educators will find valuable new generational theory perspectives fresh biblical and theological insights and practical outcomes backed by current research InterGenerate offers important guidance on topics including intergenerational spiritual disciplines transitioning from multigenerational to intergenerational new research that focuses directly on intergenerational ministry and offers practical outcomes to implement and benefits of intergenerational ministry for the most marginalized generations An exciting and distinctive aspect of InterGenerate is the vast diversity of voice men and women ranging in age from millennials to baby boomers representing multiple countries and over a dozen denominations all seeking ways to become more intentionally intergenerational in their outlook and practice
