Dowell, 2011 In this book the many challenges of Borderline Personality Disorder BPD are explored through the stories of a fictional married couple Although they are products of author Marilyn Dowell s mind their behavior is based on careful research In each chapter some facet of BPD is acted out in an informative way for those who have little experience with the disorder Beyond showing the typical features of BPD Compassion for Annie offers insights for responding to the sufferer in a compassionate manner In addition to the dialogues Dowell includes an analysis of the interaction a prayer specific to the chapter topic and a list of suggested readings Dowell wrote this book as a means of understanding a loved one with the disorder while helping others Compassion for Annie is intended for those with the disorder and those who love them Searching for Words: How Can We Tell Our Stories of Suicide , 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 It is all too easy to begin the introduction of a book examining suicide by citing statistics on rates of death around the world The vast majority of research seeks to make sense of suicide through quantitative analysis however this does not begin to do justice to the lived experience While we do not wish to suggest there is one right lens through which to study suicide we must recognize that there are myriad lenses through which to examine it There are many voices many stories that must be heeded and these stories are not just of the people who have themselves died by suicide but also those who are or have been suicidal and those who have been bereaved by suicide By examining cultural perspectives different media memory and place as well as loss this book aims to tell stories of suicide and working and living with the suicidal The Publishers Weekly , 2008 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books
