James Duff Brown

What Is A Book The Study Of Early Printed Books:

What is a Book? Joseph A. Dane, 2012 Among other issues Dane addresses such basic questions as How do students bibliographers and collectors discuss these things And when is it legitimate to generalize on the basis of particular examples Dane considers each issue in terms of a practical example or question a reader might confront How do you identify books on the basis of typography What is the status of paper evidence How are the various elements on the page defined What are the implications of the images available in an online database And significantly how does a scholar's personal experience with books challenge or conform to the standard language of book history and bibliography Dane's accessible and lively tour of the field is a useful guide for all students of book history from the beginner to the specialist Written with wit and acuity Joseph A. Dane's What Is a Book extends his project of teaching aspects of book history to the specialist and nonspecialist reader alike
