Healing your family history Rebecca Linder Hintze, 2007 This fascinating book by Rebecca Linder Hintze powerfully and effectively communicates a key and sometimes overlooked piece of the puzzle relating to family dynamics For example have you ever wondered why some families reach a ceiling on their earning potential struggle to have happy marriages or have such difficult interactions with their siblings and parents Perhaps your family has a history of sabotaging careers or thwarting their love relationships Healing Your Family History explains that most of our individual issues originate from family blocks As you read this book you'll come to understand how family belief systems store inside you and prevent individual growth by locking you into thought processes that hold you back All families have these nonverbal belief systems and unless you understand and heal your inherent blocks it may be difficult to love others move forward and get what you want in life Most people have a family and we all have a reason to heal our related challenges after all tribal issues sit at the core of world turmoil Those who are truly ready to heal their family dysfunction will benefit immensely from this book

Healing Your Family Patterns David Furlong, 1997 International healer David Furlong explains the relevance of our ancestors to the healing process He shows how the character and experiences of our parents grandparents and great grandparents shape our lives in all sorts of subtle ways and stresses the importance of healing the patterns from past generations which continue to affect us today By learning to connect with these energies from the past we can free up and balance their impact on our lives and on future generations You will discover scientific findings in the studies of genetics which show that a far greater range of psychological traits are passed down through the generations than was previously acknowledged how to set up a family tree research your family history and draw up a genogram a variety of exercises and healing techniques to clear and heal family patterns rituals of forgiveness and letting go

Breaking the Cycle of Hurtful Family Relationships Robert McGee, 2015-08-25. We learn much about life from our primary relationships, especially our parents who are imperfect. When we were young, they modeled beliefs and behaviors they learned from their parents who were also imperfect. Unfortunately, this cycle goes on and on, damaging one generation after the other. Most of us have learned erroneous ideas about life, about who we are, about who others are, and about who God is. As a result, our lives and our relationships have suffered. Even worse, since this is all we knew, we continue this faulty imprinting, damaging future generations without knowing that is what we are doing. Breaking the Cycle of Hurtful Family Experiences helps identify these harmful patterns. Using it will also help you develop healthy relationships with others. Breaking the Cycle of Hurtful Family Experiences helps you learn how God, speaking through His Word, reshapes false perceptions. By understanding who God really is, you will experience His love, forgiveness, and power in all of the circumstances of your life. Robert S. McGee is a professional counselor, lecturer, and author of the book The Search For Significance. He also is founder and president of Rapha, a nationally recognized health care organization that provided in-hospital psychiatric and substance abuse treatment from a Christian perspective in hospitals and treatment centers across the United States. Pat Springle is president of Baxter Press. He is former senior vice president for Rapha Resources and served on the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ for 18 years. Jim Craddock is the founder and president of Scope Ministries International, a biblical counseling ministry which seeks to meet the spiritual and emotional needs of persons by helping them apply principles from the Bible. Dale McCleskey has served as LIFE Support Group Series editor at the Baptist Sunday School Board, has been a pastor in New Mexico, and has led and participated in support groups for many years.
