95 Theses for a New Reformation Aaron Hebbard, 2017-10-09 Five hundred years ago Martin Luther wrote his Ninety Five Theses inaugurating the Protestant Reformation and with it exemplified an unflinching devotion to return to the Word of God as the ultimate authority Today the church is also in desperate need for reformation a new reformation to correct her shortcomings and meet the challenges of the day Some might see everything as fine some might see everything as hopeless and others might simply dismiss the church as irrelevant too impotent to reform herself much less to strengthen the disintegrating family or address the downward spiraling culture with a prophetic voice 95 Theses for a New Reformation confronts the necessity for reformation today head on Over thirty of today s pastors theologians and church leaders analyze ninety five current problems search the Scriptures for solutions and make sound biblical appropriations to implement into the life of the church family and culture On this 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation let us pray that the Lord will again revive his church for his own glory and for the purification of Christ s beloved bride the church And let us prepare ourselves to respond with urgency to God's call to action by reforming the church family and culture Contributors John Frame John MacArthur R C Sproul Peter J Leithart and James White The Westminster Confession of Faith, a Study Guide Rowland S. Ward, 2004 The Creedal Imperative Carl R. Trueman, 2012 What if No creed but the Bible is unbiblical The role of confessions and creeds is the subject of debate within evangelicalism today as many resonate with the call to return to Christianity's ancient roots Advocating for a balanced perspective Carl Trueman offers an analysis of why creeds and confessions are necessary how they have developed over time and how they can function in the church of today and tomorrow A Study of the Ten Articles of Faith of the Presbyterian Church of India Rosiamliana Tochwawng, 2007 Study conducted in Mizoram India Presbyterian Survey, 1978 Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today Orthodox Presbyterian Church, 1936-1986 Charles G. Dennison, 1986 Grounded in the Gospel J. I. Packer, Gary A. Parrett, 2010-04-01 Historically the church's ministry of grounding new believers in the essentials of the faith has been known as catechesis systematic instruction in faith foundations including what we believe how we pray and worship and how we conduct our lives For most evangelicals today however this very idea is an alien concept Packer and Parrett concerned for the state of the church seek to inspire a much needed evangelical course correction This new book makes the case for a recovery of significant catechesis as a nonnegotiable practice of churches showing the practice to be complementary to and of no less value than Bible study expository preaching and other formational ministries and urging evangelical churches to find room for this biblical ministry for the sake of their spiritual health and vitality The Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada Presbyterian Church in Canada. General Assembly, 2005 A Tidy Faith Jonathan F. Bayes, 2024-09-13 A Tidy Faith is distinctive as a work of systematic theology in that it comes out of a Reformed Baptist stable this is especially relevant for the sections on the church worship and the sacraments Bayes seeks to lay the biblical foundation for each doctrinal subject using an exegetical approach rather than merely citing proof texts For each doctrine he also outlines the teaching of the early Christian creeds and the confessions of faith dating from the Reformation period as well as referring to a small selection of modern statements of faith from different countries Debates and interpretations of the various doctrines from different points in church history are summarized and at the end of the exposition of every doctrinal theme there is a section that emphasizes its practical application This ensures that the book is not merely abstract and academic but has real down to earth value for Christian life and ministry The Living Church ,1957 The Presbyterian Journal George Aiken Taylor,1977 The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review ,1925 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 The History and Theology of Calvinism Curt Daniel,2003 Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.
