Contemplating God with the Great Tradition Craig A. Carter,2021-04-20 Southwestern Journal of Theology 2021 Book of the Year Award Theological Studies 2021 Book Award The Gospel Coalition Honorable Mention Academic Theology Following his well received Interpreting Scripture with the Great Tradition Craig Carter presents the biblical and theological foundations of trinitarian classical theism Carter a leading Christian theologian known for his provocative defenses of classical approaches to doctrine critiques the recent trend toward modifying or rejecting classical theism in favor of modern relational understandings of God The book includes a short history of trinitarian theology from its patristic origins to the modern period and a concluding appendix provides a brief summary of classical trinitarian theology Foreword by Carl R Trueman The Truth Within Gavin Flood,2013-10-25 The idea that there is a truth within the person linked to the discovery of a deeper more fundamental more authentic self has been a common theme in many religions throughout history and an idea that is still with us today This inwardness or interiority unique to me as an essential feature of who I am has been an aspect of culture and even a defining characteristic of human being an authentic private sphere to which we can retreat that is beyond the conflicts of the outer world This inner world becomes more real than the outer which is seen as but a pale reflection Remarkably the image of the truth within is found across cultures and this book presents an account of this idea in the pre modern history of Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism Furthermore in theistic religions Christianity and some forms of Hinduism the truth within is conflated with the idea of God within and in all cases this inner truth is thought to be not only the heart of the person but also the heart of the universe itself Gavin Flood examines the metaphor of inwardness and the idea of truth within along with the methods developed in religions to attain it such as prayer and meditation These views of inwardness that link the self to cosmology can be contrasted with a modern understanding of the person In examining the truth within in Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism Flood offers a hermeneutical phenomenology of inwardness and a defence of comparative religion Traditional Japanese Theater Karen Brazell,1998 Introduces the genres of noh kyogen kabuki and bunraku puppet theater and offers translations of thirty of the best known plays with background information on their history characters staging and significance Homosexuality, Transsexuality, Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism Alan Slomowitz,Alison Feit,2019-03-04 Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism explores the often incommensurable and irreconcilable beliefs and understandings of sexuality and gender in the Orthodox Jewish community from psychoanalytic rabbinic feminist and queer perspectives The book explores how seemingly irreconcilable differences might be resolved The book is divided into two separate but related sections The first highlights

the divide between the psychoanalytic academic and traditional Orthodox Jewish perspectives on sexual identity and orientation and the acute psychic and social challenges faced by gay and lesbian members of the Orthodox Jewish world The contributors ask us to engage with them in a dialogue that allows for authentic conversation The second section focuses on gender identity especially as experienced by the Orthodox transgender members of the community It also highlights the divide between theories that see gender as fluid and traditional Judaism that sees gender as strictly binary The contributors write about their views and experiences from both sides of the divide They ask us to engage in true authentic dialogue about these complex and crucial emotional and religious challenges Homosexuality Transsexuality Psychoanalysis and Traditional Judaism will be of great interest to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as members and leaders of Jewish communities working with LGBTQ issues

Tradition vs. Traditionalism Avi Sagi, 2008-01-01 This book is a first attempt to examine the thought of key contemporary Jewish thinkers on the meaning of tradition in the context of two models The classic model assumes that tradition reflects lack of dynamism and reflectiveness and the present's unqualified submission to the past This view however is an image that the modernist ethos has ascribed to the tradition so as to remove it from modern existence In the alternative model a living tradition emerges as open and dynamic developing through an ongoing dialogue between present and past The Jewish philosophers discussed in this work Joseph B Soloveitchik Yeshayahu Leibowitz David Hartman and Eliezer Goldman ascribe compelling canonic status to the tradition and the analysis of their thought discloses the tension between these two models The book carefully traces the course they have plotted along the various interpretations of tradition through their approach to Scripture and to Halakhah
