Young Sikhs in a Global World Knut A. Jacobsen, Kristina Myrvold, 2016-03-09 In attempting to carve out a place for themselves in local and global contexts young Sikhs mobilize efforts to construct choose and emphasize different aspects of religious and cultural identification depending on their social setting and context Young Sikhs in a Global World presents current research on young Sikhs with multicultural and transnational life styles and considers how they interpret shape and negotiate religious identities traditions and authority on an individual and collective level With a particular focus on the experiences of second generation Sikhs as they interact with various people in different social fields and cultural contexts the book is constructed around three parts family and home public display and gender and reflexivity and translations New scholarly voices and established academics present qualitative research and ethnographic fieldwork and analyse how young Sikhs try to solve social intellectual and psychological tensions between the family and the expectations of the majority society between Punjabi culture and religious values Debating Islam Samuel M. Behloul, Susanne Leuenberger, Andreas Tunger-Zanetti, 2014-03-15 Conspicuously Islam has become a key concern in most European societies with respect to issues of immigration integration identity values and inland security As the mere presence of Muslim minorities fails to explain these debates convincingly new questions need to be asked How did Islam become a topic Who takes part in the debates How do these debates influence both individual as well as collective self images and image of others Introducing Switzerland as an under researched object of study to the academic discourse on Islam in Europe this volume offers a fresh perspective on the objective by putting recent case studies from diverse national contexts into comparative perspective Racism, Governance, and Public Policy Katy Sian, Ian Law, S. Sayyid, 2013-06-07 This book presents a new framing of policy debates on the question of racism through a discursive critique of contemporary issues and contexts drawing on a program of new European research carried out between 2010 and 2013 with a central focus on the UK This includes analysis of the discursive construction of Muslims in three contexts the workplace education and the media Informed by a fundamental critique of both the post racial and the limitations of human rights strategies it identifies the ongoing significance of contemporary raciality in governance strategies and develops a new radical agenda for addressing these processes advocating strategies of racism reduction Saving the Security State Inderpal Grewal, 2017-10-27 In Saving the Security State Inderpal Grewal traces the changing relations between the US state and its citizens in an era she calls advanced neoliberalism Marked by the decline of US geopolitical power endless war and increasing surveillance advanced neoliberalism militarizes everyday life while producing the exceptional citizens primarily white Christian men who reinforce the security state as they claim responsibility for protecting the country from racialized others Under advanced neoliberalism Grewal shows others in the United States strive to become exceptional by participating in humanitarian projects that compensate for the security state s inability to provide for the welfare of its citizens In her analyses of microfinance programs in the global South security moms the murders at a Sikh temple in Wisconsin and the post 9 11 crackdown on Muslim charities Grewal exposes the fissures and contradictions at the heart of the US neoliberal empire and the centrality of race gender and religion to the securitized state Substance Use in Social Work Education and Training Hilda Loughran, Wulf Livingston, 2017-10-02 Substance use has become an increasingly common concern for all aspects of social work practice and especially when working with mental health and vulnerable families This requires all social workers to have sufficient education and training in alcohol and other drugs across a range of settings This volume presents evidence from a number of major studies which examine the current state of social work education in relation to substance use These contextual considerations are complemented by specific applied analyses which explore classroom methodological practice and theoretical considerations within both the UK and America Substance Use in Social Work Education and Training provides a strong evidence base for the effectiveness of appropriately targeted education and support given to social workers It further substantiates calls for a greater inclusion of more on substance use in social work education and curricula This book is based on a special issue of the journal Social Work Education Christian and Sikh
