Mother Earth, Mother Africa and Mission Seblewengel Daniel, Mmapula Diana Kebaneilwe, Angeline Savala, 2021-07-01 The volume is significant in bringing together voices of African women theologians and their allies on the urgent topic of ecology First it decisively intervenes into scholarly discourses on ecofeminism by highlighting the reflections of African women scholars and African women as subjects This function of the volume is very important both at local and global levels Second it contributes to contextualizing of scriptural interpretation around the issue of ecology Biblical reflection occurs throughout the volume and is put into dialogue with African traditions with ecofeminism with Africa based mission projects and with the current crisis of sustainability and African women s roles in protecting the earth Third the volume includes several concrete case studies based on interviews and grassroots qualitative research as well as especially original articles that integrate biblical exegesis of Genesis with reflections on patriarchal legal systems in Botswana and an original take on male headship in relation to ecofeminism Professor Dana L Robert Boston University USA New Dawn for African Women Michael Muonwe, 2016-12-13

The need for renegotiation of the place and role of women in the family the Church and the society cannot be any more urgent than now especially as people are more aware of the devastating effects of the evils of inequality discrimination and oppression It is a pity that the excellent qualities of bravery industry resilience and perseverance historically attributed to African women with which they negotiated for better place in the family the Church and the society have been manipulated to serve as instruments for their denigration The problem is that the patriarchal articulations of gender relations from the western world that entered Africa through colonialism Christianity western education and globalization allied themselves with the macho elements in African culture and institutionalized the oppression of women a move that women have always resisted both overtly and covertly But how long could they hang on This book provides exceptional and critical assessment of these issues especially from the perspective of the Igbo society of Nigeria Apart from assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the efforts made by women themselves to surmount these challenges it also explores how the autochthonous values of the traditional culture could integrate with Christian values to enthrone gender equality in the society Fr Muonwe demonstrated in this present publication his pastoral zeal for justice especially on the predicaments of women in African nay Igbo society He regrets as it were that the African Igbo traditional society is still far from realizing the Christian gospel ideal of dignity and equality of human person because of the obvious environment that is strictly androcentric and carefully crafted in patriarchal hegemony I thank Fr Muonwe for this timely publication especially for many Igbo Christian communities today experiencing crisis in several aspects of our culture I hope the Bishops the Priests the Religious and Laity will find in this present work a rare and indispensable treasure for solutions to our pastoral predicaments Rev Fr Prof Anthony B C Chiegboka

New Dawn for African Women is encyclopaedic in content and daunting in its wealth of documentation It is a well written book The contents covered much more than Igbo women or gender issues It addressed such other issues as Igbo cosmology Igbo concept of life and death the history of Christianity in Igboland and Igbo social anthropology among others It is a book which every Nigerian especially the Igbo should read The book is inspirational and provocative in the extreme it is original and displays learning lightly carried One cannot but return to it over and over again after the first reading I very strongly recommend it to the Nigerian and African reading public C Ego Uzoezie Ph D The Bible and Gender Troubles in Africa Joachim Kügler, Rosinah Gabaitse, Johanna Stiebert, 2019-06-25 Publisher's description Quickly changing concepts on gender roles are a pivotal issue in after colonial African societies Many women and men are calling for a radical change as they feel traditional gender concepts as being oppressive inhuman and un-Christian Gender equality gender fairness is on their agenda On the other hand for many men and women these societal changes are painful gender troubles and seem to be dangerous for gender based identity threatening traditional African values Volume 22 of the BiAS series deals with this central topic by asking what gender troubles have to do with the Bible Are biblical texts an obstacle for women's liberation Is the Bible a divine guaranty for male supremacy or rather an advocate for gender equality What are redemptive masculinities and how do they relate to a new truly Christian understanding of the role of women in church society and state Scholars from different disciplines and several countries are dealing with these urgent questions to help scholars students pastors politicians and members of Christian churches to find a way to more gender fairness and gender joy Bulletin for Contextual Theology in Southern Africa & Africa, 1997 Inculturation in the South African Context, 2000
