Western Conceptions of the Individual Brian Morris,2024-11-01 This is a comprehensive study of the varying conceptions of the human subject in the Western intellectual tradition Although informed by an anthropological perspective the author draws on material from all the major intellectual disciplines that have contributed to this tradition and offers biographical and theoretical vignettes of all the major Western scholars By scrutinizing the classical texts of the Western tradition he succeeds in delineating the differing conceptions of the human individual which emerge from these writings and gives a guide to the most important ideas in Western cultural traditions

How to Find a Black Cat in a Dark Room Jacob Burak,2017-10-17 An inquiry into what it is about our experiences and cultures that brings out the differences and reveals the similarities in us as human beings in the vein of Malcolm Gladwell and Daniel Kahneman Jacob Burak is on a quest to answer the question are we as human beings who are separated by different cultures and experiences similar or different Through the lens of behavioural studies we see how while our approaches differ and often conflict we all strive for similar things love acceptance power and understanding How to Find a Black Cat in a Dark Room offers the latest scientific studies of human behaviour alongside accessible anecdotes to examine the universal human experiences of comparing ourselves to others the need to belong the urge to achieve and the anxiety and uncertainty of life itself More importantly Burak shows us how in understanding these behavioural patterns we learn that we are actually more alike than we are different that our rivals often make us stronger and that being trusting can help us live longer With his inquisitive nature logical thinking and engaging style Burak examines whether it is destiny or personality that controls our lives through intriguing subjects such as What are the ten rules for happiness that are entirely under our control Why do smart people make stupid mistakes What distinguishes bureaucrats and entrepreneurs What are the psychological differences between liberals and conservatives In what circumstances is it right to surrender our privacy Does it pay to trust people

Literature, Psychoanalysis and the New Sciences of Mind Leonard Jackson, 2014-09-11 At a time when psychoanalysis is attacked by biologists psychologists and literary critics alike this book offers a radical defence Literature Psychoanalysis and the New Sciences of Mind gives a clear introduction to the theories of Freud and Jung the strange linguistic rewriting of Freud by Jacques Lacan It explores the extraordinary variety of ways in which these writings have been applied to literature and literary theory But for the first time they are put in the context of recent biological theories of mind and sexuality

Acorns: Windows High-Tide Foghat Joshua Morris, 2013-01-23 Acorns delineates the future of humanity as a reunification of intellect with the Deep Self Having chosen to focus upon ego established securely by the time of Christ much more beta brain wave development will destroy our species and others which process has already begun We create our own realities through beliefs intents and desires and we were in and out of probabilities constantly Feelings follow beliefs not the other way around

On the Spirit and the Self Jennifer Swan , 2019-05-30 On the Spirit and the Self The Religious Art of Marc Chagall compliments and extends the scholarship surrounding Chagall s place in the History of 20th Century Art as a Religious artist Central to this study is the psychic process of individuation and the ways in which images appear to depict the deeper changes in our collective human existence A new perspective on Chagall s creative output is presented through the application of Jungian theory Jung identifies a separation between the cultural and historical underpinnings of natal faith or creed and the presence of an internal personal spirituality or religious attitude This theoretical approach helps to define Chagall s creative connection to his own natal Hasidic faith whilst clarifying the interiority of his religious experiences on a universal level That creative development may be explored through the visual patterns of sacred transformative imagery is a new approach in Chagallian scholarship elevating two key concepts the Chagallian sacred secular binary and the Chagallian temenos sites Primary source materials reflecting the Artist s voice are illuminated by more than seventy colour reproductions to support the perspective that like Jung Chagall was among the most prolific and significant religious communicators of the 20th Century
