Shalbafan, Samer El Hayek , Renato de Filippis, 2024-06-21 The COVID 19 outbreak has impacted many areas of our lives including mental health Lockdown and physical distancing measures have been one major effective intervention to counter the spread of the virus and reduce the impact of the disease However they have negatively impacted mental well being and behaviors either triggering the onset of new psychiatric symptoms and diseases or amplifying pre existing ones The pandemic and lockdown measures have also been associated with reduced access to treatment and facilities all over the world further worsening mental health outcomes The impact on mental health although universal varied between nations Cultural and societal variables including norms values religion and stigma have played an important role in shaping COVID 19 related mental health symptoms including anxiety depression grief psychosis and addiction These sociocultural factors have also molded how mental health interventions are tailored and provided Highlighting the intertwining relationship between the pandemic mental health and sociocultural factors are essential to managing emerging mental health symptoms adequately

Sub-Saharan Political Cultures of Deceit in Language, Literature, and the Media, Volume II Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2023-12-12 This two volume set charts a cross disciplinary discursive terrain that proffers rich insights about deceit in contemporary postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics In an attempt to produce a nuanced and multifaceted academic dialoguing platform the two volumes have a particular focus on the aspects of treachery fear of difference oppositional politics and discourses semiotics of mis self representation The major aim of the proposed volumes is to contribute toward the often problematised conversations about the unfolding post colonial Sub Saharan world which is topical in decolonial and Pan African studies The volumes seek to place political thinking and postcolonial political systems under the scholarly gaze with the view to highlight and enhance the participation of African cross disciplinary scholarship in the postcolonial political processes of the continent Most significantly it is through such probing of the limitations of our own disciplinary perspectives which can help us appreciate the complexity of the postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly

Women, Rocks, and Professors: The Memories of a University Professor John J.W. Rogers, 2011-10-24 This autobiography covers the life of a university Professor of Geology It describes his education and his career at Rice University and the University of North Carolina During his career he travelled to do geologic work in all continents except Antarctica The book also discusses his heavy involvement in the education of women both at the undergraduate and graduate level following his introduction to the education of women during the late 1960s when he was in charge of a women s residential college at Rice university Many episodes on campus and during travel were both strange and hilarious The book emphasizes the humor in the author s life by describing these episodes both from the author s viewpoint and the perspective of other people involved term in the debate on sustainable development in the last few years This radical book focuses on a world where the waste for one process can become the raw material for another a cascade of materials once thought worthless supporting new products new processes and new wealth as industries that were previously considered unrelated cluster together A world where new business will be created on an unprecedented scale This is not just a theory projects in the agro industries based on integrated biosystems are already up and running in countries as diverse as Fiji Namibia and Colombia and are fully described in the book as is the lead given by Japan in terms of the adoption of the concept In UpSizing Gunter Pauli founder of the Zero Emissions Research Initiative ZERI examines how the adoption of the Zero Emissions concept not only radically reduces pollution and waste but can contribute significantly to the generation of income and jobs specifically for those that need them most the rural poor in less developed countries
