Peace Studies for Sustainable

Development in Africa Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2022-10-26 This book presents a snapshot of a major challenge and shares subjective views on various areas of conflict in Africa and the diverse theoretical and practical efforts to achieve peace Following an essential review of several real world conflict contexts on the African continent and attempts to come to terms with them critically as a first step the book explores the lessons learned to date with regard to peace studies in Africa

Root Causes of Terrorism Tore Bjørgo, 2005-06-30 This team of international experts analyses the possibilities and limitations of preventing or reducing terrorism by addressing the factors that give rise to it and sustain it The key questions raised include what are the main circumstances that provide preconditions for the emergence of various types of terrorism what are the typical precipit

After Violence Elin Skaar, Camila Gianella Malca, Trine Eide, 2015-04-17 After Violence Transitional Justice Peace and Democracy examines the effects of transitional justice on the development of peace and democracy Anticipated contributions of transitional justice mechanisms are commonly stated in universal terms with little regard for historically specific contexts Yet a truth commission for example will not have the same function in a society torn by long term civil war or genocide as in a society emerging from authoritarian repression Addressing trials reparations truth commissions and amnesties the book systematically addresses the experiences of four very different contemporary transitional justice cases post authoritarian Uruguay and Peru and post conflict Rwanda and Angola Its analysis demonstrates that context is a crucial determinant of the impact of transitional justice processes and identifies specific contextual obstacles and limitations to these processes The book will be of much interest to scholars in the fields of transitional justice and peacebuilding as well as students generally concerned with human rights and democratisation

Taking Wrongs Seriously Elazar Barkan, Alexander Karn, 2006 This multi disciplinary collection examines the recent wave of political apologies for acts of past injustice

The Liberal Peace and Post-War Reconstruction Roger MacGinty, Oliver Richmond, 2013-09-13 The post Cold War has witnessed enormous levels of western peacekeeping peacemaking and reconstruction intervention in societies emerging from war These western led interventions are often called liberal peacebuilding or liberal interventionism or statebuilding and have attracted considerable controversy In this study leading proponents and critics of the liberal peace and contemporary post war reconstruction assess the role of the United States European Union and other actors in the promotion of the liberal peace and of peace more generally Key issues including transitional justice and the acceptance rejection of the liberal peace in African states are also considered The failings of the liberal peace most notably in Iraq and Afghanistan but also in other locations have prompted a growing body of critical literature on the motivations mechanics and consequences of the liberal peace This volume brings together key protagonists from both sides of the debate to produce a cutting edge state of the art discussion of one the main trends in contemporary international relations This book was originally published as a special issue of Global Society

Palgrave Advances in Peacebuilding O. Richmond, 2010-01-20 The quality of the peace arrived at via liberal peacebuilding approaches has been poor The related statebuilding praxis has generally been unable to respond to its critics What is at stake is a recognition of peacebuilding s everyday political social economic and cultural dynamics This indicates the emergence of a post liberal form of peace

Community Archives Jeannette Allis Bastian, Ben Alexander, 2009 How do archives and other cultural institutions such as museums determine the boundaries of a particular community and of their own institutional reach in constructing effective strategies and methodologies for selecting and maintaining appropriate material evidence This book offers guidance for archivists record managers and museums professionals faced with such issues in their daily work This edited collection explores the relationships between communities and the records they create at both practical and scholarly levels It focuses on the ways in which records reflect community identity and collective memory and the implications of capturing appraising and documenting these core societal elements with particular focus on the ways in which recent advances in technology can overcome traditional obstacles as well as how technologies themselves offer possibilities of creating new virtual communities It is divided into five themes a community archives model communities and non traditional record keeping records loss destruction and recovery online communities how technology brings communities and their records together building a community archive Readership This book will appeal to practitioners researchers and academics in the archives and records community as well as to historians and other scholars concerned with community building and social issues

Memorializing the Past Heidi Grunebaum, 2017-07-28 This work is a meditation on the shaping of time and its impact on living with and understanding atrocity in South Africa in the wake of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC It is an examination of the ways that the institutionalization of memory has managed perceptions of time and transition of events and happenings of sense and emotion of violence and recovery of the past and the new Through this process a public language of memory has been carved into collective modes of meaning It is a language that seems deprived of the hopes dreams and possibilities for the promise of a just and redemptive future it once nurtured Truth commissions are profoundly implicated in the social politics of memorialization Memory as a conceptual historical and experiential discourse about the past relates to the ways in which cruelty is integrated into societal understandings which include cognitive and philosophic frameworks and constructions of social meaning The politics of historical truth of memory and of justice play out in unintended ways There is not only the ongoing struggle for survivors of state terror but also the ways that the everyday shapings of silences the emptiness of reconciliation and the fracturing of hope remain embedded in political life

Playing Politics with History Andrew Beattie, 2008-09-01 After Germany's reunification in 1989-90 the country faced not only the history and consequences of the nation's division during the Cold War but also the continuing burdensome legacy of the Nazi past and the Holocaust This book explains why concerns that the Nazi past would be marginalized by the more recent Communist past proved to be misplaced It examines the delicate East West dynamics and the notion that the West sought to impose victor's justice or history on the East More specifically it examines for the first time the history and significance of two parliamentary commissions of inquiry created in the 1990s to investigate the divided past after 1945 and its effects on the reunified country Not unlike truth commissions elsewhere these inquiries provided an important forum for renegotiating contemporary Germany's relationship with multiple German pasts including the Nazi period and the Holocaust The ensuing debates and disagreements over the recent past examined by the author open up a window into the wider development of German memory identity and politics after the end of the Cold War

Political and Civic Leadership Richard A. Couto, 2010-09-14 This work within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership provides undergraduate students with an authoritative reference resource on political and civic leadership This 2 volume set focuses on the 100 most important topics issues question and debates specific to politics and civic society Entries provide students with more detailed information and depth of discussion than typically found in an encyclopedia entry while avoiding much of the jargon detail and density one might find in a journal article or a research handbook chapter Key Features Includes entries written by a global panel of renowned experts Offers broad coverage of important of the moment topics related to political and civic leadership including explorations of the personalities and environments of political leaders leadership roles in governance and allegiance citizen activists and civic engagement political campaigning urban politics and leadership public management ethics in politics policy development and implementation executive management of public opinion political speechmaking and the bully pulpit congressional leadership crisis management and more Considers the history of political and civic leadership with examples from the lives of pivotal figures as well as the institutional settings and processes that lead to both opportunities and constraints unique to the political realm Provides students with more depth than usual encyclopedic entries while avoiding the jargon detail and density of more advanced works Features an approachable and clear writing style with appeal to undergraduate researchers and offers a list of further readings after each entry as well as a detailed index and an online version of the work to maximize accessibility for today's students

Sins Of The Parents Brian Weiner, 2009-09-03 Should governments apologize for past wrongs done in their name

Routledge Handbook of Latin American Politics Peter Kingstone, Deborah J. Yashar, 2013-03-05 The Routledge Handbook of Latin American Politics brings together the leading figures in the study of Latin America to present extensive empirical coverage and a cutting edge examination of the central areas of inquiry in the region

Hannah Arendt and International Relations A. Lang, 2005-07-14 Hannah Arendt's approach to politics focuses on action and conduct rather than institutions constitutions and states In light of Arendtian conceptions of politics essays in this book challenge conventional IR theories

African Truth Commissions and Transitional Justice John Perry, T. Debey Sayndee, 2015-04-22 African Truth Commissions and Transitional Justice examines the functioning of truth commissions in Africa outlining the lessons learned the best practices and the successes and failures of seven African truth commissions Its introduction and conclusion then work further to place truth commissions within the growing academic field of transitional justice The first African truth commission was convened by the despot Idi Amin for reasons unrelated to the defense of human rights but despite this ambiguous beginning other African truth commissions have done important work The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission of 1996 has become the gold standard for future truth commissions not only in Africa but throughout the world it unearthed much truth about the Apartheid era abuse of human rights and took vital first steps towards restorative justice in the Republic Each truth commission is distinctive However although much has been written about South Africa's truth commissions much less is known about the other six studied in this book and an attentive reader will notice the suggestive patterns which emerge

The Right to Know the Truth in Transitional Justice Processes Natasha Stamenkovikj, 2021-11-29 Dr Natasha Stamenkovikj offers a comparative analysis of the scope and application of the right to the truth as a fundamental right in public international law and as a concept in European policies for promoting peace and transitional justice The book provides a systematized assessment of the conceptualisation of the right to the truth in the enlargement policy of the Council of Europe as applied towards the former Yugoslav societies By assessing the coherence of the Council's standardization on the right to the truth Dr Stamenkovikj addresses the legitimacy of the Council as an exporter of values and creator of norms
